Purim - One Letter Can Make a Difference

Purim is coming! Purim is coming! That time to celebrate and recall our ancestors' miraculous salvation from a genocidal maniac bent on annihilating the Jews. As much as we enjoy the celebration – the Purim Shpiel and the carnival this year on Sunday, March 5 – we cannot lose sight of an important lesson within the story.

After his confrontation with Mordechai, Haman requested permission from the King to have a day when he could attack the Jews. When the King granted Haman's request, he sent out letters throughout the land, informing people that on the appropriate day they shall attack the Jews in their community. Think about the power of those hate-filled letters sent by Haman – they endangered the lives of Jews everywhere. On the authority of a piece of parchment, the entire Jewish population of Persia feared destruction. So, it should have been no surprise that immediately following the overthrow of Haman, Mordechai immediately declared that new letters be sent out throughout the land. These second letters superceded the words of Haman and gave new powers to the Jews. Mordechai's words lifted the spirits of the Jews in Persia and prevented what would have been a disaster.

Thousands of years later, it is a lot easier to create and spread the written word, and yet its power remains significant. The email, texts and even snail mail that we send today makes an impact on the world around us. Particularly, in the electronic medium, where our words "last forever" on the internet. We can take from the experience of Purim the value of being mindful when it comes to the messages that we send to others. Thinking twice before sending along ideas or words that may hurt or damage relationships. Once sent, those words cannot be taken back. At the same time, know that a thoughtful note of encouragement, thanks, or acknowledgement goes a long way to lifting the spirits of others.

Additionally, we remember the power of the written word as used by Mordechai to improve our world and repair the damage that we see around us. Eight of our teens came with me to Washington, DC for our annual L'Taken Seminar. They heard from the staff in our congressional offices that letters are one way to let our elected officials know where we stand on issues. In fact, the students were stunned to learn that receiving a few hundred emails or letters relating to one topic is a significant number! We have the chance to advocate for a better world around us. In a few weeks, we will host the second TOV Forum on the subject of affordable workforce housing in Southwest Florida. Together we will learn how we can use our written words to advocate and address this issue that challenges our community. I also encourage you to use the power of the pen to address other areas of concern with our officials, including topics that we have explored at Temple in years past: food insecurity, climate change and gun violence.

It is customary in the month of Adar, when we celebrate Purim, to say, "Mishnichnas Adar Marbim b'Simcha" – when this month arrives, we should increase in joy. May the words that we write and send this month be in the spirit of Purim and Mordechai. Lifting the spirits of those around us, repairing the brokenness we see, and making our world a place of joy. One letter can make a difference.

Cantor
Donna Azu

If you have ever watched a streaming service from Central Synagogue in New York City, you might be familiar with Cantor Julia Cadrain and Elana Arian. These two extremely talented and inspiring individuals will be with us at Temple Shalom for our upcoming Artist-in-Residence weekend, March 10 and 11. This program is made possible by The Paula Brody and Merrill Hassenfeld Artist-in-Residence Fund and is co-sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Greater Naples.

Cantor Julia Cadrain is a soulful leader who received a Bachelor of Music in Classical Voice at New England Conservatory and was ordained as a cantor by Hebrew Union College in the Debbie Friedman School of Sacred Music. She served as a member of the clergy team at Manhattan's Central Synagogue from 2012 to 2021 and now serves as Senior Cantor at Temple Israel of Westport. Cantor Cadrain is a certified vinyasa yoga instructor and a graduate of the clergy leadership training program of the Institute for Jewish Spirituality. An internationally recognized spiritual leader, she has served as cantor for the United Nations International Holocaust Remembrance Day and the South African Union for Progressive Judaism's Passover Seder, as well as collaborating with musicians across the globe.

Elana Arian is one of the leading voices in contemporary Jewish music. A composer, multi-instrumentalist, and recording artist, Elana inspires communities across the country with her soulful songwriting and spirit. Elana's work has been included in many Transcontinental Music publications, including both the popular Ruach and Shabbat Anthology series, and her compositions are sung in synagogues, summer camps, and spiritual communities from London to Cape Town, from Australia to New Orleans, and everywhere in between. Elana has released three albums of original music and just released her fourth, entitled The Other Side of Fear. In addition to touring nationally as an Artist in Residence in communities across the country, Elana is proud to teach at the Hebrew Union College - Jewish Institute of Religion in New York, working as an Adjunct Instructor and Teaching Artist in the Debbie Friedman School of Sacred Music. She has performed at Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, Tanglewood, and perhaps most memorably, five separate appearances at the (Obama) White House.

