Senior Rabbi Adam F. Miller

By the time you receive this, the High Holy Days will have concluded, and we will be well into 5784. Below is the story that I shared on Rosh Hashanah, taking note of the meaningful moments from our lives. I look forward to hearing what makes your notebook and the blessings you have discovered thus far. May it be a year of sweetness for you!

This summer I heard a version of the following story told by Amy Smyler Macfarland, the Director of Camp Coleman.

Long ago, a traveler came across a small town located in the hills. As she approached, the traveler noticed a cemetery on the outskirts of the community. Curious to learn more about the townsfolk, she paused to look at the stones.

At the first marker, she read a puzzling inscription. On the stone was a name, but in lieu of the usual dates of birth and death one might expect, it read 18 years and 25 days. "Too young," she said out loud, shaking her head. Moving on to the next one, she found a name, and the inscription, 15 years and 103 days. "Oh, my goodness! Another life cut short," she exclaimed. Walking from stone to stone, she felt herself overcome with immense sadness as the pattern continued, "10 years and 18 days," "7 years and 45 days..."

Tears in her eyes, the traveler did not notice that someone was coming toward her until she heard a voice. "Excuse me." The sound startled her causing her to look up. "You look quite distraught. Are you here to grieve a loved one?"

"No," she replied. "I am just overcome with immense heartache to see so many dying at such a young age. What happened here?"

"Oh, I think you misunderstand," replied the stranger. "You see, in our town we have a custom. When one reaches adulthood, they are given a notebook. Inside they are to write down the memorable and meaningful moments of their lives, and for each one, how long the emotion of that experience lasted.

When one is buried, we add up the time, and put it on the gravestone. After all, isn't the time that we find to be meaningful, sacred and special the most important part of our lives? For us, those meaningful moments that shape our lives are more valuable than the total of the years we spent walking this earth."

As we celebrate the 10th year of One Family, I want everyone here to make note of the meaningful moments that you encounter in your lives. At your seat is a notebook from Temple Shalom. Record the times when you encounter moments of Kehillah, community, feeling yourself connected to something larger than yourself and conscious of the relationships that make us One Family.

Make note of the experiences when you witness those with differences coming together to create Shalom, peace, as they make our world more whole and holy.

Write down when you find Tikvah, hope, to persevere in the face of difficult challenges and experience the joy of discovering new solutions to the problems at hand.

With each notation, you will be recording your own meaningful moments, and you will also be writing all of us into the Book of Life. For with each connection you give meaning and life to the future of Judaism, our source for Kehillah, Shalom, and Tikvah, the meaningful experiences that define what it means to truly live our lives.

May the year ahead be one full of blessing and meaning, Shana Tova U'Mtukah.

AMEN

Executive Director Deborah Fidel

I feel a special sense of satisfaction at this time of year, a particular calm that comes after months of planning for the High Holy Days. I have a unique perch from which to see the extraordinary feat that our entire staff accomplishes, making it possible for each of you to focus on your own Jewish experience of this sacred time on our religious calendar.

Our clergy outdid themselves this year. Rabbi Miller, Rabbi Boxman, Cantor Azu, and Rabbi Emeritus James Perman, all helped us to fill our hearts and souls with prayer, music and Torah. While they are the people we see and hear, there are dozens of people who make the magic happen – staff and volunteers who partner with our spiritual leaders to make the High Holy Days holy indeed.

So much of what makes the holidays possible happens behind the scenes. The logistics of the High Holy Days are complex. It is essentially a multi-day festival over several weeks (from Selichot through Sukkot) for over a thousand people. At this time of year, the staff is handling a long list of behind-the-scenes work, in addition to processing the hundreds of membership renewals and new memberships at this time of year. They plan for everything, and handle whatever comes their way with a smile. When there are glitches (and there are always glitches!), they jump into action so quickly and graciously that you never know anything was amiss. Thank you, Anne Maner, Jeanette Fischer, Esther Garfield, Judy Mahan, and Leslie Bautista. You worked long hours under difficult conditions at times. I recognize that the importance of our work weighed heavily on everyone, but you kept going...and going...and going, until the job was complete.

