Thank you to Stuart & Estelle Price, Dr. Mark & Anne Rubin, Daryl Sissman, Deborah Fidel, Shayna Aronson and the many other people (too many to list all your names!) who made this celebration a fantastic reality.

To all of our Temple Shalom Family, our greatest appreciation. It has been our good fortune to spend the last ten years in this warm, welcoming community, sharing simchas and joy with all of you. From the moment we arrived, you made us feel at home. We look forward to calling this our home for many years to come.

Borrowing the blessing for a home:

בָּזֵה הַמָּקוֹם תִּהִי בִרֶכָה וִשָּׁלוֹם

May this place always be one filled with blessing & peace

Adam, Jennifer, Jonah, Gabriel & Eli

To my Temple Shalom family, it has been an honor to serve as your Cantor these past 10 years. Steve and I love the community we have found at Temple Shalom! The members of this congregation have taken us in and have become our family. I'm so grateful for the relationships that have developed over the years with my clergy partners, the staff, lay leaders, and the congregation. It has been such a privilege to be a part of so many important moments in people's lives.

Thank you to all the chairs for all your hard work. Stuart & Estelle Price,

Dr. Mark & Anne Rubin, Debbe & Danny Schertzer, Veora & Dr. John Little, Bobbie & Dr. Gene Katz, Ashley & Anthony Solomon and so many more! From the Illustrated Torah, the Scholar Series, the Tribute Album and the Cantorial Concert, the accolades we are receiving are overwhelming, in the best way.

My heart is full, and we look forward to many more years!

Guest Cantors

Cantor Maria Dubinsky - Temple Avodat Shalom, River Edge, NJ

Cantor Dubinsky was born in Moscow and made Aliyah to Israel, where she graduated with a degree in Vocal performance from the Rubin Academy of Music and Dance in Jerusalem. She was a classical performer and an opera singer, then relocated to the United States where she was ordained as a Cantor by the HUC-JIR in 2010. Cantor Dubinsky then served in NY and NJ. She enjoys her roles as a teacher, musician, spiritual leader, community builder and friend.

Cantor Galit Dadoun-Cohen - Temple Beth Or, Morristown, NJ

Cantor Dadoun-Cohen brings a unique voice, combining a diverse Sephardic background with extensive classical musical training. Born and raised in Israel, she earned her Bachelor of Music and Arts Diploma from the Rubin Academy of Music of Tel Aviv University and her Master of Music from Brooklyn College – CUNY. In 2010, she received her cantorial ordination from the HUC-JIR. She has served as Cantor in New Jersery and has sung opera and classical song in festivals, concerts, and various projects throughout the U.S., Europe and Israel.

Cantor Daniel Mutlu - Central Synagogue, New York, NY

Cantor Mutlu attended the Yeshiva Academy Achei Tmimim, earned a Bachelor's Degree in Vocal Performance from New England Conservatory of Music, and a Master's Degree in Sacred Music at HUC-JIR. He served as cantor in New York and Texas. He joined the Debbie Friedman School of Sacred Music faculty and teaches in the Cantorial Certification Program. He performed with premier musical ensembles and earned glowing musical reviews from the New York Times. He was a featured soloist on "Musica Omnia" and on Grammy Award nominated Trinity Choir Wall Street's release, "Handel, Israel in Egypt."

Guest Cantors

Cantor Daniel Singer - Stephen Wise Free Synagogue, New York, NY

Cantor Singer serves at the Stephen Wise Free Synagogue in NYC. He has degrees in music and mass communications from the UW-Superior, vocal performance from the University of Michigan, sacred music and cantorial ordination from the HUC-JIR Debbie Friedman School of Sacred Music, and performing arts administration from NYU. He published two songbook anthologies, won numerous awards and has been recognized nationally for his rich bass voice. He is an accomplished recording artist, multi-faceted guitarist, pianist, composer of music and is a voice actor with national credits for radio, television, and animated feature films.

Cantor Star A. Trompeter - Congregation Beth Israel, Houston, TX

Cantor Trompeter was ordained in 2010 from HUC-JIR, Debbie Friedman School of Sacred Music. She received her Master of Sacred Music from HUC-JIR, her Master in Music Vocal Performance from the New England Conservatory of Music, and her Bachelor of Arts in Music and French Language and Literature from the University of Virginia. She taught music theory and has served as Vocal Director, Cantor and Senior Cantor. She has performed in operas and musicals around the country, has been featured for her services, and has a passion for multi-generational programming and interfaith involvement.

Mazal tov to Cantor Donna Azu and Rabbi Adam Miller on 10 fabulous years of dedicated leadership to our Temple Shalom One Family!

I am grateful to have you as my dear clergy partners. You are talented, wise and inspiring.

