Riddle (answer at bottom of page)

Question: There are three Biblical mitzvot (d'orayta) that we fulfill at the seder, and according to Rambam there can be a fourth. Do you know what they are ?

Last Week's Riddle Answer

Answer: A Metzora brings a Minchat Nesachim together with his/her Asham and Chatat (Vayikra 14:10). See the Rashi there.

Our paid Security Guard will be on duty throughout Yom Tov along with our Security Volunteers. Law Enforcement plans to be visibly present throughout the holidays, including performing familiarization walk-throughs of shuls.

They should always be escorted by someone from our security team so please don't be alarmed, rather thank them (along with our Security Volunteers) for their continued support of our community.

Riddle Answer

The three mitzvot are eating a kazayit of matza, telling the story of Yetziat Mitzrayim, and Birkat HaMazon. Rambam holds that the counting of the Omer at the second seder fulfills a d'orayta obligation even today.