Anyone who joined us for worship – in person or online – knows that the production value of our services is second to none. What looks like a simple transmission of audio and video via our livestream and Facebook Live, is actually an incredibly sophisticated operation that relies on the expertise and extraordinary commitment of Megan Black and Dustin Herl. We literally could not do what we do without these two talented people.

Our building staff - Victor Lucas, Michael Sanroma, Pedro Cruz and Rick Holsbeke - do a tremendous job in every way, from the moment you arrive in the parking lot. I saw them break a heavy sweat more than once, as they tended to our material needs and comfort. Their care and devotion are only matched by their kindness and good humor.

Our Music Director, Dr. James Cochran and the choir elevated our worship to new heights. Thank you, Rabbi Muller, for leading us in an engaging and inspired text study. Thank you, one and all!

I thank our school staff for a wonderful children's program and Family service. The High Holy Days are an especially hectic time of year for them, overlapping with the launch of the preschool and YESh school year. Idea Kabashi, Lijena Shurdhi, Julie Fischer, Paolette Pikus and Mary Flores, together with all of our teachers and tutors, work magic for us every day – not just on the holidays.

Eric Taylor, our contracted security guard went the extra mile to keep us safe and volunteered his own golf cart and time to shuttle members to and from their cars.

As always, Ada Rossell and her crew were indispensable to Victor and to me. While they are not technically part of our staff, Eric, Ada and Wilson are definitely part of our One Family. Thank you!

Together, our staff worked this year as an extraordinary crew – supporting each other, helping each other wherever we could, paying attention when things got stressful for one or another of us. It's an incredible blessing to be part of this team. Thank you for an amazing High Holy Day season—I appreciate you all!

Shining Stars of Shabbat: The Dedicated Volunteers Behind Friday Night's Oneg

By Tracy McMullen

Temple Shalom members who attend Friday evening Shabbat services know that the onegs that follow are truly a delight of Shabbat. We enjoy a marvelous array of sweet and savory treats beautifully displayed and artfully presented. The quantity and variety of goodies ensure that everyone can find something delicious to enjoy as we connect with old friends and new acquaintances who are all a part of our Temple's One Family.

On many Shabbats, there will be a decorated cake at one end of the long serving table in honor of a Bar or Bat Mitzvah, a member's birthday, or some other special life event. The lady most often doing the cutting and serving is Karen Cohn, who joined the oneg 'team' when she came to Temple Shalom in 1992. For the past 31 years she has headed the oneg project, which the Temple Sisterhood has sponsored and underwritten for more than 35 years.

"I decided to get involved with the onegs because I enjoy the camaraderie; I like baking and it pleases me to have people enjoy what I bring," she said. "When I started, Sandy Stone and Helen Weinfeld were still in charge. They were the original team leaders and they trained me. Helen was an artist and composed very elegant fruit and pastry platters. She had a real talent for it."

When Karen took over, she was assisted for many years by Debbie Schertzer (z"l) and Pam Schoen. Now it is Carol Hirsch and Judy Lazan who are most often at Temple on Friday mornings to work with Karen on arranging the 15-20 platters of treats that grace the oneg serving table.

More than half of those treats are provided by members who create batches of cookies, brownies, fudge, nut bars, large and small cakes, cheese and cracker platters, biscotti and traditional Jewish sweets including mandelbrot, rugelach and cheesecake.

"We try to accommodate everybody by also offering sugar-free or gluten-free selections and labeling anything that contains peanuts or tree nuts," Karen said. "Most of those items are purchased, along with whatever we may need if we're short on homemade treats. It's often hard to gauge how much to purchase but we do our best to minimize discards."

The oneg team gathers at 10:00am on Fridays and often works till noon, preparing everything that will be served that evening. Karen said that fruit platters take the most time because of the prep work involved.

"We always welcome anyone who wants to help on Fridays and of course we're delighted to receive anything that members want to bake or donate," Karen said. "It isn't necessary to bake large quantities—a dozen or two of anything is fine." Karen noted that it's most helpful to have donations before Friday morning and that items should be wrapped to freeze. They should be brought to the Temple office and labeled if they contain nuts or are sugar-free or gluten-free.

