CLERGY MESSAGE

Senior Rabbi
Rabbi Adam F. Miller

The Synagogue Where Rabbis Go

When we lived in New York City, there were two ways to discover the best restaurants. The first was the Zagat's guide. Every New Yorker knew to buy one annually. Inside was a listing of all the restaurants, categorized by location, style, and rated on multiple levels. Beyond Zagat's, one would look to see which restaurants chefs went to after hours. You knew that if they went there after working in their own kitchen, then it must be worth a visit.

A similar situation exists for synagogues. Yes, you can search online to find the one closest to you. But, if you learned about a synagogue where other rabbis, cantors and Jewish professionals attended, that really said something. During my time at Temple Beth El of Northern Westchester, we only held Rosh Hashanah services for one day each year. With no obligation to lead services, Jennifer and I traveled to Scarsdale for the second day to join Westchester Reform Temple (WRT) and Rabbi Rick Jacobs. Rabbi Jacobs recognized the influx of colleagues for the second day service and made it a tradition to call up all those who served the Jewish community for the honor of reading the prayer for the community. Several dozen colleagues would stand up with me each time and ascend the bimah together. Rabbi Jacobs often used the chef analogy, joking that he felt like the executive chef of the restaurant where all the other chefs went to gather after their own restaurants closed at night.

At Temple Shalom, I can relate to Rabbi Jacob's sentiment. Only in our case, we are blessed to be the place where leaders of the Jewish community come to connect not only for one day a year, but for much longer periods of time. We have been fortunate to have several rabbis and cantors retire to Naples and make themselves part of our community. Some, like Rabbi Steve Mason (who confirmed me!) come each winter and are delighted to be part of our community. Others offer to teach or lead worship. Many remember the classes taught by Rabbi Len Troupp (z"l) and Rabbi Peter Knobel (z"l). Cantor Barbara Ostfeld, the first female cantor, sang with Cantor Azu on the bimah and spoke about her autobiography. During Cantor Azu's maternity leave, Cantor Donna Goldstein is lending her talents to leading a few services.

In addition to those engagements, we are delighted to spotlight Rabbi Frank Muller. Having retired in June 2020, Rabbi Muller comes to Temple Shalom with nearly 40 years of rabbinic experience, having served most recently in Youngstown, OH. For many years, Rabbi Muller lived the life of a snowbird, visiting Naples in the winter. A regular attendee of Shabbat services, he made a point of connecting with Temple Shalom, identifying this as a community where he and his wife Darlene wanted to belong. Since his retirement, Rabbi Muller taught in our Melton program, presented several courses in our adult education program, and leads some of our Torah study groups. A guitar player, Rabbi Muller also joined Cantor Azu and me at Shabbat on the Beach, providing additional musical flavor.

Acknowledging his credentials, the Temple Board recognized Rabbi Muller as a Rabbinic Scholar, a new designation at Temple Shalom. In this capacity, Rabbi Muller will continue to teach Adult Education courses and lend his talents to our community. At the same time, he enjoys the gift of retirement, and will not serve as part of our clergy team handling lifecycle events or regular worship services. As Rabbi Perman likes to say, "It's nice to be a Jew in the pew."

Please join us in welcoming Rabbi Muller as part of our Temple Shalom One Family.

Wishing you a zissen Pesach!

CLERGY MESSAGE

Director of Lifelong Learning
Rabbi Ariel Boxman

Later this month we will be celebrating the holiday of Passover! This is by far one of our favorite holidays to celebrate at Temple Shalom Preschool. We tell the story, taste different flavors of matzah, sing songs and talk about the value of freedom. Here are some fun ideas to do at home with your kiddos and family.

1. Have a Chocolate Seder: A chocolate seder is a fun twist on the traditional seder. All of the ritual foods are substituted for a chocolate alternative (i.e. 4 cups of wine become 4 cups of chocolate milk). Here is a link to a Chocolate Seder Haggadah if you are interested in hosting a kid-friendly Chocolate Seder. <https://tinyurl.com/chocolatesederhaggadah>.

