These are some of the many programs we will be offering through our Partnership in Jewish Programming which began at the start of the pandemic. Your continued support of these programs both by attending and by your donations have helped us to continue and maintain a high level of programming. Thank you all so much.

Although, it may feel that way at times, and truthfully there are days or services that I find myself daydreaming since my connection gets lost, kind of like my internet service. But when I push the reset button, I get a new charge and find new ways to say the words, look at the room around me, perhaps even find a new image in the art of the ark that I did not see before.

The questions to ask are why, for whom, for what, for when? Why should this be important for me? Whom else should I be concerned about besides myself? What new meaning can I find to make a new connection? If this is important, then how do I help convince others to jump in and swim with me?

In this new year of 5784, let us take Hillel to heart. "If I am not for myself, who will be for me? If I am only for myself, what am I? And if not now, when?" Help jump start something new. Get involved in a social program. Take a class and reinvigorate your mind. Come to a service at least once a month to not only invigorate your soul, but by doing so, help another person do the same.

I like to say, be a part of something and not apart from something. We can count the people who enter the building, but what I would rather be doing is counting on the people in my community.

On behalf of my entire family, I wish you and yours a Shana Tova Tikatevu V'tehatemu...may you all be blessed with a wonderful new year and inscribed in the book of life for many years to come.

~ Rabbi Larry I. Brandspiegel

Most of us have learned the quote by the great sage, Hillel, "If I am not for myself, who will be for me? If I am only for myself, what am I? And if not now, when?" If you have never heard this quote before, NOW is the time to read it, learn from it, and follow its teaching.

As you receive your Recorder this month, you are aware that we are only a couple of weeks away from our High Holy days. So what? It is the same thing year after year. We are told to come to services, to pour our hearts out to Gd, and to give money to the Shul. We sit quietly when the Rabbi speaks and when the Cantor chants. Then come back the next day and the following week to do it all over again.

If that were really the essence behind all of it, we may as well pack it up and close the doors. I will not say it is easy to come to the true meaning of it all. For each of us, it is going to be different. That is what sets us apart from each other while also making us connect with each other.

Each time we do something familiar, we also have an opportunity to enhance it and make it better, sometimes more interesting, more challenging, more provocative, more enticing, and more connecting. That is real Judaism. It is not supposed to be the same day in and day out.

FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Over the past 4 years, perhaps just before Covid entered and changed our lives, I made the decision to “test” friendships. Now this may seem crazy, but I realized over several years, that there were some friendships that were being kept alive because I was the one doing it. I called. I Initiated contact. I set up lunch dates. Time after time. I began to wonder what would happen if I just didn’t call. Why weren’t these people, who I’ve known for years, call me? It’s not like they wouldn’t take my call when I did call. It’s not like they “ghosted” me. It’s just that they never made the effort. I’ve actually had several friends tell me that they don’t call me because I’m always so busy and they never know when it’s a good time to call. Really? It seems to me, that if they called at a bad time, I would tell them so and inform them that I’d call back. So...lame excuse. Is it me? Nah...I’m great (insert smiley, winky face here).

So, I made the decision to stop calling and see what happens. I’m very blessed to have a nice circle of friends who actually do call me. They make the effort, because friendship and connection works both ways. A one-sided relationship just doesn’t work. It’s doomed to fail. I realized that I was putting pressure on myself to keep those connections going. It’s actually been quite freeing and although it is sad, sometimes relationships end.

Speaking of connections working both ways (see what I’m doing here?), let’s talk about the Synagogue connection. The EBJC connection. Whenever I am talking to a new or prospective member, one of the things I say (rather repetitively) is that an effort has to be made to connect. Again, this works both ways. As a Synagogue, we have to connect. We have to reach out through our board, our membership committees, through our clergy, our services, and our programming. We have to make that effort. We need to bring our families, our community together spiritually and socially. Do we do this? Well, we sure do try. Are we always 100% successful? Probably not. That would actually be amazing and almost a miracle because we’re people and we make mistakes.

Like I said, it works both ways. So, when a family joins, the most important thing to do is start connecting. If they don’t do that, they’re doomed to fail (and by fail, I mean leave the synagogue). So how does a member (either seasoned or new) connect? Here are some suggestions:

- Come to services, even if you’re not religious. You get to see people and schmooze over kiddush. Clergy gets to know you as a “regular” as well – added plus!
- Come to a program – Men’s Club, Sisterhood, EBJC, Hazak – you choose! You’d be amazed at how many people attend and the friendships you can strike up!
- Volunteer – One of the best ways to meet people and form friendships! The upside is that you help the synagogue because we just don’t have the staff for all of the work that needs to be done and we’re very appreciative!

