TAKE ACTION - OU ADVOCACY NOTICE

Urge Congress to Repeal the Tax on Houses of Worship & Other Nonprofits. The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act Congress passed in December was intended to cut taxes and simplify the tax code. But it also includes a provision that for the first time compels nonprofits, ranging from synagogues and other houses of worship to religious day schools, to pay an array of new taxes and creates a host of compliance costs. Please visit advocacy.ou.org/take-action/102/.

PARASHAT HASHAVUA

Parashat Eikev - Page 980 in the Stone Chumash.

1st Aliyah: Moshe details the general rewards for following the Torah, and encourages the nation to have complete confidence in Hashem's protection. Moshe forewarns them of the dangers in being overly confident and commands them in the Mitzvah of Birkas Hamazon (8:10).

2nd Aliyah: Moshe warns them regarding the pitfalls of prosperity and idolatry, and exhorts them to remain humble in the face of their guaranteed victories. G-d is the one who deserves the credit!

3rd Aliyah: In order to illustrate his point, Moshe reviews the incident of the Golden Calf. He explains why G-d, being a G-d of Justice, will grant the Bnai Yisroel a victory over the inhabitants of Canaan. Not because the Jews are deserving, but because the Seven Nations deserve to be punished for their own evil actions. The actions of the Bnai Yisroel during the 40 years, such as the Golden Calf, should have resulted in the Jews' destruction. It was three factors which kept them alive and well so that they could inherit the land.

- 1) Hashem's promise to Avraham, Yitzchak, and Yaakov.
- 2) The Chillul Hashem- desecration of G-d's name-that would have occurred among the other nations who would question G-d's ability to protect His nation.
- 3) Moshe's begging for Hashem's forgiveness.

4th Aliyah: Moshe finishes the story of the Golden Calf by retelling the giving of the Second Luchos.

5th Aliyah: Moshe poses the famous rhetorical question of, "What does G-d want... follow His ways..." and describes other instances of Hashem's demanding justice.

6th Aliyah: Moshe describes the nature of Eretz Yisroel as demanding and responsive to our following the Torah. The second Parsha of Shema is recorded.

: Moshe promises the nation total victory if they listen to the Mitzvos and follow the ways of the Hashe

HAFTARAH FOR EIKEV

In this week's Haftarah, Yishayahu the Navi evokes a powerful image that is consistent with this week's Parsha. He describes our relationship with Hashem as a mother who can not possibly abandon or forget her children. Nothing that we will do, or that might occur, can result in Hashem being divorced from His People. In fact, even though G-d seemingly "hides His face" from us and allows other nations to dominate and oppress us, they will ultimately have to answer to Him. Parents who appropriately punish their children are doing G-d's work and are rewarded for their expressions of love and caring. However, the "punishing nations" have never accepted their position as the extended hand of a loving G-d chastising and punishing His chosen people. Therefore, they will be punished, rather than rewarded.
