PARASHAT HASHAVUA

METZORA - Page 620 in the Stone Chumash

1st and 2nd Aliyot: The purification process of the Metzora involving two kosher birds, a piece of cedar, some crimson wool, a hyssop branch, fresh spring water, a clay bowl, a Kohain, the Mikvah, seven days, a haircut and a Korban with its Mincha offering, is detailed.

3rd Aliya: The Korban of a poor Metzora is described.

4th, 5th, 6th, & 7th Aliyot: The laws dealing with blemishes that appear on a house are detailed. Following the laws of Tzaraas, the Torah turns its attention to various laws dealing with bodily discharges that render the individual Tameh. Male discharges, seminal discharges, menstruation, and other female discharges are detailed. Note: The basic laws of Family Purity are stated in verses 15:19-26.

HAFTARAT SHABBAT HAGADOL Page 1220 in the Stone Chumash

Malachi 3:4-24

The Shabbat which precedes Passover is called Shabbat haGadol, the Great Sabbath, for many and varied reasons, as we shall explain below. There are also many special customs associated with this Shabbat. It was in Egypt that Israel celebrated the very first Shabbat HaGadol on the tenth of Nissan, five days before their redemption. On that day, the Children of Israel were given their first commandment which applied only to that Shabbat, but not to future generations: On the tenth day of this month [Nissan]... each man should take a lamb for the household, a lamb for each home.

This mitzvah of preparing a lamb for the Passover offering four days before it was to be brought, applied only to that first Passover in Egypt, and the Torah does not tell us that we must continue to do so before every future Passover.

Nevertheless, the people continued to do this to make sure that their lambs had no blemishes which would preclude their being sacrificed. Many miracles were performed for the Children of Israel on this first Shabbat haGadol. The Torah commanded them to take their lambs and tie them to the bedpost. When they did so, their Egyptian neighbors saw this and asked:

"What is the lamb for?" The Children of Israel answered: "It is to be slaughtered as a Passover sacrifice as G-d has commanded us." The Egyptians, for whom the lamb was a deity, gnashed their teeth in anger but could not utter a sound in protest.

THE FUTURE

BETH JACOB CHAI LEGACY CIRCLE

What is legacy? It's a gift from the past that helps create a better future. Honor your lifetime of giving by committing to a gift now or in the future of any amount to support Beth Jacob. Make an appointment today with Rabbi Bogopulsky, Rand Levin, or Hillary Kleinman to begin your discussion, and learn 5 easy steps to create your legacy. legacy@bjsd.org

➤ LEGACY TIP OF THE WEEK:

Bundling: If you are giving to one or more charities annually and your itemized deductions do not meet the standard deduction, you may choose to contribute several years' worth of gifts to a Donor Advised Fund and distribute them gradually, whenever you choose, while the fund grows.