- Be Involved – this pretty much covers everything. If you drop your child off to Keshet, and never enter the building for anything else, you’re losing out. You’re losing out on the possible connections. You’re losing out on involvement. You’re losing out on friendships...and the Synagogue eventually loses you after your last child becomes a Bar/Bat Mitzvah, because you never took the time to connect.

This past month (August), we’ve welcomed three new families to EBJC. I’ve said to them as I say to you...take the time to connect. Come into the building. We can reach out only so far, but without effort on your part, we will both fail. We will fail in our efforts to get you involved, and you will fail in what could possibly be one of the most positive experiences of your life.

To everyone, I wish you a happy, healthy new year.

May you be well,

Ellen

lend a hand. We have committees and positions that need to be filled.

I realize, as I write this, that I was, for many years, one of the people who sat back and let the others do all the heavy lifting. I had plenty of reasons not to get involved. But I finally decided to step up, and I can honestly say, that I am glad I did. I have gotten to work with a lot of terrific people, all of them committed to our synagogue and community. Why don't you join us?

When I start to think about the approach of the High Holidays, I always think about the annual "ritual" that we performed with our children at the start of September. We drove down Cranbury Road to the Himich Farm, where we picked apples right from the trees.

Some of those apples were cut and served with honey at the start of our Rosh Hashanah dinner, while most of the others were loaded into apple pies that we served for dessert. The farm closed many years ago, but I still smile when I pass the entrance.

A new year gives us all another chance to bond with family, friends, and community. It is a time for prayer, thought, and reflection. But prayer without action is just words. As the old saying goes "talk is cheap." If we are going to build our community, and sustain our community, we need participation. The synagogue does not run on "automatic." Programs don't magically appear. Things only get done if we have people willing to

It is a New Year, with a New Rabbi, and new programs on the way. Be part of the New. Get involved. Together we will build an even greater EBJC.

On behalf of myself, my co-president Jack Goldberg, and our families, we wish you all a Shana Tovah!

Steve Wohl
EBJC Co-president

SISTERHOOD

As we bid farewell to summer and usher in the High Holidays, we look forward to a fun-filled and productive year ahead.

Our annual Membership campaign is currently underway. This year's Paid-Up Membership event is scheduled for Thursday evening, October 12. We look forward to mingling with old friends and experiencing the joy of making new acquaintances.

Don't be left out—renew your membership now or join Sisterhood for the first time! The rewards are abundant, and the cost is still only $36. We hope every woman in our congregation finds a compelling reason to join Sisterhood. As we all favor our own paths toward Jewish connection, Sisterhood offers something for everyone. Join us whether your interest is ritual, education, or the warmth of friendship with your fellow congregants.

This Past Month—

On Tuesday, August 8, Sisterhood sponsored a fun outdoor "Games Day" at the home of Anne Kroll. We sincerely thank Anne for her hospitality, and we are grateful to everyone who donated jewelry to a very successful sale.

On Thursday, August 31, our Sisterhood Quarterly Book Club discussed the historical novel The Thread Collectors, a poignant Civil War story about the special bond that formed between two couples—one African American/one Jewish—against the tragic backdrop of our divided nation.

On the Horizon—

Start the fall Holiday season off right with new recipes to enhance your festive dinners and wow your guests. On Thursday, September 7, join us on Zoom at 7:30 pm as Yvette Schluskel presents "Creative Cooking for Rosh Hashanah".

On Sunday, September 10, Sisterhood will be upholding its tradition of polishing the silver that adorns the Torahs before the High Holidays. Thank you to Men's Club for helping us move these sacred objects.

On Sunday, October 22, Sisterhood is featuring a special Book and Author event that you won't want to miss. Schmoose and booze with continental breakfast starting at 9 am. At 10 am, EBJC's own Shirley Russak Wachtel will share her latest novel, A Castle in Brooklyn, a heartwarming story with Holocaust roots that will touch anyone who has dreamed of a better life.

Judging by Shirley's previous works, we know this book will be terrific! All synagogue members are warmly invited to participate.

Our next Sisterhood Book Club selection is The Lost Family by Jenna Blum. This novel explores the impact of the Holocaust on a family struggling to rise above the horrors of the past. Late fall date to be announced.

We're grateful to those who have emailed me (Sara Ullman at sarajull366@gmail.com) with suggestions for future books. If you loved a book with a Jewish theme, fiction or non-fiction, why not consider leading one of our sessions. Guidance will be provided.