Raised on equal parts Mozart, Mingus, and Mitchell, Elana studied conducting and violin, jazz guitar, and songwriting as an undergraduate at Yale. She has appeared on NPR's Soundcheck, as well as on PBS' Finding Your Roots. A sought-after studio musician, Elana also maintains a busy recording schedule working with such varied artists as Peter Dinklage, the Dirty Projectors, and Catie Curtis. She held the guitar chair in the smash revival of Sweet Charity starring Tony award-winner, Sutton Foster, as well as in Kristin Chenoweth's Broadway concert tour, For the Girls.

Over the course of the weekend, Elana, and Cantor Cadrain will join me on the Bimah for our Shabbat evening service. They will also delight us with an inspiring Saturday night concert, "Music Speaks Louder than Words". Both of these programs are open to the entire community. More information can be found on page 9. I hope to see you!

Join Temple Shalom for our Purim Spiel and Food Truck Purim Palooza

On Sunday, March 5, Temple Shalom will celebrate Purim with a musical shpiel in which we will retell the story of the Purim through musical performance. The spiel begins at 10:00am and will be followed by a Food Truck Purim Palooza (11:00am-2:00pm). Join us on Tuesday, March 7 at 9:00am for the Megillah Reading. All events will take place at Temple Shalom. See pages 8 & 9 for more Purim information!

This month we celebrate the holiday of Purim. In the preschool, we have been busy making costumes, decorating masks, baking hamantaschen and practicing our Purim songs. Below are some fun ways to celebrate Purim with your family!

Assemble and Deliver Mishloach Manot

Mishloach Manot (Purim baskets) are gifts of food or drink that are sent to family, friends and neighbors for Purim. Traditionally these baskets contain baked good (Hamantaschen), oranges, wine or grape juice, chocolate, etc. Take your children shopping, let them pick out a few items, and then wrap it up, and deliver to a friend, a family member or a neighbor. My children and I make these baskets every year, and then deliver them to all of our neighbors! We teach about our holiday of Purim when delivering, and spread kindness along the way.

Bake Hamantaschen

Hamantaschen cookies are popular treats for the feast of Purim, which joyfully celebrates the Jews' deliverance from the evil villain Haman. The dough is super easy to make, and then filled with preserves and pinched to create a triangle shape (to resemble Haman's 3 pointed hat). Use this recipe to make delicious Purim cookies with your little ones! tinyurl.com/purimcookies23

Decorate Masks

Masks are commonly worn on Purim in addition to costumes! This year, decorate and wear homemade masks. Check out this website for a fun mask craft. <https://toriavey.com/make-purim-mask/>

LEADERSHIP MESSAGE

President
Leonard Teitelbaum

I was sitting with some friends a few days ago and one made the statement that there are now only 49 states in the Union because New Jersey moved to Florida. I agreed and said those newcomers who are Jewish joined our synagogue. We are growing - almost 900 households. I feel there are several reasons for this. The obvious is that the available "pool" of members is growing, but the strength and reputation of our clergy and administration is well known; the reputation and quality of our preschool and YESh are touted throughout Collier and Lee counties; the brilliant and diversified programming we offer and the uniqueness of our dues structure is particularly appealing to both young and older members.

All these are good and valid reasons but for me they are subordinate to the main reason to join Temple Shalom; it is YOU the members of the congregation who make this place special. Your generous gifts of time and financial support have created the most important thing for me and that is a sense of community. Temple is a place that no matter where you came from you are welcome. YOU have created a voice for Jewish values and our minority voice is both clear and respected in the community. The next time you are in the building walk down the corridor and see the names of those who "made it happen." We stand on their shoulders. Check out the only Judaica shop in Naples. Also please note the names of your Board members and staff that appear on the inside cover of "the Voice." They give so much time to making sure people like me do the job we have been tasked to do.

Having said all that it is also important to realize that with size comes responsibility. We all have a responsibility not to forget why we got big. We cannot lose the welcoming, personal touch that new members feel and continue to embrace. I have asked the officers and selected members to meet and discuss how do we continue to grow responsibly from this point? How do we reach those who want to join in greater numbers from lower Lee County? How do we accommodate a potentially much larger school? Can we expand our physical plant given our existing footprint limits lateral expansion? I promise to keep everyone informed when I can supply answers not theory.

In the meantime from where I sit, let me say thank you for what YOU have done and I promise to do my best to keep it going responsibly. YOU and Temple Shalom are worth it.

Meet the Crew Who Keep Our Campus Running Smoothly!

