PARASHAT HASHAVUA

KEDOSHIM - Page 656 in the Stone Chumash

1st Aliya: The beginning of Kedoshim states that, holiness is realized through keeping Shabbos, being in awe of one's father and mother, and the prohibition against idol worship. Laws of charity, honesty, and the paying of wages on time are also stated.

2nd and 3rd Aliyot: Showing deference in the administration of justice is forbidden. We have the responsibility to "properly reprimand" each other. The prohibition against wearing any mixture of wool and linen, cutting sideburns (Payot), tattooing, premarital sex, and the use of mediums or the occult are stated.

4th and 5th Aliyot: Proper and equal treatment for the Ger-convert, honesty in business, and the prohibition against worshipping the Molech are stated.

5th, 6th, and 7th Aliyot: remainder of Kedoshim states the specific punishments that Bait Din would administer for the fifteen prohibited sexual relationships listed at the end of Acharei Mos.

HAFTARA FOR KEDOSHIM Page 1174 in the Stone Chumash

Amos 9:7 - 15

The basic theme of the Haftara is the responsibility of the Jews to maintain a life style of Kedusha - holiness that sets them apart from all the other nations and grants them the right to live in Eretz Yisroel. Amos the Navi began by chastising the Bnai Yisroel for being no better than the Pilshtim or the Arameans. They too were saved from oppression and enslavement but did not cherish the opportunity that G-d had granted to them. Amos began his prophecies in 3115 - 646 b.c.e. when Yeravam II extended the boundaries of Israel (the Northern Kingdom) and under whose reign the kingdom of Israel flourished. Yeravam attempted to banish Amos from the kingdom because of his prophecy that Yerovam's kingdom would not last. Amos criticized the kingdom for persecuting the poor and immersing themselves in materialism and luxury. Amos told the Jews that primary destruction would be directed against the leaders of the kingdom while the populace would be driven into exile. His presentation painted the exile of Israel as an act of preservation and kindness on G-d's part. Verse 9:11 is the verse that we add to the grace after meals during Succot that prophesies the rebuilding of the Davidic dynasty. The final words of Amos prophecy the coming of Mashiach and the return to Eretz Yisroel.