2. Make Homemade Matzah: Matzah is super simple and fun to make. There are only two ingredients needed: flour and water! Check out this recipe and enjoy your delicious Passover-friendly treat. tinyurl.com/homeadematzah.

3. Tell the Passover Story: The Passover story is fascinating, even for little ones. You can even make it more exciting by acting it out with costumes and props.

4. Watch the "Prince of Egypt": This Disney movie tells the story of Passover with drama and music. It brings the story to life and helps young learners understand the meaning of Passover.

Students making matzah from scratch

5. Make a Seder Tablecloth: Purchase a white tablecloth and let children use fabric markers to decorate the tablecloth for Passover. Children can use stencils to draw Passover ritual items and write your family name. Alternatively, place a large piece of white butcher paper on your seder table and provide kids with markers and crayons for them to decorate during the actual seder.

Passover is our most child-friendly holiday, and a super festive time for all. We wish you a happy and healthy Passover and hope you and your families have fun preparing and celebrating Chag Sameach!

LEADERSHIP MESSAGE

Executive Director

Deborah Fidel

The Annual Meeting of the Congregation of Temple Shalom will take place at Temple Shalom on Tuesday, April 26 at 7:00pm. I hope you can join us.

People think about the Annual Meeting as little more than a session to install new leadership at Temple and vote on the congregational budget. That does happen, but it is so much more! The Annual Meeting is our opportunity to look backward, celebrate our accomplishments, and thank those who helped us reach this point. Shehechyanu, anyone?

Our Temple continues to grow and thrive as more and more people discover our slice of paradise, including many young Jewish families. There are waiting lists for both preschool and camp enrollment. YESh is attracting new students every month. Beach Shabbat regularly attracts 200 people! There is so much going on here, that it can be a challenge to keep all our new and creative classes, programs and activities straight. We are truly blessed, and we have much to be thankful for. None of the above would be possible without the contributions of every member of our team – lay leaders, staff, clergy and each of you.

Thank you...

- to our Facilities Manager, Victor Lucas and his team, for caring for our beautiful spiritual home;
- to my busy office staff - Jeanette Fischer, Esther Garfield, Megan Black, Anne Maner and Leslie Bautista, for everything you do to make Temple run smoothly and keep our members engaged and informed;
- to our Board of Trustees, for inspiring, challenging and motivating all of us to bring your vision to life and trusting us to figure out the details;
- to Rabbi Boxman, her staff and the teachers in YESh, for inspiring our youngest members, and preparing them to be knowledgeable and engaged Jewish adults;
- to Cantor Azu, for lifting our spirits with song, tending to the pastoral needs of our One Family and training our children to become B'nai Mitzvah, along with her team of tutors;
- to Rabbi Miller for your unique skills as the "face of the Congregation," your passion for the Jewish People, our tradition and perfecting this broken world; and
- to Daryl Sissman, our fearless president for the strangest two years in modern history - for your patience, unflappable nature, good judgment, wisdom and partnership with Rabbi Miller and me to assure the successful operation of our synagogue. I am so grateful for your friendship and leadership style. You gave my staff and me the freedom and confidence to take risks and learn from our mistakes. As you look back on your term, know that you made a difference.

LEADERSHIP MESSAGE

There is one person missing from this list, whom we especially need to thank for her hard work, dedication, and commitment to Temple Shalom over the last 14 years – Randi Butterworth. Randi, the Clergy Assistant to Rabbi Perman, Rabbi Miller and Cantor Azu, retired at the end of March.

Thank you Randi, for helping our members navigate every step of their Jewish journeys. You have been an invaluable aide to our clergy, and they could not have fulfilled their sacred obligations to the membership without your support. We already miss your smile and the sound of your New York accent around the office! You may be leaving the staff, but you will always be part of our Temple Family. We wish you a wonderful retirement. You deserve it!

Nominating Committee chair, Debbie Zvibleman, and her committee are recommending a strong slate of candidates to serve on the Temple Shalom Board of Trustees. I look forward to working with the new officers and trustees who are elected at the Annual Meeting and sharing the tremendous honor of leading and serving our One Family with them into the future.