May you go from strength to strength!

Rabbi Ariel Boxman

We are honored to offer our congratulations to you, Rabbi Adam Miller and Cantor Donna Azu as you celebrate your tenth year of dedicated service to Temple Shalom.

Working with you every day, I see how you both give of yourselves to others with joy, wisdom and compassion and carry out your duties with strength and inspiration.

It is a special honor to be part of this occasion where our community is celebrating your calling, your achievements and the indelible imprint you have left on our congregation.

Thank you for your service to our One Family.

Deborah Fidel, Executive Director

Rabbi Miller and Cantor Azu — After Ten Years

In today's uncertain world, any demonstration of stability should be joyfully celebrated. This anniversary is about two outstanding religious leaders — Rabbi Adam Miller, our rabbi, and Cantor Donna Azu, our cantor, but it's also about the two of them together with all of us — those who celebrate as well as those who are celebrated. After all, we're doing it at a truly extraordinary time, and at a critical moment for our community and our country. It takes a lot of prescient vision, skill and talent for a rabbi and cantor to manage all this. They have it and they did it. How fortunate we are to have such leaders and to count them among our friends as well. And this is yet one more reason to say: "Thank-you, Rabbi Miller. Thank you, Cantor Azu. We're happy and grateful that you're here."

Jane & Rabbi James Perman

Honor and Praise!

My first exposure to Rabbi Miller and Cantor Azu (Adam and Donna in my mind) was at the 2014 Interfaith Thanksgiving service which, if I remember correctly, took place at the Naples UCC. It was my first year in Naples, my first year in ministry, and I was simply hoping to fit in. The welcome from my new colleagues was warm and I remember specifically the very tall Rabbi who gave me a strong handshake and said we should get together soon.

I was struck then, as I have been in every encounter since, of Adam and Donna's high level of professionalism and dedication to the art of excellent ministry. They both exhibit that sense of presence and calm, of being ready for any situation and of acting in accordance with a deeper law. And then there's the natural graciousness, a warmth that cannot be taught in rabbinical school or seminary but that can certainly be enhanced by a deeper understanding of scripture, of our human frailties and of our place in the universe.

Both Rabbi Miller and Cantor Azu have also answered the call whenever people of faith have had to stand up to injustice. I have a vivid memory of Adam's presence and his strong message at the vigil held at our congregation after the Charlottesville incident in 2017. And both Adam and Donna have made it easy to stand in solidarity with the Temple when called upon to speak out on the right of conscience in an often-intolerant world.

I am honored to count myself a colleague and congratulate Adam and Donna on a successful 10 years of service to Temple Shalom and the greater Naples community!

With great respect,

Rev. Tony Fisher, Minister

Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Greater Naples

I am honored to say a few words on behalf of Cantor Azu and Rabbi Miller. Although I didn't have the pleasure to know the Cantor as well as I know Rabbi Miller, each time I had the opportunity to meet her in person or hear her beautiful voice at a Temple service I was taken aback by the warmth and friendliness that she portrayed. Temple Shalom has indeed been blessed to have her as their Cantor.

Rabbi Miller, I remember as if it were yesterday when you first started ten short years ago at Temple Shalom. Over the years, we had the opportunity to chat at various events and I got to know you on a personal basis when we used to have and occasional breakfast at First Watch. To me you always remind me of a big, giant, kind Teddy Bear, and your kindness exudes to all that have a chance to meet you. It has been an honor for me to be able to call you my friend and thank you for all you have done for our community. Congratulations and I wish you many more wonderful years at Temple Shalom.

Warm Regards,
Bill Barnett
Former Mayor of Naples

Rabbi Adam Miller,

Two years ago, when I was introduced for the "award" of my life, you said about me that I was like Moses. That was the most prestigious award I could ever ask! Well you are the one to me - the very personification of Moses! You live Moses everyday! Your congregation sees in you the Moses you emulate! I do too! Congratulations to you on your 10th - may you continue at Temple Shalom for many years.

Cantor Donna Azu,

Cantor Azu, your music has always inspired me! I cherish how you smile when you speak the words and raise your voice. You are a gift to all of us in the interfaith community. Thanks for enriching us in many ways! Please keep it up!

Rev. Dr. Kathleen L. Kircher

To Rabbi Adam Miller and Cantor Donna Azu:

Please know how pleased I'm to be able to participate in the celebration of your Decade of Distinction.

Having worked and taught at HUC-JIR for fifty years, I can safely say that the two of you represent the best of our College-Institute and our Reform Movement. You possess the rare gift of combining devotion to those whom you are blessed to lead, extraordinary artistry and knowledge in what you do, wonderful humility and a passion for Judaism and the Jewish people. You exemplify the Reform Rabbinate and Cantorate, and your congregants over the years have benefitted greatly from your gifts.