Victor Lucas - Facility Manager

Victor is a man of few words, but when he speaks, he always knows what he is talking about. He is truly a man of many talents! Victor gives his all to Temple Shalom, no matter where or when duty calls - he is literally on duty 24/7. We are lucky to have had him on our staff for the last eight years- he does a fabulous job of keeping our facility clean, safe and in great shape. Victor was born and raised in Indiana and he has been in Florida for 23 years. Victor is married, with one stepson. He enjoys boating and fishing.

Rick Holsbeke - Maintenance Technician

You may have seen Rick riding around campus on the lawn mower or climbing a ladder to fix a light in the parking lot. He will do anything to keep our 14 acres looking great and in great shape. Rick hails from Michigan originally, but he has been in Florida since 1973. He has the distinct privilege of being our longest serving employee - clocking in at 17 years and counting! But if you think that his interests are limited to gardening and the outdoors, you would be very wrong! Rick is an accomplished sketch artist and a cigar connoisseur.

Pedro Cruz - Maintenance Technician

Pedro is originally from Puerto Rico and has lived in Florida for 12 years. When Pedro first came to Temple Shalom a decade ago, he was already very familiar with synagogues; before he joined our staff, he worked at Har-Zion Temple in Pennsylvania. During Hurricane Irma, Pedro single handedly maintained our facility and oversaw the safety of the hundreds of people who were sheltering here during the worst of it. Always smiling, Pedro is married, with two sons and three grandchildren. He loves spending time with them above all else.

Rothschilds Boulevard - Tel Aviv

From pastoral bike paths, cultural institutions and classic Bauhaus architecture to chic cafés, top-notch restaurants and charming kiosks — Rothschild Boulevard offers the perfect Tel Aviv experience. Rothschild is not only Tel Aviv's very first boulevard, but also the cultural center of the city.

This picturesque boulevard stretches from Habima Theater to the Neveh Tzedek neighborhood and is shaded by ficus and poinciana trees with pleasant benches scattered at their feet.

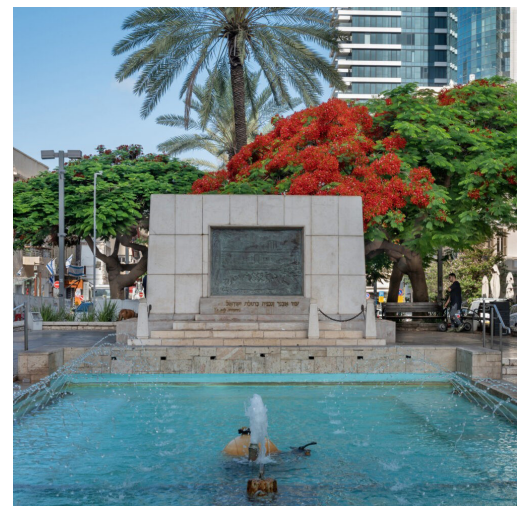

Edmond James de Rothschild, "the Known Benefactor," was a French member of the Rothschild banking family and known for his support of art, science and the Jewish homeland. Respect for him in the Holy Land was so great, that in 1910 it was decided to name one of the first four streets in Tel Aviv after the Baron: Sderot (Boulevard) Rothschild.

Rothschild Boulevard

Over the years, Rothschild Boulevard became the center of a neighborhood where numerous national leaders once lived and many historic events took place, including the Israeli Declaration of Independence in 1948. Rothschild attracts a large and diverse public, from local families and hip businesspeople to young couples enjoying a romantic stroll, and elderly Tel Avivians seeking a spontaneous game of pétanque (a type of lawn bowling).

Dizengoff House, or as it is known today, Independence Hall, is located at 16 Rothschild Boulevard. The building was home to Meir Dizengoff, the first mayor of Tel Aviv. After Dizengoff's death, the house was transformed into an art museum. This is where David Ben-Gurion signed Israel's Declaration of Independence on May 14, 1948. Independence Hall is closed for renovations until 2023.

The beautiful Founders Monument and Fountain were established in 1949 on the 40th anniversary of Tel Aviv.

THANK YOU JANE PERMAN!

After 20 years heading up the Temple Shalom Blood Drives, Jane Perman has made the decision to step down and pass the baton to Di Kaprman. Since her first blood drive on February 9, 2003, Jane has helped the Temple host 21 blood drives, registered 1066 donors, helped collect 839 pints of blood and been instrumental in saving 2,517 lives.

