ROSH HASHANAH

The Torah reading for Rosh Hashanah can be found in the Machzor. In the Mussaf Prayer of Rosh Hashanah there are 3 descriptions of G-D, through which we can relate to Him:

1) Malchuyot-Kingliness

G-D is the incomparable King of the Universe. The destiny of humanity is to come to this realization. Whereas human kings rule in accordance with the principle of "Might makes Right", G-D is the holy King, which is at the same time beyond comparison in His power. Yet he is also the father of the orphan and the judge of the widow, who is always on the side of the powerless. He is the Incorruptible and Righteous Judge of the world, who favors no one and cannot be bribed. He is the true G-D and his word, the Torah, is true and eternal.

2) Zichronot-Remembrance

We recognize that Hashem is above time and the idea of "forgetting" does not apply to Him, nor is He limited in understanding the inner thoughts of His creatures. Nevertheless, we ask that He remembers only the good in our behalf when he judges us. For all of humanity, for the whole world is judged today, we ask that he remembers that faith of Noach who endured taunts and threats for 120 years while he built the Ark, and tried to explain its purpose to his wayward generation. For the Jewish people in particular, we ask that he remembers the early loyalty of our people who followed Him as a bride and later as a precious child

3) Shofar-Blast of the Shofar

We recall the time that G-D revealed Himself on Mt. Sinai and gave us the Torah. "The whole world trembled at his Presence, creation shook in awe before you, when you, our King did reveal Yourself on Mt. Sinai to give your people the Torah and its commandments, letting them hear your majestic voice, your holy words out of flashes of fire. Amid thunder and lightning did you reveal Yourself to them, amid the sound of the Shofar did you appear to them."

The Shofar will be sounded when our Exile return and when the temple will be rebuilt. We ask that it be sounded again with the arrival of the Mashiach.

TASHLICH

"Tashlich" means "casting off" in Hebrew and involves symbolically casting off the sins of the previous year near a body of flowing water. In this way the participant hopes to start the New Year with a clean slate. Tashlich originated during the Middle Ages and was inspired by a verse uttered by the prophet Micah:

God will take us back in love; God will cover up our iniquities, You [God] will hurl all our sins Into the depths of the sea. (Micah 7:19)

As the custom evolved, it became tradition to go to a river and symbolically cast your sins into the water on the first day of Rosh HaShanah.

How to observe tashlich:

Tashlich is traditionally performed on the first day of Rosh HaShanah, but if this day falls on Shabbat then tashlich isn't observed until the second day of Rosh HaShanah. If it is not performed on the first day of Rosh HaShanah it can be done anytime up until the last day of Sukkot, which is thought to be the last day of the New Year's "judgment" period.

In order to perform tashlich, go to a flowing body of water such as a river, stream, sea or ocean, lakes or ponds that have fish are also a good place, because fish are immune to the evil eye. Some traditions say that fish are also significant because they can be trapped in nets just as we can be trapped in sin.