Members may also sponsor an oneg for $180. Details are available from Sisterhood or the Temple office.

And with a wry smile, she added, "If you like to bake but don't want to have a lot of sweets in the house, you can keep a sample, and bring the rest to us."

ISRAEL CORNER

By Andy Karpman

The Palmach Museum

The Palmach (Strike Companies) was the enlisted brigade of the Haganah, constituting the military defense force of the Jewish Yishuv and Zionist movement until the establishment of the State of Israel (the army of the Jewish state in the making). The Haganah itself operated clandestinely during the British rule, and its members were volunteers who trained underground and irregularly, primarily on Saturdays and holidays.

The Palmach Museum is an experiential museum, covering the Palmach legacy through the stories of individuals and groups. Visitors to the museum join the group of young Palmach recruits from its establishment, and advance through the story of the Palmach until the end of the War of Independence.

The manner of presentation is extremely innovative. There are no displays or documents, but rather an account of a fascinating personal story accompanied by three-dimensional decor, films and various effects incorporating documentary materials.

The visit, which is conducted in groups, correlates with the structure of the presentation, set out as a series of events, symbolizing the Palmach team spirit.

The tour commences and ends in the memorial hall for Palmach warriors who died fighting for establishment of the state of Israel. The presentation is in Hebrew. English, Spanish, French, Russian, and Mandarin Chinese speakers will be provided with a translation through headphones.

Keith made Naples his primary residence in December, 2022 to celebrate the blessing of being able to live his best life with his 93 year old father, Norman. Keith also has homes in New York City and Los Angeles where he is a principal in Robust Real Estate. He grew up in Chicago, attended UCLA undergrad and earned his MBA from the University of Chicago. He has also studied at London School of Economics and Oxford University. He has just completed a four-year term as Chair of the West Hollywood Chamber of Commerce and is a member of the Board of Directors of Project Angel Food. He is completing his preparations to take the Florida real estate exam and will soon be working with buyers and sellers in the Naples area.

NEW MEMBERS

As of September 18

Paul & Karen Budnick

Paul & Karen are loving parents to two daughters and four grandchildren. They met on a UJA mission to Israel. Paul and Karen married in New York City and relocated to Lexington, MA for the majority of their professional careers. Paul worked for many years in senior management at Loehmann's, the women's retail fashion store. Then he transitioned to a successful career in retail banking. Karen graduated from Yeshiva University with her MSW and had a successful career as the Hospice/Palliative Care Coordinator with the Edith Nourse Rogers Memorial VAMC in Bedford, MA. Now both retired, they enjoy reading, walking, aqua aerobics, cooking, cruising, mah jongg and leading a life filled with love and gratitude.

Mark Goetz

Mark was born in Baltimore and moved to Bonita Springs in June, 2015. He is a retired accountant from the Federal Government Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services. He enjoys watching and playing sports, including tennis, pickleball, bike riding, and walking. In Baltimore, he was a Big Brother to four Jewish children and he keeps in contact with two of them. His favorite sports teams are the Orioles, Ravens, Baltimore Colts and the Maryland Terrapins. He loves to read mystery and suspense novels and enjoys going to Artis-Naples, musicals and the movies.

Maxine Rockoff

Maxine has recently arrived in Naples from Brooklyn, NY, drawn here by her daughter, Lisa Vivori, and her grandchildren. Her Bat Mitzvah was one of the earliest held at Temple Emanu-El in Tucson, AZ, and she has been active in Jewish life ever since. She was a co-founder of the Hillel Children's School at Yale in 1969 because New Haven, CT, had no other option for giving Jewish children an education about Judaism. Now retired, Maxine spent many years working for the Federal Government bringing healthcare to underserved rural and inner-city populations. She looks forward with enthusiasm to joining this wonderful congregation!

