Shul Dinner is This Weekend!

The band is rehearsing, the caterer is cooking, the journals are printing, all in anticipation of a fantastic evening celebrating our honorees at the 19th Annual YIOT Dinner! We look forward to seeing everyone on Sunday.

Women's Parsha Shiur on Break Till After Pesach

Mincha B'Zman Starts this Week at YIOT!

Mincha B'Zman starts this week. The 9:00p Ma'ariv is on hiatus until the fall.

Lost & Found

All items in the Lost & Found boxes will be donated or discarded on Monday, March 26th. Please take a moment to check for any items that belong to you.

Thank You!

Thank you to Harvey Schatz for running another wonderful season of parent child learning! And thank you to all the other volunteers, sponsors, and all the families who came out each week.

Thank you from the House Committee: 54 new and beautiful hangers have been added to the groups room, social hall closet, and downstairs stairway hanging rod. That should equate to 54 less coats on the floor. Thank you to the private donor for taking the initiative and helping to keep our shul organized and clean.

Lunch & Learn for Women Continues March 12th

The women's Lunch & Learn program with Rabbi Krohn continues this week, Monday March 12th from 1:15-2:00p at the Hods (954 Warren).

Men's Chabura Continues March 13th!

The Men's Chabura continues Tuesday, March 13th 9:15p at the Adamits (745 Bayard).

Mazal Tov

Mazal Tov to Eitan Green on his Bar Mitzvah. Mazal Tov to his parents, Zev & Ilissa, and the entire family. The Greens invite the kehilla to a kiddush after the 7:00a minyan.

Mazal Tov to Atara Siesser on her Bat Mitzvah. Mazal Tov to her parents, Ron & Debra, and the entire family.

Mazal Tov to Abby Ruben on her Bat Mitzvah. Mazal Tov to her parents, Gabe & Laura, and the entire family.

The Siessers and the Rubens invite the kehilla to a kiddush following the 9:00a minyan.

Mazal Tov to Batya Karp on her engagement to Shai Getzoff of Givat Zeev. Mazal Tov to Batya's parents, Dorothy and Louis Karp.

New Learning Program at YIOT-Daf HaShavua

The new Daf HaShavua program will begin learning Masechet Taanit on Monday morning, March 12th.

We will meet Monday-Thursday mornings at 6:00a and learn until the first Shacharit (6:20m on M/Th and 6:30a on Tues/Wed), covering 1/4 of a daf each day, finishing a daf by the end of the week.

This program will allow you to add 20-30 minutes of learning to your day, as well as the ability to come away understanding what is being learned. We will also have a whatsapp group, so if you miss one day you can easily catch up on your own time.

This program is open to learners of all levels, men and women. Coffee will be provided.

If you have any further questions please contact Gary Steinmentz: gstein@us.ibm.com. Visit the Daf HaShavua website for more information at <http://www.dafaweek.org/>.

Shabbat Chazzanut is April 27th & 28th

The annual Joseph Dresner z"l Memorial Shabbat Chazzanut, featuring our own Netanel Hershtik and the Hamptons Synagogue Choir is on 4/27 & 4/28. We are looking for housing for the choir members. To sponsor the event or host members of the choir, please email Scott Reiss at nycview@hotmail.com.
