Temple Shalom

Dear Friends,

Two years ago, our annual meeting took place during the early stages of COVID-19. At the end of our annual clergy letter, we shared a teaching about the tradition of breaking glass that concludes every wedding. The rabbis command us to break something made of glass because glass is unique among materials. Unlike other substances such as wood or clay, glass can be melted down, and then reformed into something special once more. As we noted in our conclusion, the broken glass metaphor fit well with what we were experiencing at that time, when the world felt broken and shattered. Even in that dark hour, we had faith that a better tomorrow would come. We believed that we would be able to take the broken pieces and create an even more beautiful future.

Although our world continues to smolder and face challenges, we look around in amazement at what has taken place over the last two years, and what we have accomplished at Temple Shalom. Our membership continues to grow; we stand as the largest congregation between Tampa and Miami with more than 810 households! We returned this year to in-person services, gathering for an inspiring High Holy Days, and witnessing significant attendance at weekly Shabbat services and events. Our adult education program continues to blossom, with dozens participating in the acclaimed Melton courses, and many more attending lectures, programs, and learning sessions. The Temple Shalom Preschool, under the remarkable leadership of Rabbi Boxman, reached its capacity and has a waiting list, as well as a stellar rating and reputation throughout the community. Mitzvah Day, Scholar-in-Residence, and many more programs returned from virtual status, engaging people and creating a sense of community. In addition, we see the evolution of our SWFL Jewish community with the construction of the new Nina Iser Cultural Center on our campus by the Jewish Federation of Greater Naples.

We have not only collected the broken pieces, we created something that would be remarkable even in non-COVID times! Our success arises from the wonderful combination of our clergy team working in partnership with lay leadership, under the guidance of our Temple President Daryl Sissman, our Executive Director, Deborah Fidel, her staff, and the engagement of our members. Together we are taking Temple Shalom to new heights, unseen in the history of our Congregation.

Entering our 60th year in 2022, may our One Family continue to go from strength to strength and blessing to blessing in the year ahead.

L'shalom,

Rabbi Adam Miller

Chair: Keren Alpert

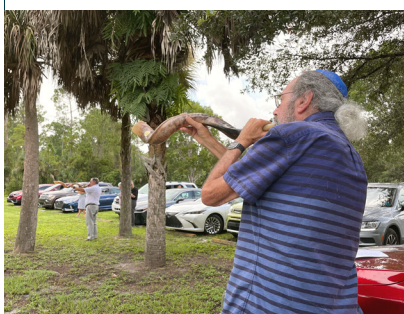

Our committee continued to provide feedback and support, collaborating with our clergy to enhance services. We understand that people come to services in person or participate online with a variety of needs: a desire to connect to God and each other, a search for moments of quiet reflection or joyous song, to learn a bit of Torah, to remember a dear one and to celebrate life cycle events. Our services provide many doorways for the members of our One Family.

Thank you to the members of the Worship Committee for their thoughtful efforts.

Finance Committee

Chair: Stephen Pino

The Finance Committee met regularly over the last year. We reviewed the Temple financials and oversaw our investment and endowment accounts at Fidelity and Collier Community Foundation. We monitored our current budget for expenses and revenue. We then prepared the 2022/2023 budget and presented it to the Board of Trustees, which unanimously approved it at the March Board meeting.

Some key highlights:

1. Balanced budget!
2. Capital Reserves were replenished.
3. Modest increase in the L'Shalom sustaining levels
4. The Above and Beyond projection is similar to that in the 21/22 budget.
5. Preschool revenue continues to grow, based on increased student enrollment and new services offered.
6. We received substantial endowment commitments during the past year, which helps build a strong financial foundation for the future.

Thank you to the members of the Finance and Investment Committees for their commitment to our Temple.

Thank You!

A heartfelt thanks to Susan Ritter, for the endless time and effort that she has given to Temple as our Treasurer.

Development: Fundraising

The Temple's annual major fundraiser was a big hit! We ate, drank and sang along with NY NY Dueling Pianos. Most important, we gathered to thank three special couples for their incredible generosity to the Temple: Cheryl and Ed Alexander, Dr. Paula Brody and Merrill Hassenfeld, and Bebe and Steve Saks. We netted $86,000 for Temple's operating budget and had a lot of fun! Josh Isenberg Pure Piano and Pzazz Productions contributed to making the event extra special. Thank you to our chairs, Robin and Andy Mintz, our generous sponsors, and all who worked to make it a special evening!

Temple Shalom

One Family

Co-Chairs: Tussy Shnider & Bobbie Katz

One Family, always striving to live up to its name, is alive and well at Temple Shalom.

It has been eight years since we successfully undertook the challenge of transforming our culture into one that fully embraced the principles of Relational Judaism. Our focus on personal relationships has seen us through some difficult times, keeping us connected with each other, with Temple, and with God. Thanks to the belief in the importance of community, we have come through an era that could have been damaging to the progress we had made in the years preceding COVID. It was, instead, a time for rising to the challenges created by the pandemic. From assisting our most senior members with their grocery shopping and arranging vaccination and booster appointments (and transportation to appointments when needed!), to adapting our services, classes and programs to be held online and outdoors, our Senior Staff and lay leaders kept our congregational family united.