So Long, But Not Goodbye!

We'll Miss You, Randi!

Randi Butterworth started working as the Clergy Assistant at Temple Shalom after Rabbi Perman's first retirement and she has served in that role for the last fourteen years. The Congregation was much smaller at that time, with 400-500 families. She witnessed the decline in membership during the Recession in 2008 and our immense growth in the last five years, since the L'Shalom pledge system was implemented. She has seen many presidents and lay leaders come and go over the years and she has nice memories of each of them. She welcomed Rabbi Adam Miller and Cantor Donna Azu in 2010. "It has been a pleasure and honor to support them in their holy work and also to get to know them behind the scenes."

Randi is from The Bronx and Long Island, New York and moved to Naples in 2000 with her late husband and two children. The children still live here, and her five grandchildren have all gone through Temple Shalom Preschool. In New York, she worked in an employment agency. Before she took this job, she was the office manager for a company that sold defibrillators for five years. "When I saw the ad for the clergy assistant role at the Temple in the Naples Daily News, I knew that it would be a good fit! There weren't a lot of Jewish people in Naples then and I thought it would be a nice way to make some new friends."

"Temple Shalom has seen me through a lot. When I had cancer, Rabbi Perman gave me as much time off as I needed to recover and heal. I was shocked how many people from Temple showed up at my late husband's funeral service, even though he wasn't Jewish. I felt very supported."

Her favorite part of the job is the variety of the work. Every day is different. "I love talking to the congregants and helping them out when I can. I have known some of them for so long and I really care about them and feel that they care about me too. This is a very supportive and caring community."

She is going to miss her work family - her co-workers. "I'm going to miss coming to work every day and laughing with my friends. We all enjoy being part of a great team!" I also loved being here every day and seeing my grandchildren during the day. I will be back for every play and graduation, and to visit the office."

Randi recently married again and is looking forward to spending her days at the beach and travelling to Ireland and to NY to see family. "But I'm going to miss it all!"

Volunteers, We Appreciate You!

By Carole J. Greene

Temple Shalom is fortunate to employ exemplary staff. Our clergy, Executive Director, religious school and preschool educators, office mavens, maintenance people—all work as a team. We are proud of them and the work they do for us.

However, they cannot possibly provide every service Temple Shalom congregants enjoy. Over the years, we have developed an enviable group of dedicated volunteers. Many of these selfless givers we know on sight and greet with our gratitude. Others work behind the scenes without fanfare or accolades. They are about to receive accolades! Starting with this issue of The VOICE, we will profile some of our wonderful volunteers.

We hope they will also entice you to inquire where YOU might serve. As our congregation grows, so does its needs for lay leaders. Many members may not be familiar with the volunteer opportunities that these articles will showcase. Perhaps you possess the interest and talent to jump in and help. We need you!

Lisa Lauber loves to bake. She has provided goodies for our world-class Oneg Shabbats. But she wanted to do more, to find a niche she could fill—and maybe enlist the help of her husband, Harold. Along came COVID-19 and the shutdown. No more Onegs. But other needs soon became apparent. “I shopped for a woman who couldn’t safely leave her house,” Lisa said. Then Temple Shalom initiated a survey to discover things people needed and who might be able to provide them. “I volunteered to bake and deliver a challah when a person or family celebrates a major simcha or when they experienced an illness or loss.”

Cantor Azu coordinates the recipients with input from the rest of the Senior staff. Lisa phones the recipients on Thursdays to arrange her challah deliveries on Fridays. Harold does the braiding while Lisa does everything else. She then packs the challah in a gift bag that she fancies up and adds a handwritten note on a Temple Shalom card: “We hope this challah brings you joy on Shabbat.” or “Enjoy this homemade challah on this special day.” They are signed, “The Temple Shalom Caring Connection.”

Lisa said she and Harold love doing it together. “It’s a wonderful way for us to give back. Making this contribution brings me pure joy. This special way to touch people makes me feel like part of a family. It has become an important part of our lives and of being Jewish in Naples.” Thank you, Lisa!!

