RABBI'S MESSAGE

Well well well well well well well; we have finally reached the Parsha of Toldot. And as you can probably guess from my headline, there are a lot of wells being dug this week.

In fact the city Be'er Sheva In Israel is so named because there are seven wells dug there.

The Philistines kept arguing with Isaac about all his wealth and his wells, but eventually he dug a well and they did not contend with him about it. The Rabbis expound that these wells allude to the fact that we will be in exile many times and be afflicted by many kingdoms. We will be harassed and our wealth will be stolen. However we will prevail in the end with the coming of Moshiach.

In fact, this week's Parsha sows the seeds of all hatred towards Jews.

Yaakov and Esau were twins but as is typical of brothers they didn't get along with each other. In fact Isaac wanted to bless Esau with material wealth and riches, but Rebecca tricked Isaac and made Jacob steal the blessings by dressing up as Esau and taking his place. When Esau comes back he is enraged and swears to kill Jacob. This is the beginning of anti-semitism.

This Shabbat is the Shabbat before Veterans Day, (Nov 11) and I want to pay tribute to all veterans.

Without their sacrifice or willingness to make the ultimate sacrifice, we would not be here today. This week I encourage all veterans to come to Shul wearing their uniform and medals where we will honor them in a small service.