We have been told by visitors and people new to the area that Temple Shalom is “the friendliest congregation they have ever encountered.” We couldn’t agree more!

Meals of Love

Provided dozens of meals to Temple members who were in need of a helping hand as they recovered from illness.

Program Coordinators: Nancy Brown & Harriet Lickhalter

Shalom Chaverim

Greeted thousands of congregants and guests and helped create an environment that is friendly, warm, inviting, and reflective of One Family.

Program Coordinators: Di & Andy Karpman

Caring Connection

Sent over 350 handwritten cards of condolence and celebration.

Program Coordinators: Carole Greene and Bobbie Katz

Shalom Callers

Called our “Super Seniors” to say hello, Shabbat Shalom and check in. Our seniors described the calls as “lifesaving” and callers made new friends.

Program Coordinator: Tussy Shnider

Challah from the Heart

Baked and delivered 150 challahs for Shabbat to individuals needing a pick-me-up.

Program Coordinators: Daryl Sissman, with Lisa Lauber and Amy Hunter

High Holiday Ushers

Greeted hundreds of worshippers, helped people find seats and assisted service participants ascend and descend the Locketz Bima to keep services running smoothly.

Program Coordinator: Michael Feldman

Shalom@Home

Dozens of Temple Shalom members gathered and socialized in the homes of other members who live in their neighborhood.

The Reopening Task Force met periodically to assess current conditions and make recommendations to the Board of Trustees regarding Temple functions during the pandemic.

Main objectives:

- Maintain a safe environment
- Follow CDC guidelines with consideration of our local conditions
- Stay connected with our members and keep them engaged
- Maintain the functioning of the Temple for all events—social, cultural, educational, etc.

Tools: Masks, physical distancing, environmental adaptations, such as outdoor classes and activities, modified indoor seating arrangements, facilitating virtual participation, recommending vaccination

In February, the Task Force recommended to the Board that decisions regarding COVID protocols for Temple Shalom shall be delegated to the Senior Staff, with notification to the Board of Trustees when there is a material change to our standard operating procedures. The motion passed and currently governs Temple operations. The Task Force will reconvene, should conditions change and warrant a meeting to reassess the Temple’s response to COVID in our community.

"I wanted to reiterate our appreciation for all of the effort that you and the other volunteers from Temple Shalom put into the food drive yesterday. The outpouring of support from the members of the Temple was extraordinary. The group was amazing and the positive energy and sense of community was extremely heartwarming!"

Volunteer Highlight

Meals of Love Prepared & Delivered

By Carole J. Greene

Note: this is the second in a series of articles about volunteer opportunities for Temple Shalom family members.

When members of our Temple Shalom family come home from the hospital or a rehab facility, the last thing they want to think about is how they're going to shop and prepare food during their recuperation. Often, they are on medication that limits driving, so they can't take themselves to the grocery. They may be on crutches or a walker, also limiting their mobility.

Recognizing this need, Bobbie Katz, chair of the Caring Connection, made providing home-cooked meals during such times a high priority for this new committee that she formed in 2013. Harriet Lickhalter and Nancy Brown, good friends, happened to be sitting side-by-side at this committee's kickoff meeting. They looked at each other and nodded. This is something we can do. They've been doing it ever since.

Harriet explains the process she and Nancy created: Typically, the Rabbis or Cantor know when a congregant is coming home and will need help with meals for a while. The office tells Bobbie, and she reaches out to Harriet or Nancy. One of them will phone the prospective recipient to get the details. "We like to know of any dietary restrictions, food allergies, or dislikes. We also want to know how many people are in the household—spouse, children—so we can prepare enough." Nancy adds: "The goal is to make and deliver three to six meals over a two-week period."

Then they contact one of the several people who signed up to provide this service. If none happens to be available, then Nancy, Harriet, or both will do it. "It's all done on computer and phone," Nancy said. "The preparer finds out best day and time to deliver, and coordinates with Harriet or me so the recipient doesn't receive more than one meal on a given day."

The cooks try to make enough to stretch over more than one meal. Meat loaf, chicken, brisket, tuna salad, deviled eggs, lox and bagels—all these and more have been made at home and delivered. "The emphasis is on home-cooked, not store-bought food," Harriet said. "When you're cooking, you just make more than you need for your own household."

Some people turn down the offer—they may have family or friends providing meals for them, or they are reluctant to accept "charity." Nancy is quick to point out that it's not charity, but a service of one Temple family member to another. Harriet echoes that idea. "We're part of a family. You do for family when someone needs help. If you're like my husband and me, who have no relatives here, the Temple is our family."

Harriet remarked that COVID slowed them down. "People didn't want strangers coming into their homes, and the preparers didn't like the idea of going into homes of people they didn't know. So, we're just now getting back up and running." Often, the meal is not the only service provided. "Lots of people are lonely and want to have a nice chat," Nancy said. "We are able to make friends with people we might otherwise never have met."

Some of the original preparers are not able to continue, so the Meals of Love committee is looking for new partners—perhaps new, younger Temple members. "We've been doing this for nine years," Harriet said. "We're not so young any more," Nancy added. "It's time to turn it over to others."

If you would like to be one of those "others," contact Bobbie Katz at GBKATZ5804@aol.com, or (239) 353-5963, and tell her you'd like to be a Meals of Love chef.