Volunteer Highlight

Jane Perman points to two of her many volunteer activities as the ones she has pursued the longest: teaching adults and coordinating the Temple's blood drive.

Since 1993, when she and Rabbi Emeritus James Perman came to Temple Shalom, Jane has taught Hebrew classes for adults. She carried her expertise as a previous JCC educator, to her volunteer position and shifted into high gear. "I started with 'prayerbook Hebrew,'" she said, so that congregants who received little religious training as they grew up could participate more fully in worship services. Starting with "Beginners Hebrew," she added follow-up classes for those who wanted to dig deeper into the language. She quickly found out that women who didn't have a Bat Mitzvah when they were 13, hungered to learn and take their place among the community. "I'm proud that many of my students went on to celebrate becoming a Bat Mitzvah."

Over the years, she has conducted various workshops to embed Judaism more deeply in people's lives. "In parenting workshops, we focused on how to use Jewish values to raise children. Grandparenting workshops were about their concerns; for example, would their grandkids be raised Jewish if their child married someone from another faith tradition? We worked on how to model a good Jewish life for their grandchildren."

Other workshops Jane has conducted focused on ways to observe various holidays: Passover, Sukkot, Hanukkah. For the last of those, she said, "We talked about 'The December Dilemma.' One goal was to help people understand that Hanukkah is not the Jewish Christmas." We are so fortunate to have her as an active volunteer, and we greatly appreciate how much time and effort she puts in to teaching our congregation.

Jane's Jewish values are what propel her other major volunteer activity - coordinator of the annual blood drive. What could be more Jewish than saving lives by donating blood?

"I've been doing this for about 20 years," Jane said. "Cissy Dezen started it, and I helped her. When she had to bow out, I took it over. Although I have developed a good system for keeping track of donors, scheduling, and other tasks, I don't do it alone. Just when we were scheduled for the most recent drive, I came down with COVID. So Veora Little took over. Alicia Feldman and Barbara Cohen also pitched in."

Jane emphasized that she learned the importance of philanthropy and volunteering from the generations who came before her. "It's who I am, and even if I weren't married to a Rabbi, it's what I'd do. Helping others is a mitzvah—a commandment—but it also makes me happy and proud." We feel the same way about you, Jane!

Meet Two of Our Preschool Teachers

The Art of Writing

By Jennifer Avila, Temple Shalom Preschool Teacher

Preschool is the age of exploration and discovery. Imagination, creativity, and innovation come to mind with blocks, legos, and crafting supplies, but writing is a topic that is just as important. Here are a few tips to help your child develop their writing skills and talent.

At home, be sure to provide your child with a wide variety of writing utensils to help build their fine motor dexterity and experience with various mediums of writing. Examples of good writing utensils include fat pencils, scented markers, dry erase markers, colored pencils, chalk, oil pastels, and erasable pens. In addition to this, providing your child with different kinds of paper to use such as sandpaper, card stock, or doilies, will enrich their experience as well. A tip for getting children to understand proper pencil grip, is to break a crayon in half and only allow them to write with the shorter piece. By doing this, the child is forced to use a correct finger grip (as opposed to whole hand grasping) and gains muscle memory in the fingers.

Often children will shy away from writing if they are concerned about making mistakes or writing letters incorrectly. It is important to encourage children to write and practice as much as possible, regardless of errors, in order to get past their fears and insecurity. Obviously, we should always correct when necessary and help students improve their writing skills, but at the same time, offering lots of praise and positive reinforcement. Above all, make writing as fun an activity as possible to keep your child engaged in such an important life skill.

The Creative Curriculum

By Maria Matute, Temple Shalom Preschool Teacher

At Temple Shalom Preschool, we utilize The Creative Curriculum as our official curriculum for the entire school (infants-5 years old). The Creative Curriculum was founded in 1988 by a former preschool teacher, Diane Trister. The Creative Curriculum is based on age-appropriate development from infants to preschool. For example, within the curriculum, there are 38 objectives for development and learning that we implement during the course of the school year. The curriculum also coincides with the Florida State Standards for early childhood education.

