CANDLE LIGHTING NOTE – When one household member is attending an early Minyan and another is lighting at home, it is preferable to light before the Shul attendee returns home (about 7:05 pm this week).

The earliest time to light candles with a bracha is 6:28 pm this week. One leaving for Shul with no one else at home to light candles may light before 6:28 pm, but should not recite the bracha. Alternatively, one may ask a Jewish neighbor to light his candles between 6:28 pm and Shekia (Sunset).

For Information Only; Exploratory Outreach:

The Shomrei Torah Shul in Fair Lawn, New Jersey is considering a mission to Israel with Rabbi Andrew and Sara Markowitz and Rabbi Benjamin and Shevi Yudin during the period of January 7 - 18 but the scope of this trip is flexible based upon the consensus of those interested in participating in a mission. This note is therefore an exploratory survey to see who would be interested in this trip. Past Israel trips by Shomrei Torah have been very special and long remembered. If sufficient interest is shown, we will work with agencies to determine which itineraries / costs would be acceptable to all. If you are interested in this proposed Israel mission, please contact Michael Glass at mglass1015@yahoo.com or at 973 462-3078.
