On May 14, 1948, David Ben Gurion, declared the establishment of the State of Israel. Today, 71 years later, Jews throughout the world celebrate this day and this event with joy and gratitude. In 1948, May 14th was the 5th day of the month of Iyar and in Israel Independence Day is observed according to the Jewish calendar. (This year it will be observed on the 4th of Iyar because the 5th is a Friday and such observances are moved up one day so as not to interfere with Shabbat.)

As Jews, we are taught that every day should be thought of as a blessing from God. This holds true for us personally as it does for us as a people and for our State. This year, Israel's 71st carries forth this theme because the word associated with the number 71 (the gematria) is Mei-El, from God. When we look at Israel, we see challenges, but we also see blessing. We see miracles unfold before us through the way Israeli citizens invest in their country: its agriculture, its science, its technology, its defense and its struggle to meet the needs of all its citizens and residents. Israel benefits greatly from God’s blessings and for this the entirety of the Jewish people should be grateful.

At Congregation B’nai Zion, we are truly grateful for the blessings that the modern State of Israel affords our world. We are grateful to those who stand in the defense of Israel. We are grateful to those who serve as her leaders, advisors and counselors. We are thankful to those who represent Israel and advocate for her and her wellbeing throughout the world. We are grateful to her citizens who invest their hearts and souls and minds in advancing her abilities and reputation through their God-given knowledge and ability.

Israel at 71 reminds us to be grateful and in this very spirit, the theme of our Annual Membership meeting, to be held on May 14, 2019, is going to be gratitude. Gratitude for the people who assure Israel’s existence, gratitude for the people who assure our community’s existence, gratitude to all those who give of themselves to enrich the Jewish lives of others in El Paso and beyond. I hope you will join us as we celebrate another year in the life of our sacred community and another year in the life of our beloved State of Israel.

Rabbi Scott Rosenberg
The birthdate of the State of Israel is May 14, 1948, but the citizens of the new state of Israel did not have the opportunity to vote in the first election to form a government until January 1949. This year on May 14, we at B’nai Zion have the opportunity to come together as a community to honor the brave founders who had a vision to create the future of Israel and to vote and act together to create the future of B’nai Zion.

Realizing the dream of the state of Israel was an incredible accomplishment. We all know the many obstacles that stood in its path and yet the Jewish people of the region and the world fought to make it a reality. While the challenges we face at B’nai Zion may be on a vastly different scale, they are of incredible importance to what the future will mean for our congregation.

At the Annual Meeting this year, we will not just be voting in the new Board of Directors, but we will also be honoring those volunteers who have gone “above and beyond” in their commitment and actions in support of B’nai Zion. At the same time, we will be giving all of you the opportunity to step up your engagement and volunteer participation in the coming year, with the recognition that it will take all of us working together to create a successful and lasting institution.

Sincerely yours,

-Shane Lipson

Executive Director's Message

It is noteworthy that this year’s Annual Meeting of the Congregation is on May 14, the day that, in 1948, Israel was declared a state. It Takes a Village to Build a State. The dream to build a modern State of Israel became a reality when volunteers shared a common vision and worked to bring that vision to life. In fact, according to the National Council of Volunteering in Israel, Israel may be regarded to be the result of a very successful voluntary effort. Visionaries from Theodor Herzl, who is credited with founding political Zionism in the late 19th century, to the Jewish Legion, a group of volunteers who in 1918 assisted in the British conquest of Palestine, and the Haganah, which was formed in 1920, spent years, lifetimes, working to bring their dream of an Israeli state to life. Later, in the late 1940’s, volunteers stepped up for the defense of Israel as Machal, volunteers from outside Israel, helped build the Israeli Air Force, provided support to the Israeli Navy and served the Israeli Army. Machalniks participated in virtually every aspect of military operations lending their expertise and risking their lives for the cause they believed in.

Today, 71 years after Israel first celebrated its statehood and more than 120 years after the movement to create a Jewish state was born, Israel continues to thrive in a culture of volunteerism. Its website, iVolunteer, states almost one third of all Israelis are volunteers. There are more than 24,000 active volunteer organizations in Israel. Together, Israel’s volunteers ensure there will continue to be a homeland for us to love, support and come home to whether for brief visits or to live forever.

It Also Takes a Village to Build A Synagogue. Prior to 1900, there was no organized Jewish congregation in El Paso. Lay leaders conducted minyan and holiday services at a variety of locations, but they had no official home or congregation. Then, in 1910, a group of dreamers held a meeting and founded Congregation B’nai Zion. In the course of our history, since then, hundreds of synagogue volunteers have come forward to see to every aspect of running a synagogue and willingly took whatever action was necessary to meet the needs of the growing population of Conservative Jews in the El Paso area.

To this day, our synagogue is run by a volunteer board and a number of committees, each with a specific purpose and goal, and each comprised of volunteers. Our volunteers, nearly 120 years after B’nai Zion was founded, are still working toward the common vision of insuring that B’nai Zion, the only Conservative synagogue in the Southwest Region, continues to thrive and serve our membership.