NEW MEMBERS

As of September 18

Judi & David Beier

Judi and David met in 1988 on a blind date in Queens, New York. After living in Fairfield, Connecticut for 24 years, they relocated 4 years ago to Naples. Judi was raised in Queens, graduated from SUNY New Paltz and received a Masters Degree in Education from Queens College. She was a NYC Public School teacher. David grew up in the Bronx, graduated from NYU and received his Juris Doctor Degree from Boston University School of Law. He was an attorney in New York City specializing in contracts, the NYC Taxi Industry and was a registered lobbyist. At their temple in Connecticut, David served on the Board and was President of the Brotherhood while Judi became a Bat Mitzvah at age 42. Judi enjoys documentaries, biographies, practicing the piano, scrapbooking and organizing everything in sight. David is an avid, steadily improving golfer, voracious reader, jigsaw puzzle enthusiast and a huge NY Jets fan. They have a 28 year-old son, Jordan, who lives in New Jersey and a pug, Wessex, who lives with them in Florida.

Adam & Leslie Bauer

Adam and Leslie Bauer are loving parents to two beautiful girls Emma, 7, and Abigail (Abby), 3. Adam and Leslie are both born and raised in Massachusetts and have deep ties to the Jewish community in which they were raised. Adam is a Vice President of Events for iHeartRadio and Leslie has her Masters in Social Work and has worked for several early education establishments throughout her career. Adam and Leslie both grew up in the suburbs around Boston. They moved to Naples in 2012 and started a family. In their free time, the family enjoys traveling, boating, swimming, and spending time with friends and family.

Joseph & Briana Leschen

Briana and Joseph Leschen are parents to two boys, Casey (13) and Sam (11). Briana and Joe grew up in Manalapan, NJ, went to college in NJ and started their family in Marlboro, NJ. Their family were members of Temple Ohev Shalom, aka The Marlboro Jewish Center, where Casey became a Bar Mitzvah last October. The boys are very involved in sports and Joe loves to coach youth sports. Briana has been a teacher for 21 years and also a successful entrepreneur, starting two businesses during that time; The Mix Chix and Project Blanket. They enjoy spending time together with their cat, Rocky. They moved to Florida from NJ to be closer to family.

Stephen & Michelle Such

Stephen and Michele Such met and married in Los Angeles, and soon after moved to San Diego where they lived for 10 years before moving to North Padre Island, Corpus Christi, TX. They stayed there for 4 years and then moved to the panhandle of Florida and then to Naples. They enjoyed each place for what made it unique, but were missing an active Jewish community. As soon as they arrived at Temple Shalom, they felt at home and will make this their forever home.

Emily & Jay Berkowitz

Brooklyn-bred Emily, and Long Islander, Jay, met at Cornell University in Ithaca, NY. She was an undergraduate and he was in Veterinary School. They settled in Port Washington, NY, where Jay established Old Shore Animal Clinic. Emily earned two Master's degrees; the first in counseling and the second in English. She became an adjunct at CW Post College, and began writing for publications including Newsday. A lifelong ballet lover, Emily is the co-author of Balanchine's Dancing Cowboy, a memoir of her friend, Frank Ohman's decades with the New York City Ballet. Later, she became an educator at the Holocaust Museum and Tolerance Center. Jay and Emily have happily resided in Naples for the last four years. Their pride and joy are their son, Justin, and daughter-in-law Jessica, also both Cornellians, who live in northern California.

Advocacy Works!

In the 1970s and 1980s, people with disabilities fought for their rights to equal education, employment, and accessible transportation. Their advocacy led to the passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, which prohibits discrimination against people with disabilities. Advocacy works!

Please join with other congregants who want to address important local issues like affordable housing and hunger and food insecurity.

We've held town halls and forums to raise awareness and provide education about these issues. The Temple Board of Trustees voted to support the next step - advocating for change. While our TOV subcommittee is taking the lead on affordable housing and hunger and food insecurity, other groups in the Temple will lead on the issues of antisemitism and hate speech. We will all work through the TOV committee to ensure coordination.

Why do we need your help now?

Thousands of our neighbors, even those who work, cannot afford to find housing for rent or purchase. The reality of hunger among these families, including children and seniors, cannot be ignored. Challenges from COVID, inflation, Hurricane Ian, and the loss of pandemic public benefits have only made these issues worse for our neighbors.

In a state and country with such abundance, we cannot know these statistics and not act. Raising our voices has never been more important. Just like what people with disabilities did 40 to 50 years ago, we can and must do the same. But we need your help.