Rabbi Miller, the congregants at Temple Beth El in Chappaqua, of which Terry and I are members, still talk about you in beloved ways after all these years, as do the congregants in Framingham. And I know how much Temple Shalom has benefitted from your leadership and person. And Cantor Azu, your superb artistry which touched the lives of congregants in Shaarey Tefila in N.Y. and in Sag Harbor has only been magnified in Naples.

Wishing you many, many more meaningful and fulfilling years at Temple Shalom, and much personal nachas in this year of celebration, I am so looking forward to sharing a teaching in your honor.

Fondly,

Rabbi Norman Cohen

Professor Emeritus of Midrash, HUC-JIR/New York

Dear Adam,

As it was an honor to work with you at Temple Beth El of Northern Westchester, and to speak at your installation in Naples, so it is to celebrate you on ten years serving the Temple Shalom family. A decade represents a significant period in the life of a congregation. Together you have shared many milestone moments, joys and sorrows...particularly this past year. And a decade represents a significant period in the career of a rabbi. Your congregants have become a part of your life, and you of theirs. May you and they continue to be blessed by one another.

Mazal tov and heartfelt congratulations!

Rabbi Joshua M. Davidson Senior Rabbi of Congregation Emanu-El, NY I have served as Rabbi of the Naples Jewish Congregation for four years now and have come to know Rabbi Adam Miller and Cantor Donna Azu well during my time thus far as a rabbi in Naples. It is always a rewarding experience to work with the two of them as they are a distinguished, dynamic and inspirational clergy team. As individuals, they are ever the ones to offer support, aid, caring and concern in every instance where we have had shared experiences. They are both personable, intelligent, insightful, and genuine. They exude warmth and compassion and are two people I feel blessed to know.

Their leadership together is something that is extraordinary to me. I have watched them work with groups and with individuals where they both exude not just strength of purpose, but a deliberateness of mission. They wear their Jewish values proudly in every situation they encounter. They know who they are and they take seriously their Jewish charge as clergy. I am certain that they serve their congregants at Temple Shalom in the same loving, deliberate, and spiritual manner as they have out in the community. I wish them both "Mazal Tov" on this wonderful milestone and much strength to continue what they have so aptly started for the future.

Blessings, Rabbi Howard S. Herman, D.D. Naples Jewish Congregation, Naples, Florida Dearest Adam,

Kol hakavod to you on reaching this most notable milestone with Temple Shalom! What a fortunate congregation they are to have you as their rabbinic leader—their rav—for, as your colleague, I can attest that you unfailingly exemplify the qualities of intelligence, integrity, kindness, & decency. May you and the congregation continue to go from strength to strength!

Cantor Dana Anesi, D.Min. HUC-JIR/New York - Director of Fieldwork, DFSSM

Rabbi Mark Gross and the Jewish Congregation of Marco Island offer greetings to the worthy pulpit staff of the flagship synagogue of Naples, on their first decade of joint service to our community. להי המים – many more happy, productive, and blessed years to come.

I feel so fortunate to work with our wonderful Rabbi and Cantor, and I look forward to many more years of inspiring sermons and beautiful, prayerful singing.

Jim Cochran Director of Music, Temple Shalom

Mazal Tov Cantor Azu on this great accomplishment! We are proud to have had a part in your training as our student intern and to see the successful Cantor you have become. Your congregation is blessed to have you!

Temple Shaaray Tefila, New York, NY

Mazal Tov Donna on 10 years with your congregation! They are blessed to have someone as talented and kind as you as their Cantor. Wishing you all the best on this milestone!

Cantor Todd Kipnis Temple Shaaray Tefila, New York, NY Dear Donna,

It was such a joy for me to share the bima with you last year when you invited me to be the synagogue's Artist-in-Residence. It was an amazing weekend and you and your community were so hospitable.

When I was in Naples, it was clear how much you are loved by the congregation how so many people have embraced you.

Once you were my student, then you became my colleague, and now, you are my teacher.

Mazal tov on ten years at the congregation.

May you always go from strength to strength to strength.

Blessings always, Cantor Evan Kent Faculty of Hebrew Union College in Jerusalem

Adam, this photo is to remind you of your first day in Naples. You were sitting at our outdoor table staring at the cycle rider as members of the Search Committee rotated around you. The sculpture, now appropriately masked and moved north to another rabbi's home, was a memorable touchstone for you and us.

Donna, your infectious smile and voice made your first day equally impressionable.

It was a new beginning for Temple Shalom, and now, ten years later you both have led us to the unity we sought.

Thank you so much!