The reality is, that absent volunteers, people dedicated to the shared vision, people who selflessly give their time, expertise and talent to the common goal, neither Israel nor B’nai Zion would exist today. How apropos that at our Annual Meeting on May 14, Israel’s 71st anniversary, B’nai Zion will honor and thank those who volunteer at our synagogue.

Please plan to attend the Annual Meeting of the Congregation of B’nai Zion on Tuesday, May 14, at 6:45 pm as we recognize our volunteers and demonstrate our sincere appreciation for everything they do.

Looking forward to seeing you there,

-Debra Pazos
Executive Director
Well, I can’t believe the time has come to say good-bye. Over the past two years as Sisterhood President, I have been grateful to serve my “Sisters,” Congregation B’nai Zion and the El Paso community. This opportunity has allowed me to develop new relationships and strengthen others. However, before we revisit the past, let’s wrap up the present.

Between Purim and Passover, Sisterhood members attended cultural events and were involved in tikvah olam activities. The joint Book Review in March served as the venue for an announcement about Federation’s community-wide literary program to begin over the summer.

In April, our art project kicked off Spring design efforts. Yet, Sisterhood still made time to participate in Good Deeds Day through Villa Maria (women’s shelter) and sponsor BZUSY/Kadima’s Chocolate Seder. Even though we had participated last year in Good Deeds Day, this time it was even more significant.

Again, Sisterhood assisted at Villa Maria through cooking and serving dinner. However, there was a single person who inspired us all. This woman’s past must have been traumatic, but it did not negatively impact her outlook. Beyond the prosthetic limbs and visible scars, her smile was even brighter. She contributed along with all the other women. By seeing her without limitations, it helped me understand that our inner spirit can be stronger than physical strength. These are moments in which I gain more from mitzvot than I give.

Likewise, BZUSY/Kadima’s Chocolate Seder provided a similar experience. Sisterhood sponsored the Chocolate Seder to empower and unite our youth. BZUSY/Kadima planned and executed the program for themselves along with Talmud Torah students. As you can tell, it was very successful with even Elijah joining our Seder. Everyone enjoyed themselves and were actively involved throughout the service, especially in finding the “afikomen.” It was wonderful to witness the pure joy that children share. This was another moment in which I gained more from mitzvot than I gave.

Now, in May, Sisterhood moves forward towards the 100th anniversary year under new leadership. The future is bright and offers us many more opportunities to assist Congregation B’nai Zion, College Connection, BZUSY, Kadima, Talmud Torah yet most importantly our “Sisters.” Please plan to attend the Annual Meeting and a Joint CBZ Installation in May. Thereafter in June, Sisterhood will help you with your “holiday” gifts throughout the service, especially in finding the “afikomen.”

Words cannot express my gratitude to everyone who joined me on this Sisterhood journey during my presidency. As mentioned with other mitzvot, I gained more than I gave. ‘Thank you for your support, kind words and Sisterhood.

In Sisterhood,
-Debbie Cohen

I find people surprised when they learn the variety of programs our community supports at CBZ. From social to spiritual, educational, and musical, if you aren’t reading the entire weekly eblast to find events to attend, you are missing out.

Just in the last few months, here is a sampling of our programming:

*) Weekly Dance classes
*) Adult education “On One Foot” and “Synagogue Skills”
*) Social action, weekly making sandwiches for those in need
*) Israeli speakers (Yoram Ettinger, as an example)
*) Themed Shabbat dinners (Ethiopian was the last one, and more to come)
*) Casino night
*) Purim celebration with prizes
*) Weekly Torah study
*) Joint EPJA, Talmud Torah, TMS Religious School Channukah program
*) Monthly Jews Chews for teens with Rabbi Rosenberg
*) Numerous programs run by Sisterhood
*) Community Pesach Seder

In March, we kicked off a new Junior Congregation service led by Alex Sosa on the first and third Saturdays of each month from 10:30-11 am. The service is for children aged 5 and up and uses a wonderful new children's prayer book that B’nai Zion purchased in January. In addition, the first Friday night of each month Rabbi Rosenberg is leading a Family Service from 5:45 to 6:15 pm followed by an oneg before the traditional service begins at 6:45. My family and I have attended and greatly enjoyed both new service formats, and we look forward to them being a regular part of our schedule.

In April and May, our congregation shared in the experience of Zachery Fraker’s Bar Mitzvah and Alyssa Madero’s Bat Mitzvah. Being a part of these meaningful events reminds us of why our institution exists and the gratifying results of teaching our children to share a love of Judaism, Torah and study.

Rabbi Rosenberg’s leadership has also allowed us to win a partial grant for a Jewish book series and author visits in El Paso. Stay tuned for the unique program, never seen before in El Paso.

Coming up on May 14th is the B’nai Zion Annual Membership meeting at 6:45 pm, when we will meet to review the year’s accomplishments, elect the new Board and make plans for the upcoming year. Time has flown by since last May and we have had many positive changes that we look forward to continuing to build on. Congregation B’nai Zion exists because of you and is here for you as we move ahead together.
