

Congregation Torah Ohr

Guest Lecture Series

How the Fallen Can Become Great: Lessons From Sefer Shemot

with

Rabbi Yoni Levin

Sunday, January 27

10:00am

Rabbi Yoni Levin is currently the assistant rabbi at Congregation Aish Kodesh as well as the Rosh Kollel of Emek Hamelech, both of which are under the leadership of Rav Moshe Weinberger. Rabbi Levin graduated from Yeshiva College with a B.S. in Mathematics and a minor in Business from the Sy Syms School of Business. He received Semicha from the Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary at Yeshiva University, and was a fellow at the prestigious Beren Kollel Elyon at RIETS. Rabbi Levin has a strong passion for Halacha and Chasidus as can be seen from hundreds of his Shiurim on YUTorah. Rabbi Levin has also worked as an actuary at PricewaterhouseCoopers, giving him some understanding of the challenges and opportunities many are faced with in the course of a day's work. Rabbi Levin and his wife Randi currently live in Woodmere with their six children.