

What and Why

By A. Levene

There are two one-word questions, which so many people ask,
As they go about life's business, of respective daily tasks.
I'm quite sure you must have heard them, so you know, I do not lie,-
Stated clearly, here before you, they are simply "what and why"

"Why" is deemed so all important, we desire to know G-d's Plan,
In ordaining life before us – good and ill for every man.

Yet, if G-d disclosed his reasons, for the past or what's in store,
Would we then begin to fathom what's beyond life's narrow shore?
Could our finite brains encompass an infinity of mind?

Would we then achieve true knowledge far beyond mere human-kind?

When it comes to His own reasons, to rely on faith, we must.

"Why" as query, is no option- our true choice: "In G-d We Trust"!

As for "what" – "That is the question" that each person should hold dear,

While we ponder on its' answers every moment of each year.

When we ask ourselves, WHAT lessons have I learned from G-d's own ways?"-

We shall grow in comprehension of His teachings, day by day.