If you are interested in joining our efforts to advocate for change, please email our subcommittee chair, Susan

Hager at susan.k.hager@gmail.com. What will that mean? There are many ways to help, such as sending an email or a letter to our elected representatives, sending a letter to the editor, participating in advocacy training, meeting with others who are working on these issues, or meeting with our elected representatives or their staff. You will decide the level of involvement you want. We will provide background information, samples, talking points, and optional training.

Men's Club
Ron Yasbin, President

For many years, Paul Moskowitz has been organizing golf outings for the Men's Club and the Temple Shalom family. We want to thank Paul for his hard work. Paul has decided to step down as our golf commissioner. Phil Auerbach will take his place as the new golf commissioner. Stay tuned for more information about this year's outings.

Here are a few of our scheduled events for the year of 5784:

October 15 - The Men's Club is proud to be a sponsor and a financial donor of the BBYO's "a big mock fun Bar Mitzvah party." For more information, contact our liaison with BBYO, Larry Sandler, at Issandler@gmail.com.

December 12 - In partnership with Sisterhood and supported by WCA and MCA, Men's Club presents, "The Modern Approach to Genetic Testing: From Tay-Sachs to BRCA." Hillary Regelman from J Screen will speak about carrier testing for reproductive risk as well as cancer genetic testing and why it's important for the Jewish community. Learn about how JScreen is making genetic testing accessible while debunking the many misconceptions people have about this important topic. JScreen is a national non-profit at-home education and genetic screening program which includes screening for diseases common in Ashkenazi, Sephardi, and Mizrahi backgrounds as well as the general population.

January - We will continue our support for Mitzvah Day by providing financial aid and volunteers as well as by providing breakfast for all of the volunteers.

January 28 - the popular Deli Day (food lunches/dinners from Ben's Kosher Deli) Information on ordering will be available shortly. This year, responding to requests, we have moved Deli Day to a Sunday. The food will be available for pick up from noon to 2:00pm.

February 13 - Will be our annual, joint luncheon with the Sisterhood.

March 31 - We will be holding our major fundraiser Dinner Theater event at the Broadway Palm Dinner Theatre. Again, responding to requests we have moved this event to a Sunday matinee and the performance will be the fantastic "Beautiful: The Carole King Story."

The Alamo group continues to meet on a regular basis. Contact Ed Cohen for more information (edcohenpt@gmail.com). More announcements will follow as our schedule is filled out. Please remember that we are always looking for more ways to serve our members and the community. All ideas are gladly received.

*To make a memorial donation please visit www.naplestemple.org

For many generations, Jews have made it a custom to remember their loved ones and sanctify their joyous events with a charitable donation. At Temple Shalom, there are several ways for us to remember or honor a loved one and give thanks for milestone events in our lives. Please consider a yahrzeit plaque, Tribute Garden paver, leaf on the Tree of Life, or dedicating a Torah portion in the Illustrated Torah as a permanent remembrance. Your generosity will contribute to the future of Temple Shalom.

Scan the QR codes below with the camera on your cellphone to go directly to an order form, or call the Temple Shalom office for assistance.

Remember your loved one with a yahrzeit memorial plaque in the Sanctuary. A light next to the plaque is lit during the week of their yahrzeit and during Yizkor.

Order and customize a brick, a tree or a bench in the Temple Shalom Tribute Garden in memory of, or in honor of a loved one or special event.

A leaf or Star of David on the Tree of Life in the Sanctuary is a beautiful way to commemorate a loved one or a meaningful occasion.

Dedicating a Torah portion in the Illustrated Torah is a meaningful way to memorialize an individual or a special celebration. You may also choose to dedicate a word or a special verse.

TZEDAKAH

Showing We Care

Contributions to Temple Shalom funds are wonderful ways to show your appreciation of family and friends, to celebrate happy occasions and to honor the memories of loved ones. We suggest a minimum donation of chai ($18.00). With a minimum donation of chai, a notice of your gift will be sent to the honoree and mention will be published in The Voice. To make a donation, visit the donation page on the website at www.naplestemple.org, or call the Temple office at 239-455-3030.
