Congregation B’nai Zion, B’nai Zion Sisterhood
and B’nai Zion USY are all beneficiaries of Jewish Federation of Greater El Paso

The great Jewish philosopher, Martin Buber, speaks of two types of relationships. One of them, he calls an I-It relationship and the other, he calls an I-Thou relationship. I-It relationships are ones in which people look upon each other as little more than “its.” An example is when one says “have a nice day” or “how are you,” but is not really interested in your day or in how you are doing. In contrast, an I-Thou relationship is one in which people try to form deep connections and see the sacred image of God in one another.

During the months of August and September I have had and will continue to have the pleasure of meeting many of you, my new congregation. I have had the pleasure of spending time with the United Synagogue Youth chapter here at B’nai Zion. I have also had the wonderful experience of attending an awards ceremony for our Boy Scout troop. At services I have had the opportunity to speak, to pray, and to study Torah with many of you. On September 11, we will have the Talmud Torah open house and at that time I will also have the opportunity to meet many of you. Working with the board and its various committees as well as our office leadership has afforded me the opportunity to get to know many of you.

“Getting to know” events are an opportunity to form I-Thou relationships, relationships that really matter and are meaningful. It is fully my goal to form strong and binding relationships with the members of our community and to be able to serve you as your rabbi to the fullest extent possible.

Rabbi Royi Shaffin
As always, the staff at B’nai Zion has been burning the midnight oil. This past month we have seen so many new and exciting programs. In August, we welcomed Rabbi Royi Israel Shaffin and we transitioned Rabbi Leon to Emeritus status.

Even with all of the changes, we continue to increase the level of services we provide to our congregants. Recently, Rabbi Shaffin asked that we tend to the Mikvah, and we did. I am not sure if everyone understands how fortunate we are to have a Mikvah and a Kosher kitchen.

Coming up on Sept. 11th, we have our Talmud Torah Open House with a meet and greet with Rabbi Shaffin. Everyone is invited. On Sept. 16th, we have the Tex-Mex Shabbat Dinner. On the 18th, we have a Sisterhood luncheon. The guest will be Shoshanna Shaffin. Adult education has once again begun and our classes are in our library.

We have a lot of exciting events coming up in the near future and we look forward to seeing each and every one of you participate.

As always, we are looking for volunteers and sponsors for our upcoming events. We have scheduled events and programs through the next year. Soon we will be posting a full schedule on our website and new to B’nai Zion, we will be publishing an event guide.

And remember CBZ is the place to be!

Ken Kahn

How the time flies! Summer is over, kids are back in school and the High Holidays begin in a month! With all these things going on and more, why worry about cooking for Shabbat? Let B’nai Zion do the cooking for you! Our “Shabbat Meals To Go Program” kicks off for September allowing you some leisure time on the month’s first Shabbat! Call the office to place your order today!

Many new and exciting changes are occurring. A new series of adult education classes have begun. Contact the Shul office for more details.

For the younger crowd, on September 11th, B’nai Zion will hold a Talmud Torah open house. All parents are encouraged to attend. This is an opportunity to meet Rabbi Shaffin and discuss the Talmud Torah’s goals for the coming year. (Along with a special treat!)

On the social frontier, B’nai Zion’s Sisterhood will be hosting a membership luncheon Sunday, September 18th in the Friedman Social Hall. The featured speaker will be Shoshana Shecter-Shaffin.

September 23 brings us to another themed Shabbat dinner! This Shabbat will be a Tex-Mex theme. Come dressed as your favorite cowboy or cantina character!

And September concludes with Yom Hashir, Day of Song on September 25th. This year Yom Hashir will take place at Keystone Heritage Park/El Paso Botanical Gardens featuring Jewish Blues Music! Make your plans to attend!

Got a great idea for a program? Always remember you have the ability to have a positive impact upon our community by planning a program. Please call the office with your ideas!

I hope to see you at one of our coming events!

-Alan Cohen
Sisterhood President’s Message for August 2016

Already September has arrived and we look forward to the all of the changes this brings. Children are back in school, vacations are mostly behind us, and we look forward to the coming High Holidays.

Sisterhood had a busy summer season. The Honey from the Heart sales were great, raising monies for Sisterhood to continue its contributions to both USY and Talmud Torah. Of course, we also had plenty to keep us busy making sure our synagogue’s kosher kitchens are up and running. Some repairs were made to the gas lines into the meat kitchen to ensure all equipment would be able to be used. Repairs were made to several pieces of equipment, including our ice maker. It seems that Sisterhood will be buying a new ice maker in the near future, a very expensive piece of equipment! Many thanks to Monica Kupetz and Ken Kahn for their help in scheduling and watching over the repairs.