The Creative Curriculum is unique in that it encourages learning through creative and active teaching strategies, with a special focus on play. It goes beyond rote learning and focuses on big ideas, interesting projects, and the individual child.

As a teacher, I have come to truly value my work with The Creative Curriculum. With 26 years of experience in various preschools and different curricula, I can confidently say that The Creative Curriculum is superior. I have found that students respond best when they learn through play and are not in a traditional learning environment. The Creative Curriculum helps teachers develop strategies to encourage development and provides us with the necessary materials to succeed. I look forward to working with Temple Shalom Preschool for many more years to come and having the opportunity to see our children grow and develop into young adults!

Anne and Bruce Kaplan took up residence in Florida in June, 2021 and spend their summers in Chatham, MA. They have a son, daughter-in-law and two grandchildren who live in Connecticut. Bruce grew up in San Francisco and moved to New York as a graduate student. Anne is from the Chicago suburbs and met Bruce while working in New York. Their adult years were spent in the New York area. In 2007, they purchased a summer home in Chatham, MA, and moved there in 2020. They will continue to spend summers in Chatham. Bruce is retired and an avid golfer, while Anne is a new golfer who continues to work as an Educational Consultant. Both are very excited about their new life in Florida and look forward to becoming active members at Temple Shalom.

Janett Edelberg & Ron Lasofsky

Janett and Ron relocated to Naples in February '22 from New York City. They met on JDate and have been together for 18 years.

Janett was born in Saranac Lake, a small town in the Adirondack Mountains, and kept on moving further south in the state; Syracuse for high school, Ithaca for college, and NYC after college. When she couldn't move any further south in NY State, she moved to Naples! Janett had a long career in marketing research and consumer insights, working for Fortune 500 companies such as Grey Advertising, Colgate Palmolive, and Joseph E. Seagram & Sons. She served on the board of Town & Village Synagogue doing marketing, communications and strategic planning. Janett is a life member of Hadassah and was a group president and on the membership and annual luncheon committees of New York Hadassah. Janett enjoys "getting cultured" with the ballet, theater and museum-going as favorite activities. She loves to try new recipes and has over 100 cookbooks.

Ron is New Jersey-born and bred, most recently living in South Orange prior to moving into Manhattan with Janett. He is the proud father of 2 sons, Brian who lives with his husband Dennis in Oakland, CA, and Jake who lives with his fiancée, Lili, in Jersey City. Ron has worked in the food business all his life. He started out helping his uncles in their deli after school, owning his own Italian restaurant, and then working in sales with many of NYC's finest restaurants as his customers. Ron's hobbies include watching college sports, fishing, and researching new restaurants.

Our assisted living is accredited for two reasons. You. And your family.

Because having the confidence and peace of mind of accreditation is important. That's why The Carlisle is accredited by CARF International—an independent organization that sets exceedingly high standards for care, service and safeguards. It's a lot like an accreditation for a hospital or college. Or a five-star rating for a hotel.

We think you'll find that our accreditation is only one of the many reasons to take a good look at The Carlisle Naples.

The Tower of David

The Tower of David, also known as the Citadel, is an ancient citadel located near the Jaffa Gate entrance to the Old City of Jerusalem.

The citadel that stands today dates to the Mamluk and Ottoman periods. It was built on the site of a series of earlier ancient fortifications of the Hasmonean, Herodian, Byzantine and Early Muslim periods, after being destroyed repeatedly during the last decades of Crusader presence in the Holy Land by their Muslim enemies. It contains important archaeological finds dating back over 2,500 years, including a quarry dated to the First Temple period, and is a popular venue for benefit events, craft shows, concerts, and sound-and-light performances.

Dan Bahat, the Israeli archeologist, writes that the original three Hasmonean towers standing in this area of the city were altered by Herod, and that “The northeastern tower was replaced by a much larger, more massive tower, dubbed the “Tower of David” beginning in the 5th century CE.” The name “Tower of David” migrated in the 19th century from the Herodian tower in the northeast of the citadel, to the 17th century minaret at the opposite side of the citadel, and after 1967 has been officially adopted for the entire citadel.

