MEN’S MIKVAH HOURS

It is customary for men to go to the mikvah (ritual bath) as a form of symbolic cleansing and elevation before Yom Kippur. Our Adam R. Straus Memorial Mikvah will be open for men to use from 7:45 – 10:30 AM on Tuesday, October 4. No appointment is necessary but there is a $22 fee for mikvah use. Men are requested to bring their own towel.

Any women who would like to immerse before Yom Kippur are requested to use the regular women's hours during the weeknights. Women should email mikvah.asbi@gmail.com to make an appointment at least 48 hours in advance.

Hakhel: The Art of the Mitzvah of Gathering
October 1 at 11:45 AM

SHABBAT SHUVA SHIUR WITH RABBI WOLKENFELD

In ancient times, the entirety of the Jewish people were encouraged to gather in Jerusalem to hear the Torah being read over Sukkot after a shemitah year such as this one. We will think together about what this mitzvah accomplished and how it can inspire and guide our own gatherings and feelings of communal unity.

ASBI Town Hall Meeting

Our shul will soon begin the search process for a new Rabbi. Prior to a formal search, we are seeking input from as broad a representation of our community as possible. We are hoping to learn more about our fellow members’ visions and hopes for the direction of the shul and for the upcoming rabbinic search. To facilitate this process, we have formed an Engagement committee (members: Matt Altman, Charles Abrams, Donnie Phillips, Alex Singer, Sara Singer, and Irene Sandalow). We hope those of you who have not been able to join either of our first Town Hall meetings will attend our final meeting, happening via Zoom:

- Saturday, October 1st, at 8:15 PM on Zoom
  (click here; Meeting ID: 924 897 9279, Passcode: 540)

While we strongly encourage your participation in the town hall meetings, if you are unable to do so but still would like to provide your input, please email us at engagement@asbi.org. In addition, please feel free to reach out to any of us individually if you have questions or concerns.