Our annual Torah Fund campaign is off to a great start. As always, we hope you will support the education of Conservative Judaism's future leaders by donating. This year's theme is Kol Yisrael Arevim Zeh Ba'Zeh, "All the people of Israel are responsible for one another." Brand new pins to arrive soon!

PURCHASING SCRIP IS AN EASY WAY TO SUPPORT SISTERHOOD! We currently have gift cards on hand to Shoprite and Acme. We extend our sincere thanks to those congregants who regularly purchase these gift cards. Contact Cheryl Decker at 732-257-7070.

The new Women's League calendar diaries for 5784 ARE NOW AVAILABLE at $12 each in the office. Filled with many bonus features, such as special prayers, the calendar diary makes a terrific novel hostess gift to bring to New Year celebrations.

Check out our Sisterhood Judaica Shop for all your needs—tallisim, kiddush cups, mezuzot, religious jewelry, head coverings....the list goes on and on. If you have something special in mind, we can probably order it for you. Contact Cindy Rollman at cinpepper1@aol.com.

From our families to yours, extending a heartfelt SHANAH TOVA to our beloved Sisterhood members and esteemed fellow congregants. May the New Year bring good health, peace, and fulfillment to all.

Warm regards,
Sara Ullman, Immediate Sisterhood Past President

MEN'S CLUB

Shalom:

EBJC's Men Club is looking forward to an active 5784 as we start with Erev Rosh Hashanah on September 15 and Yom Kippur and Sukkot shortly thereafter.

Information on all Men's Club upcoming activities can be found at <https://ebjc.org/mens-club>. Please go there for current information about upcoming events. For information on our open board meetings, please go to the EBJC calendar; all interested are welcome.

During the holiday season there are a long list of Men's Club activities including helping Sisterhood polish the Torah silver adornments and ushering. Please help support our activities any way you can. We can especially use assistance with ushers during services; we can be contacted at mensclub@ebjc.org to volunteer.

One of our most important activities is our annual L'shana Tova basket program. If you have not yet responded, please do so immediately. The last day for receipt of paper orders is August 30, and the last day for online orders is September 3. MC can use help packing (September 7 at 8:30 pm in the Kroll Ballroom) and delivering (September 10). Please submit your order at <https://www.ebjc.org/Ishanatova>. Contact Howard Jacobs (howard_jacobs@ebjc.net) with questions. Everyone who supports this vital MC program is much appreciated.

MC is hosting a Burgers and Brews in the Booth Sukkah dinner on Thursday, October 5 at 6:30 pm with additional food options. Everyone is welcome to attend. We are inviting as complimentary MC guests male CEL and Keshet parents that come together, so bring a friend or make a new one and you eat for free. Please go to ebjc.org/brews-in-the-booth for more details. This is always one of our most popular events of the year.

On Sunday, October 1 at 1:30 pm MC and Keshet will be sponsoring a family Sukkah Hop. All are welcome to attend. We will begin and end at EBJC, but are requesting volunteers to host at their sukkah for approximately 15 minutes during the event. All required of a host is letting the group visit your sukkah and offering your guests light refreshments. Hosts always enjoy sharing their sukkah with our young visitors. Please respond to mensclub@ebjc.net if you can host or have questions.

We have our next hike scheduled for October 15 at 2 pm. Please look out for more details at ebjc.org/hike.

MC jointly sponsors a regular weekly open pickleball session at 350 Dunham's Corner Rd., twice a week at 11 am on Tuesday and Thursday.

On January 7 we will have our Man of the Year and Youth of the Year dinner. We can't wait to see who will get these well-deserved honors this year.

We are always interested in new and innovative ideas for activities for our membership. We are especially interested in sponsoring events of interest to members with children. Please let us know if you have any ideas for events such as wine or beer making, sporting events, bowling, movies, outings of all types, Jewish-oriented activities and the like. We would very much like to hear your ideas and make them a reality.

Men's Club looks forward to seeing you at our upcoming activities. Please let us know if you have any questions or would like to get involved.

KESHER AND YOUTH GROUPS

Shalom, EBJC family!

My name is Justin Hirsch, and I am excited to be starting as the interim Education Director for the upcoming school year. Some of you may know me from the two years (2020-2022) that I taught the Kitah Zayin class, so I am honored to be back in a leadership position that will help me to help you grow our excellent program. Before I share some of my goals, allow me to tell you a little about my background. I have been tutoring and then teaching in Hebrew Schools in NJ and NY since 1998. I have a BA in English & Psychology, with minors in Judaic Studies and Education, an MS in Adolescent Education, a certificate to teach Students with Disabilities, and an MA in Urban Education-Administration. Lastly, I am halfway through with a School Leadership certificate. I currently serve as the Technology Coordinator at Central High School in Newark, where I previously taught English to 10th-12th graders.