The name “Tower of David” was first used for the Herodian tower in the 5th century CE by the Byzantine Christians, who believed the site to be the palace of King David. They borrowed the name “Tower of David” from the Song of Songs, attributed to Solomon, King David’s son, who wrote: “Thy neck is like the Tower of David built with turrets, whereon there hang a thousand shields, all the armor of the mighty men.”

BBYO Naples has had another great month! Our International Convention delegates from the community loved their experience in Baltimore. Whether it was the plenary moments, the concerts, or our excursions in and around Baltimore, 2,100 delegates gathered from around the world for a weekend they'll likely never forget. Some highlights were conversations with Julien Edelman, Nikki Fried and Eve Barlow, and concerts with Steve Aoki and Surfaces. We encourage you to take a look at our IC recap video found at azabbgic.bbyo.org.

This month, BBYO Naples is giving back to the community by joining Temple Shalom's Mitzvah Day on the morning of Sunday, April 24. Following Mitzvah Day activities, teens will board a bus to Top Golf for fun and friendship. Save the date for our Busch Gardens day trip on Sunday, May 15. More details to come.

Be in touch with any questions or ideas. We can't wait to see you. Events are open to all Jewish teens in 8th-12th grade in Naples and Fort Myers.

BEREAVEMENT GROUP FOR MEMBERS OF THE TEMPLE SHALOM COMMUNITY

In the spirit of our tradition, which calls us to perform the mitzvah of Nihum Avelim (comforting mourners), Temple Shalom offers a Bereavement Support Group for widows who are grieving for a loved one. The group meets at Temple Shalom. Please contact Arline Kaplan, PhD (arkaplanphd@gmail.com) or Leslie Wasserman, MA (leshbr@aol.com) for more information.

For many generations, Jews have made it a custom to remember their loved ones and sanctify their joyous events with a charitable donation. At Temple Shalom, there are several ways for us to remember or honor a loved one and give thanks for milestone events in our lives. Please consider a yahrzeit plaque, Tribute Garden paver, leaf on the Tree of Life, or dedicating a Torah portion in the Illustrated Torah as a permanent remembrance. Your generosity will contribute to the future of Temple Shalom.

Scan the QR codes below with the camera on your cellphone to go directly to an order form, or call the Temple Shalom office for assistance.

Remember your loved one with a yahrzeit memorial plaque in the Sanctuary. A light next to the plaque is lit during the week of their yahrzeit and during Yizkor.

Order and customize a brick, a tree or a bench in the Temple Shalom Tribute Garden in memory of, or in honor of a loved one or special event.

A leaf or Star of David on the Tree of Life in the Sanctuary is a beautiful way to commemorate a loved one or a meaningful occasion.

Dedicating a Torah portion in the Illustrated Torah is a meaningful way to memorialize an individual or a special celebration. You may also choose to dedicate a word or a special verse.

MEN'S CLUB

Men's Club President
Ron Yasbin

Happy Passover! While we can celebrate our movement out of pandemic restrictions, we are mourning the deaths and hardships bought upon the people of Ukraine. The successful Men's Club March Deli Pick-up fundraiser will allow us to contribute to relief efforts in Ukraine as well as our continued support for Mitzvah Day and the Harry Chapin Food Bank.

Mitzvah Day is fast approaching. We need volunteers to help with the breakfast, (the Men's Club sponsors the breakfast for those folks who will be working at the Temple) and to help prepare food boxes at the Harry Chapin Food Pantry. Please email me at ryasbin@alumni.psu.edu if you would like to volunteer to help with the breakfast. If you would like to be part of the work that will be done at the Food Pantry on Mitzvah Day, please contact Ed Cohen at edcohenpt@gmail.com.

Did you know that the Men's Club holds golf outings? If you are interested in our golf outings, please contact Paul Moskowitz at paulmosko@comcast.net.

