PARASHAT HASHAVUA

Parshat Pinchas - Page 876 in the Stone Chumash.

1st Aliya: As a reward for his act of zealousness, Pinchas is appointed as a Kohain. Although a grandson to Aharon, he was not included in the original selection of Kohanim. No other person would ever be so honored

2nd Aliya: Moshe is told to do battle against the Midianites in retaliation for the incident at Baal Peor. Moshe counts the Benai Yisroel in preparation for entering Eretz Yisroel. The total number of men over 20 years old, not including the Leviyim, is 601,730; compared to 40 years earlier when it was 603,550. If you include all men, women and children, the total is approx. three million

3rd Aliya: Moshe divides Israel through a lottery that miraculously matched each tribe to its proper portion. The Leviyim are counted.

4th Aliya: Motivated by the "shayla - question" of Tzelofchad's daughters regarding their father who died without any sons, the laws of inheritance are discussed. Moshe is told to prepare for his death, and Yehoshua is chosen as his successor.

5th, 6th & 7th Aliyot: The remainder of the Parsha details the various public sacrifices offered throughout the year: daily, Shabbat, Musaf, Rosh Chodesh, and every Yom Tov.

Haftarah for Pinchas - Page 1190 in the Stone Chumash Jeremiah 1:1 - 2:3

Tlas Diparanuta is the name given to the next three Haftarat. These are special selections from the Navi Yirmiyahu that were chosen because they prophesied the destruction of Yerushalayim and the 1st Beit Hamikdash.

In this Haftarah, Yirmiyahu HaNavi foretells of the Babylonian invasion. The condemnation of the Jews for abandoning G-d and Torah is somewhat softened by the concluding description of Hashem's love for His children. "I remember the devotedness of your youth, your love as a bride, how you followed me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown." as if we are given permission to envision the tears of the Creator as He confronts His beloved's infidelity.

ASPECTS OF MOURNING DURING THE 3 WEEKS

- No weddings are held. (However, engagement ceremonies are permitted.)

- We do not listen to music.

- We avoid all public celebrations -- especially those which involve singing, dancing and musical accompaniment.

- We avoid pleasure trips or other unusually entertaining activities.

- No haircuts or shaving. (Fingernails may be clipped up until the week in which Tisha B'Av falls.)

- We do not say the blessing Shehecheyanu on new food or clothes.