We are in the midst of our Sisterhood membership drive. Membership information was mailed in August. We will be having a membership brunch on Sunday, September 18. At that event, we will formally welcome Shoshanna Shaffin to El Paso and to our Sisterhood. She will also be the featured speaker at that event.

Annalie Rollins, Sisterhood Vice President for Programming, is planning a busy year for Sisterhood, with an event planned for every month. Rabbi Shaffin has agreed to help us host our “Evening in the Sukkah with the Rabbi.” Join us this year for our membership brunch, the evening in the sukkah, and so much more!

In Sisterhood,

Patty Hutman

Yom HaShir

Day of Song: Jewish Blues and More at Keystone Heritage Park Botanical Gardens on Sunday, September 25th

By Kristin Kimmelman

Saul Kaye will bring his unique blend of Jewish blues to El Paso for an outdoor performance hosted by Congregation B’nai Zion at Keystone Heritage Park Botanical Gardens on Sunday, September 25. Saul was selected to be the headliner for the first Yom HaShir (Day of Song) after a diverse group of music enthusiasts listened to 10 candidates. Saul has released CDs of various musical styles since the late 1990s, but he eventually found his calling when he pursued an idea that wouldn’t leave him alone—the natural marriage of Jewish history, characters, and liturgy with the blues. He continued on this path of Jewish blues and recently released Jewish Blues Volume IV.

In addition to Saul’s blues performance, local musicians will perform both original and classic Jewish music before and after Saul’s 3pm headline set. You can also take advantage of the stunning Botanical Gardens—tours will be offered at 2pm and 4pm—or you can explore the Gardens on your own (just stay on the paths). Game stations will be sprinkled throughout the Gardens for those who are content with the music as background for other activities, and the Gardens has a children’s corner with a maze and sandbox. The entrance is free, thanks to a grant from the Jewish Federation of Greater El Paso and to contributions from people who attended the Lag Ba’Omer fundraising concert, but sponsorships are available. Contact Kristin Kimmelman, kristinkimmelman@gmail.com, about sponsorship opportunities.

SHOFAR ACROSS BORDERS

SHOFAR A TRAVES DE LA FRONTERA

ﺷׁוֹפָר על הגבולות
This photography exhibit featured the works of four Jewish photographers of the Southwest and ran from July 17th through August 12th. Photographs from David Sabal, Edward “Doobie” Dubowitz, Donald Scharf, and Peter Svarzbein were on display and on sale in the social hall. Displayed were works covering nature studies, fashion, sports, statement photos, creative explorations in the Polaroid SX-70 media, candid and formal color and black & white portraits, and architecture.

Edward “Doobie” Dubowitz developed a passion for photography at an early age and was privileged to meet and learn from Gilbert Cadena, who helped launch his career as a professional photographer. Among the photos featured in the show were a series featuring bees. The pictures were made at a time when he was the primary caregiver for his mother who was suffering from Alzheimer’s. Unable to leave her alone, Doobie would take his mother out to her backyard and take pictures of her roses and the bees that would visit them.

David Sabal’s passion for making pictures led him to work and study in Europe and in New York City where he cultivated his craft under the mentorship of various well-known established photographers. His images have been published worldwide and reside in the permanent collections of galleries and museums both domestically and internationally and have won numerous photo competitions and awards. He serves a global clientele and continues to teach photography and creativity workshops as a guest lecturer at both the high school and university levels. On display were explorations in the Polaroid media as well as large Cibachrome prints.

Don Scharf apprenticed for his photographer father at their home in Brooklyn, NY where he worked in his darkroom developing film and making black & white prints. Today he works in the lightroom, the realm of the digital image, and creates color and black & white portraits and environmental studies.

Peter Svarzbein earned his MFA from the School of Visual Arts in New York, attended an esteemed workshop in photojournalism, and is the recipient of several distinguished awards in photography. He describes himself as a photographer, curator, and disruptive media specialist. He has exhibited photographic work and video installations both nationally and internationally, and received a grant for a recent installation that was featured on NPR. His client list includes magazines, institutions, and corporations, and he has lectured at several prestigious universities. Work for this show included a series of portraits.

The photographers were available to discuss their work as well as their techniques, tricks of the trade, and the meanings behind their pieces. All photographs were available for purchase with 50% of the proceeds generously donated by the artists to Congregation B’nai Zion. The show ran through August 12th and included weekly photo workshops on various topics for children, the elderly, and for the general public, taught by the exhibitors.
