EXAMPLE

Jacob and Leah Newcomer are loving parents to 2 girls, Rebecca (9) and Jane (6). They met in Manhattan and lived in Rye, NY for 7 years prior to relocating to Naples. Jacob grew up in Brooklyn and is an Investment Banker for Morgan Stanley. He was on the board of directors for UJA-Federation of New York along and United Jewish Organizations and National Jewish Outreach Program in Manhattan, NY. He is currently on serving on the board at the Jewish Federation of Naples. Leah grew up in Chicago, IL and moved to Manhattan to study at the New York School of Interior Design and has launched her own interior design business in Naples. Jacob is an avid golfer and Leah loves the arts, the beach and baking. The girls both attend Naples Academy of Ballet as well as play the piano and violin. As a family they enjoy visiting adventure parks and plan on visiting all the Disney Parks around the world.

YOUR L'SHALOM COMMITMENT

Temple Shalom is deeply committed to ensuring that membership in our congregation is accessible to everyone, regardless of financial situation. We have, therefore, replaced the traditional Temple dues structure with a L'Shalom pledge that supports our mission, vision and goals of the Congregation.

Each year we determine the per-household donation required for us to maintain our exemplary programming, remarkable clergy and staff, and provide for the operations of our Congregation.

- The sustaining amount for a one adult household is $1,300.
- The sustaining amount for a household of two or more adults is $2,600.

There are many factors that impact how much a member pledges. We ask that your pledge be financially reasonable for you and honors our commitment to each other, to our Temple community, and to our Jewish future.

We(I) am/are pleased to make a L'Shalom pledge for 2021-2022 in the amount of $_____

Please note that our fiscal year runs from July 1, 2021 to June 30, 2022. You may decide to prorate your pledge based on your start date.
