YOM KIPPUR APPEAL 5782

The Yom Kippur appeal is ASBI's most important fundraising effort of the year.

We invite everyone to participate - every contribution makes a difference!

CONTRIBUTE NOW AT ASBI.ORG/YKA

THE SHUL SUKKAH IS YOUR SUKKAH!

Feel free to bring any (nut-free) food with you to eat and enjoy! Please do not share any food with people who are not members of your own household unless the food meets the ASBI Community Standards for kashrut.

The Sukkah will be open 24 hours a day. Even when there is a reservation-only event taking place, there will be room for you to sit and eat your own food.

Feel the Divine Presence as you enjoy friendship, community, and food! Hag Same'ah!

Please note: the shul kitchen is NOT your kitchen. The kitchen is only for ASBI staff and volunteers preparing food for ASBI programming and meals.

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS SUKKOT POTLUCKS SEPTEMBER 20 THROUGH 28

These are one of our favorite events of the year, so we're excited that after a long hiatus, the ASBI YP Sukkot potlucks are back!

We'll be hosting all Yom Tov and Shabbat meals from the 1st day through Shmini Atzeret.

Please note:

- By default, meals will be meat, unless they are labeled as dairy
- All food must be nut-free & be made to ASBI community standards
- Rain location is indoors in the shul's social hall. You MUST be fully vaccinated to eat indoors.
- Bring your games!

Sign up at asbi.org/event/yp-potlucks. There are tabs for each meal.

WOMEN'S SIMCHAT TORAH READING WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 10:30 AM

Simchat Torah is always a lovely moment for women in our shul to come together to celebrate our relationship to the Torah and honor the contributions of women to our ASBI community. This year, we will be offering aliyot in three stations spread out around the main sanctuary. All women over bat mitzvah age are welcome to receive aliyot, or read from the Torah.

Thank you to the leyners who have already volunteered to read aliyot as needed. If you would like to read an aliyah or individual verses, please contact Rabbanit Goldie (rabbanit@asbi.org).

There are also opportunities to sign up for logistical support for the reading. We hope you will join and participate!

SIMCHAT TORAH POST-HAKAFOT ICE CREAM HAPPY HOUR

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 9:30 PM

AT WINDY CITY SWEETS (3308 N. BROADWAY)

Celebrate with ASBI at Windy City Sweets with a free scoop of ice cream for ASBI Members, sponsored by ASBI!

HELP ASBI SUPPORT AFGHAN REFUGEES

Contribute at asbi.org/refugees and help us reach our goal of $2,500!

HIAS

Welcome the stranger.
Protect the refugee.

Women's Tefillah Bat Mitzvah Shabbat Parshat Bereshit 5782

Next Shabbat, October 2, ASBI will convene a "Women's Tefillah" Torah reading, by and for women, to celebrate the Bat Mitzvah of Liat Gorlin. Men are invited as supportive spectators only.

Following a conventional Shacharit in the main shul, the conventional Keriat HaTorah will relocate to the Social Hall for Torah reading. The congregation will then reconvene in the main shul for Mussaf (lead by a man).