With my background in both Hebrew School and public school education, I am looking forward to working with you and our teachers to build a curriculum focused on Hebrew reading to prepare for tefillah and Torah/ Haftarah leading, Torah study, Jewish cultures/values, holidays, and our connection to Israel. For grades 6 and 7, we will include a study of the Holocaust, as well as some insight into how we can embrace our Judaism while combating bigotry. With Rabbi Larry, we have begun looking into some field trips and experiential learning opportunities. In addition to the curriculum, I plan to grow our students' relationship with Jewish life through regular communication with our parents and families.

Always remember that no matter how strong a school is, our students' Jewish connection is so much a part of what they can share at home. As we work together this year, please encourage Hebrew practice, Torah discussion, and family memories around the table (or in front of the TV!) so that the work we do in school is reflected in the love we share at home.

I am away August 23-28 and November 5-12, but otherwise, I am available to answer your questions any time outside of Shabbat and Yom Tov.

Have a wonderful rest of the summer!

~Justin

It's time for another wonderful school year to begin! We are so excited to see what the 2023-2024 school year has in store for us. This year, Morah Lynda, Morah Abbie and Morah Dominique will be teaching our Gozalim class (2 year olds). Morah Stefani and Morah Margie will be teaching the Parparim class (3 year olds). And finally, Morah Jodi and Morah Michele will be teaching our Tziporim class (4 year olds).

Thanks to a grant we were awarded by the state of New Jersey in the previous school year, we have been able to slowly but surely make some much needed updates in our school. Last year we got a brand new Jack-and-Jill bathroom in between two of our classrooms. No more leaving the classroom to change diapers and wash our hands! More changes are coming our way, such as upgrading our indoor play gym, so stay tuned! We can't wait to share these changes with you all.

September is always a super busy time at CEL! Not long after our school year begins will we learn all about the many Jewish holidays that take place in the coming weeks. Dipping apples in honey and making decorations for our sukkah are some of the exciting traditions we are eager to share with our new friends. We wish all of our CEL families and friends a happy, healthy, and sweet new year!

EBJC offers a full range of adult courses designed for all interests and at various days and times. If you want to learn something that is not currently offered, let us know!

AVAILABLE CLASSES

PARSHAT HASHAVUAH CLASS (ZOOM)

Fridays | 11 a.m. (on Summer hiatus)

Join us for this Friday morning class at 11 a.m. where we study the weekly parshah prior to Shabbat. Reflecting on the Chumash and ancient and modern commentaries, we discuss the roots of our ancient culture and the timeless values of the Jewish people.

GENESIS SCIENCE CLASS WITH DR. JUDAH LANDA

Mondays | 8:30 p.m. via Zoom.

This class combines a rigorous textual analysis of the biblical verses with knowledge from external sources, including history, science, linguistics and archeology. We meet every Monday evening at 8:30 pm for about one hour (virtually on TEAMS these days, perhaps will go hybrid again). After more than 15 years of continuous study, having started at the beginning of the Book of Genesis and completed the entire Pentateuch, the Books of Joshua, Judges and I Samuel, we are currently (November 2022) making our way thru II Samuel (King David).

TALMUD CLASS WITH DR. JUDAH LANDA

Wednesdays | 8:30 p.m. Via Zoom

This class brings to life the voices, discussions and debates of our sages as they formulated Jewish Law based on the traditions and foundational texts received from ancient times. We meet every Wednesday evening at 8:30 pm for about one hour (virtually on TEAMS these days, perhaps will go hybrid again). Currently we are studying tractate Megillah via the Artscroll English translation and commentary.

LUNCH AND LEARN (ZOOM)

Wednesdays | 12 p.m.

Classes are temporarily on-hold.

MONROE LUNCH AND LEARN

Thursdays | 12 p.m.

Once a month we meet with Cantor Larry in the homes of various congregants. These sessions have been very interesting and well attended. Please call Howard Jacobs at 732-402-2273 or at howardjacobs@ebjc.org for details on upcoming dates, to get on our Monroe mailing list, with questions and to reserve your spot.

HevraTehillim - a "Psalm Fellowship"

Join us for a healing prayer circle for EBJC members, as we recite from the Book of Psalms in English and Hebrew. We gather each week to chant psalms together to pray for the sick and ask for their healing. All are welcome to join the Zoom meeting on Tuesday evenings from 8:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. Please send in the name of the person you will be praying for to: selectivemedia@comcast.net, where a list will be kept.
