A NOTE ABOUT THE FAST OF TISHA B’AV

We will convene for Mincha early this Shabbat afternoon (6:10 PM) so that everyone has time to return home for a large Se’udah Shlishit. There are no restrictions on what can be eaten at this meal, but it should conclude by sunset (8:03 PM) when the fast begins.

At nightfall (8:45 PM) when Shabbat ends, each person should say “baruch hamavdil bein kodesh l’chol” and then remove one’s Shabbat shoes and put on whatever non-leather shoes one will wear for the fast.

We will convene for Ma’ariv at 9:05 PM to give everyone time to make their way back to shul. At shul we will recite only one of the Havdalah blessings (borei m’orei ha’esh” on the candle) and the rest of havdalah will be delayed until the conclusion of the fast. Those who do not come to shul on Saturday night, should recite borei m’orei ha’esh at home while looking at a Havdalah candle.

When Havdalah is recited on Sunday night, we omit the verses of blessing at the beginning of Havdalah (hinei el y’shu’ati…) and just recite the blessings of “borei peri ha’gafen” and “hamavdil” (the blessing on the candle was recited on Saturday night).

Anyone who is not fasting (e.g. someone sick, someone pregnant or nursing) should recite Havdalah before eating, either on Saturday night or whenever it is on Sunday that they break their fast.

A Tish'a B'Av Shiur with Rabbi Wolkenfeld

Sunday, August 7, 6:00 - 6:30 PM
in person at ASBI
We are excited to announce that Sofia Freudenstein will be ASBI’s Yeshivat Maharat Intern next year. She will make ten monthly visits to ASBI beginning this September. Stay tuned for a schedule of Sophia’s visits so that you can join us in shul to learn with her or help her get to know our community by hosting her for a Shabbat stay or meal!

Sofia Freudenstein graduated with an Honours Bachelor degree from the University of Toronto, double-majoring in Jewish Studies and Philosophy. She worked on an undergraduate thesis assessing Revelation in Modern Jewish Thought, and completed a unit of Clinical Pastoral Education at Baycrest Geriatric Hospital.

Before university, Sofia competed in the International Chidon HaTanach, and participated in the Drisha High School Program, the Bronfman Youth Fellowship, and the Tikvah High School Program. She spent a gap year at Midreshet Lindenbaum, interned for the organization Ayeka, has been a madricha for the Drisha High School Program, and Rosh Beit Midrash for Camp Stone. Sofia has been involved in her local Hillel as a Student Leader and Multifaith Chaplaincy Intern. While in the Core Semikha program at Yeshivat Maharat, Sofia is also pursuing a masters degree in Jewish Philosophy at the Bernard Revel Graduate School of Yeshiva University.

Shalosh Seudot D’var Torah with Rabbi Aryeh Klapper
"Who Gets A Seat on the Messianic Sanhedrin?"

MORAH DEBORAH KLAPPER is a literacy-focused Torah educator who enjoys thinking about big-picture interpretations of Tanach narratives. After many years as a classroom teacher and school administrator, Morah Klapper is now a full-time tutor, teaching adults and children to read and understand the texts of our tradition independently, so they can form their own relationships with Hashem and truly inherit their heritage. Her international tutoring practice ranges in a typical week from alef-bet to Tanach to Talmud to Yoreh Deah. She holds a bachelor’s degree from Harvard College and a certificate from the Drisha Scholars’ Circle. She lives and works in Sharon, MA.

RABBI ARYEH KLAPPER is a halakhic authority and thought-leader who serves as Dean of the Center for Modern Torah Leadership (CMTL) and as Cofounder of the Boston Agunah Task Force. He previously served as Orthodox Rabbinic Advisor at Harvard Hillel, Talmud Curriculum Chair at Maimonides High School, Instructor of Rabbinics and Medical Ethics at Gann Academy, and Senior Dayan on the Boston Beit Din. Rabbi Klapper’s scholarship and advocacy shape Orthodox discourse and practice on issues as varied as mental health, financial aid policy, women’s Torah study, journalism, political theory, military ethics, labor ethics, and agunah prevention. As Rosh Beit Midrash of CMTL’s Summer Beit Midrash, he has helped an astounding array of men and women develop into halakhic scholars and Torah leaders. His new book Divine Will and Human Experience: Explorations of the Halakhic System and Its Values is available on Amazon. You can sign up for his weekly Torah essays at torahleadership.org and follow him on the podcast Taking Responsibility for Torah.
Hospitality at ASBI—Become a Host!

ASBI is deeply committed to the mitzvah of Hachnasat Orchim (Hospitality). A lot of our hospitality offerings had to be paused during the pandemic, but we are once again having hospitality requests and are now looking for hosts!

Guests seeking hospitality include visitors passing through Lakeview, families contemplating a move to our neighborhood, and members of the community who are interested in spending a meal with others.

We are excited for both new and veteran hosts to step forward. Please let us know if you are comfortable hosting meals or overnight guests by filling out a quick survey here.

Anyone who hosts a guest referred to them by the Hospitality Committee can claim a challah and/or bottle of wine from the shul!

Dedications and Donations

Anshe Sholom B’nai Israel Congregation is indebted to Judge Abraham Lincoln Marovitz, a’h, for his generosity to the synagogue and to the Marovitz Scholarship Fund.
The George Kranzler Library of Judaic Classics is donated in loving memory of Mr. George Kranzler by the Kranzler and Saltzman families.
The Learning Center was dedicated on 29 Av 5761 in memory of Rose and Dr. Abe Aaronson who inspired us in learning and charity.
There is a sense of wholeness and artistic integrity in our sanctuary, thanks to our beautiful stained-glass windows on the east wall, dedicated in memory of Bernard Preis, a’h.
The windows on the south wall are dedicated in memory of George Friedman, a’h.
The Louis A. Lerner Institute of Torah Texts sponsors all of the Torah text classes at ASBI.
The Shabbat HaGadol Shiur is endowed in memory of Dr. Leonard Kranzler, a’h.