Jane has this to say, "We have learned from our Jewish tradition that when you save one life it's as if you have saved the whole world. Because of this teaching, and my belief that donating blood is one of the best ways to fulfill that mitzvah, when I was invited to chair the Temple Shalom Blood Drive about 20 years ago I willingly accepted."

Thank you, Jane. We have been blessed by all you have done. And to Di, thank you for stepping in to continue to host future blood drives.

*Welcome to all of

Joe & Carol Atkin

Carol and Joe Atkin have been spending the winters in Naples, Florida, for the past seven years. They make their northern home in Glencoe, IL, a Chicago suburb. They have two married daughters and six grandchildren, ranging from thirteen to twenty-two years of age. Joe grew up in Chevy Chase, MD, and Carol grew up in Du Quoin, IL. They met at Washington University in St. Louis and will celebrate their 55th anniversary this June. Joe was a financial executive for several different companies but ended his career as Executive Vice President of CJE Senior Life, a non-profit organization for the elderly sponsored by the Chicago Jewish Federation. Carol was a French and piano teacher. They were both active at North Shore Congregation Israel in Glencoe, where Joe served as Treasurer and Carol was on the Youth Committee. They enjoy travel and have been to over eighty countries on six continents.

Kay & Bruce Goldstein

Kay & Bruce Goldstein live in Minneapolis, MN and get away from the cold and snow to spend winters in Naples. Kay is retired from a career in retail and event planning. She also enjoys golf, canasta, gardening and walking. Bruce is a semi-retired lawyer and loves to play golf most every day. Kay and Bruce have two sons, Aaron (Michelle) and Danny (Blair), both living in Minneapolis, and six grandchildren ranging in age from 15 months to 7 years.

Tracy McMullen

Tracy became a Jew-By-Choice twenty-two years ago and has never looked back. KK Bene Israel (Rockdale Temple) was her Jewish home for twenty-one years. Now, she is looking forward to becoming a member of the Temple Shalom family. The warmth, friendliness and ready acceptance of the members I've met so far have been delightful. She hopes to give back in kind. Her two careers were in public relations and nursing. The latter included six years on active duty with the Army Nurse Corps. Labor/delivery was her favorite area and she's now exploring the possibility of becoming a doula. Tracey enjoys singing, writing, cooking, almost all outdoor activities, including swimming in the Gulf and running, painting murals and enjoying her two small dogs. Her family includes a daughter, stepdaughter and stepson, their spouses/partner and two granddaughters, with another grandchild due in March. She moved around all her life and has lived in eleven states. "This relocation to Florida has been the only one of my choosing. It's going to be wonderful and being part of Temple Shalom will really top it off!"

BEREAVEMENT GROUP FOR MEMBERS OF THE TEMPLE SHALOM COMMUNITY

In the spirit of our tradition, which calls us to perform the mitzvah of Nihum Avelim (comforting mourners), Temple Shalom offers a Bereavement Support Group for widows who are grieving for a loved one. The group meets at Temple Shalom. Please contact Arline Kaplan, PhD (arkaplanphd@gmail.com) or Leslie Wasserman, MA (leshbr@aol.com) for more information.

For many generations, Jews have made it a custom to remember their loved ones and sanctify their joyous events with a charitable donation. At Temple Shalom, there are several ways for us to remember or honor a loved one and give thanks for milestone events in our lives. Please consider a yahrzeit plaque, Tribute Garden paver, leaf on the Tree of Life, or dedicating a Torah portion in the Illustrated Torah as a permanent remembrance. Your generosity will contribute to the future of Temple Shalom.

Scan the QR codes below with the camera on your cellphone to go directly to an order form, or call the Temple Shalom office for assistance.

Remember your loved one with a yahrzeit memorial plaque in the Sanctuary. A light next to the plaque is lit during the week of their yahrzeit and during Yizkor.

Order and customize a brick, a tree or a bench in the Temple Shalom Tribute Garden in memory of, or in honor of a loved one or special event.

A leaf or Star of David on the Tree of Life in the Sanctuary is a beautiful way to commemorate a loved one or a meaningful occasion.

Dedicating a Torah portion in the Illustrated Torah is a meaningful way to memorialize an individual or a special celebration. You may also choose to dedicate a word or a special verse.

Showing We Care

Contributions to Temple Shalom funds are wonderful ways to show your appreciation of family and friends, to celebrate happy occasions and to honor the memories of loved ones. We suggest a minimum donation of chai ($18.00). With a minimum donation of chai, a notice of your gift will be sent to the honoree and mention will be published in The Voice. To make a donation, visit the donation page on the website at www.naplestemple.org, or call the Temple office at 239-455-3030.