Our members, as well as their friends and family members, meet on a regular basis at the Alamo Range. For information on these sessions, contact Ed Cohen at edcohenpt@gmail.com.

We welcome your input on additional events and activities that peak your interest. We have started planning for activities in the fall such as, the Men's Club Shabbat service, Sunday Brunch, Football Night, and a joint luncheon with the Sisterhood, as well as the other activities that have been put on hold during the COVID restrictions.

Please consider joining the Men's Club and stepping up to serve on the Board or head up activities and events. For more information, and to download a membership application, visit the Men's Club page under the Connect tab on the Temple Shalom website at www.naplestemple.org.

This past year we have been busy with programs outside of the Temple. We visited the Baker Museum, Naples Botanical Gardens, The Rookery Bay Environmental Learning Center, The Wonder Gardens, The Organic Garden at Shangri-La and we plan to visit the Toulouse Lautrec exhibit at Naples Art this month.

Our Maj Jong Tournament was a huge success. Thank you to the co-chairs, Bunny Kaufman, Vice President of Fundraising, and Robin Mintz. They had a wonderful committee who worked very hard to make this an outstanding event. A special thanks to Robin Mintz, Phyllis Titlebaum, and Natalie Berman for the auction items; Karen Cohn, Joan Friedman and Linda Wainick for being in charge of the food, and Lynn Prosten for organizing the volunteers.

A New Member dinner was held at Nancy Suslov's home which was co-chaired by Lynn Prosten and Linda Wainick. Also this season, Sisterhood sponsored an event at the Greater Naples Jewish Book Festival.

The Judaica Shop has been updated and reorganized by Amy Young. We are stocked and ready for Passover. Hours are by appointment only. Please contact Amy at 239-919-2918 or younga321@aol.com to schedule an appointment.

The Onegs are back under the leadership of Karen Cohn. Her committee includes Ellie Cantor, Debbe Schertzer, Pam Schoen and me. Donations of baked good are greatly appreciated!

Lynn Prosten, Vice President of Membership, increased our membership to 217. Sisterhood had a very busy and successful year thanks to the hardworking Executive Board.

Sisterhood luncheons return on Tuesday, April 12 at 11:30am. This will be our first luncheon in two years! This paid-up membership luncheon will include the Installation of the new Sisterhood Board and entertainment by the Alter Rockers. The cost is $10. Checks should be made payable to Temple Shalom as all proceeds will be donated to Ukraine.

RSVP by Wednesday, April 6. Mail checks to Lynn Prosten at 13855 Luna Drive, Naples, FL 34109.

On Monday, April 25 and Tuesday, April 26 at 11:30am, Sisterhood is planning two trips to Naples Art for guided tours of the Toulouse Lautrec Exhibit led by Ellaine Rosen. # TIKKUN OLAM

Tikkun Olam Volunteers Chair Don Belmont

We gather at the seder table each year to commemorate and celebrate the redemption of our ancestors from Egypt. What better time to reaffirm the concept of Tikkun Olam, the repairing of the world through acts of social action and social justice. It is a core principle of Reform Judaism.

The mission of the Tikkun Olam Volunteers (TOV) is to provide opportunities for members of Temple Shalom to participate in, and fulfill their obligations to, Tikkun Olam. For instance, on Passover we declare, "Let all who are hungry come and eat." At Temple Shalom, we can turn that aspiration into action through food donations and financial contributions to the Harry Chapin Food Bank and to Meals of Hope on Mitzvah Day. Every one of us has a role to play in building a better world around us.

Consider this supplemental reading for the start of your Passover seder:

The Passover story is as relevant now as it ever was. When we eat the bitter herbs and recount the plagues, when we dip in salt water to taste the tears, when we recount the journey from slavery to freedom, we connect our Jewish narrative with those who suffer today - the refugees, the hungry, the impoverished, the persecuted minorities, the subjugated, the marginalized. These struggles are as old as mankind. On this Passover, at our seder tables, let each of us dedicate ourselves, through our daily actions, to build a more just world in which everyone can experience the joy of freedom.
