RABBI'S MESSAGE

This week's events truly put the 'Mar' (bitter) into 'Mar-Cheshvan' (name of the current Jewish month). As you're all aware we are currently mourning the loss of 11 of our brothers and sisters in Pittsburgh. This has shocked the Jewish community to the core. There is a lot of fear around and people seem apprehensive about going to places of worship. This week we read in the Torah of the first anti-Semitic attack. When Abraham's servant came to find a wife for Yitzchak he miraculously found Rebecca. When he met her parents (according to some sources), they tried to poison his food and prevent the Jewish race from happening. Hashem made a miracle and an angel came to swap the food and Rebecca's father died instead. From that day on we have faced serious anti-Semitism from everywhere. It is nothing new and will not be totally eradicated until the arrival of Moshiach. However, leaving the issues of security for people other than myself to discuss, we need to show the haters that we cannot be beaten. Let's show that no matter what, we will still practice our religion. We will still come to shul. We will still keep Torah and Mitzvot. It has just come to light that the nurse treating the murderer in Pittsburgh was Jewish and proudly wore a Star of David. Apparently the perpetrator was shouting obscenities at her. But this is what we do as Jews, we are kind and goodhearted and help others, and ultimately righteousness will defeat hatred.

This Saturday night we move the clocks back to Eastern Standard Time. This has several ramifications in Halacha. The earliest time for Davening moves earlier and the latest time for reciting Shema is much earlier. In fact it moves on Sunday to 9:18 AM. This means one has to recite the entire Shema (3 paragraphs) either prior to coming to shul or during Pesukei D'Zimrah, on Shabbat mornings for the next few weeks. The latest time for davening Shacharit is 10:14 AM, and the earliest time for davening Mincha is 12:32 PM and Mincha needs to be completed by 5:30 PM. Please check 'rabbisaunders.com' for a complete breakdown of the halachic times every day.
