CONGREGATION B’NAI ZION PRESENTS

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Shabbat Celebration

WEAR YOUR RED, WHITE, & BLUES

FRIDAY, JUNE 29TH / 6:15 PM
Fi/f_t y years ago, on June 9, 1968, my beautiful wife Sharon and I entered into the holy covenant of marriage at Congregation Rodeph Sholom, Bridgeport, Connecticut. In addition to my father, Cantor David Leon, of blessed memory, several rabbis and cantors co-officiated at the ceremony. Even though a half-century has passed since that sacred event, I can still remember every detail of that joyous occasion as if it happened yesterday.

Sharon has been at my side as my beloved life’s companion through all of the experiences of life that we have shared as one unit, even though we each have our own careers, our own interests, our own personalities. Together we have experienced the miracle of the births of three daughters, Shoshana, Rachel, and Rebekah, the blessed marriage of Rebekah and David, and the overwhelming joy of being grandparents to our incredible grandchildren, Daniel, Jordyn, and Emme. With the sharing of happy events, we have also dealt with tragedy, including the loss of Sharon’s parents, Florence and Eddie, my parents, Toby and David, and most recently the most difficult of all, the death of our beloved daughter, Rachel, this past Yom Kippur. I am grateful to God that I have been so fortunate to have had at my side my love and my best friend, Sharon, who has been a source of affection, compassion, strength, integrity, joy and devotion for these 50 years. I look forward to all of our future experiences in life as we continue our journey together.

Throughout these five decades, we have travelled all over the world fulfilling the challenge of completing our “bucket list” while our health allows us to do so. We have been on two safaris; we have visited the pyramids of Egypt; we have gone to Antarctica, Spain, Portugal, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, most of the United States including Mt. Rushmore, Germany, Czech Republic, and Hungary, and even more. By the way, we had to go to Budapest, because, as Sharon tells everyone, “I am Hungarian, you know.”

Of all of the places that we have been to, Israel is our favorite. In fact, our first visit as a couple was on our honeymoon, some 50 years ago. Although I had been to Israel for one year following my high school graduation in 1962, I had been denied the privilege of praying at the Western Wall or visiting any of the synagogues in the Old City of Jerusalem because they were in Jordanian hands and they would not allow Jews to visit our holy places. This religious prohibition enacted by Jordan had a profound effect on me. Our honeymoon, however, was one year after the Six Day War, and now that Jerusalem was united in 1967, Sharon and I had the honor of praying at the Kotel and visiting the holy places that had been denied to me 6 years before. Of course, I now understand why Jordan had denied these religious rights to the Jewish people. You see, every single synagogue in the old city had been razed to the ground; hotels were built upon Jewish cemeteries, and the Western Wall had been used as a latrine for King Hussein’s horses.

Once you see with your own eyes what Sharon and I saw 50 years ago, you will understand why Jerusalem can never be separated from the Jewish people again. While the Israeli government and the Jewish people have protected all of the holy places of Christians, Muslims, Bahai and every other religion, this has not been the case when others have had that responsibility. Although there are very strong feelings on both sides regarding the decision to move the United States Embassy to Jerusalem and to recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel, I firmly not only support this decision but am extremely proud of our country for having done this.

This doesn’t mean that I am not sensitive to the hopes and aspirations of those non-violent peaceful Palestinians who would like their own state. It is the terrorist leadership of their own Palestinian people who call for the destruction of Israel who are at fault. Perhaps after the initial shock, that finally after 2000 years and more recently after 70 years, that Jerusalem is and always will be the capital of Israel, a more reasonable, peaceful Palestinian leadership will emerge and be willing to sit down and have serious talks with Israel about what it will take to have mutual recognition and the end of violence.

On behalf of my wife and family, I hope that during the upcoming summer months we will continue to come to synagogue services more regularly as some will be away on vacation; that when we travel we will make a commitment to visit Israel; and that we will be more appreciative and loving to one another, to our spouses, our children, grandchildren, family and friends.

-Rabbi Stephen A. Leon

B’nai Zion adopts a new Code of Conduct

Congregation B’nai Zion

Code of Conduct

Do what is right and good in the sight of the Eternal. Deuteronomy 6:18

It is the responsibility of members of Congregation B’nai Zion to ensure that the synagogue is an ethical stronghold in all its pursuits and dealings. Members should be guided by kedushah (holiness) in promoting the synagogue’s mission of sustaining Judaism. Their role is that of “managing the sacred,” by bringing vision, wisdom and dedication to their commitment to our holy Congregation. Members enter into a brit kodesh (sacred covenant).

Members of Congregation B’nai Zion, as well as those who attend Congregation B’nai Zion services, classes, and other events, are expected to adhere to the following principles:

Expectations
• Gain spiritual and personal growth
• Serve as role models
• Act as advocates and positive spokespersons for the synagogue
• Embrace tzedakah (righteous action)

Accountability
• Uphold Jewish values such as fairness, Derech Eretz (respectful engagement), mutual respect, sensitivity and openness
• Act with personal honesty and integrity
• Preserve the dignity of the synagogue, its members and those who serve it
• Support the daily work of the Congregation and its leadership
• Maintain a safe and welcoming environment

Communication and Confidentiality
• Refrain from breaking the Jewish laws of lashon harah (idle gossip or slanderous talk)
• Respect the privacy of others
• Communicate openly and truthfully
• Express constructively, and to the appropriate party, any discussions of policy, positions, programs or individuals
• Ensure that disagreement relates only to principles and priorities, not personalities

Respect for Others
• Ensure that everyone involved in synagogue life is treated with kavod (respect)
• Enable those who are connected with synagogue life to reach their highest potential
• Teach that all are created B’tzelem Elohim (in the image of God) and that being a Jew is an honor and a privilege
• Remember and remind others that the goal is unity, not uniformity
• Ensure that boundaries, prerogatives and expertise are respected

By living a committed Jewish life, each of us can improve while contributing to tikun olam (repair of the world).

Adopted by the Board of Directors on May 1, 2018.

Strategic Plan Process Kicks Off

It is clear that big changes are in store for B’nai Zion. New leadership was elected at our Annual Meeting, there will soon be a change in our rabbinic leadership and, now, one more positive change is in the works.

The Core Strategic Planning Committee, led by former Synagogue President Myer Lipson, is comprised of Past President Cliff Eisenberg, Past President Jerry Rubin, Past President Cesar Carrasco, Current Vice President Kristin Kimmelman and ex officio members Shane Lipson, Board President, and Debra Pazos, Executive Director. The Committee met once in May and will begin holding regular meetings this summer to outline what needs to be done to develop a Short- and Long-Term Strategic Plan for B’nai Zion. Additional volunteers will be added to the team to provide diversity and inclusiveness input to the Strategic Plan and lead the subcommittees that will eventually execute every facet of the plan that will lead our synagogue to its brightest, most vibrant chapter in its 117 years.

Watch for information and updates on the Strategic Planning Committee’s progress and, please, plan to lend a hand when you’re called upon to work with us. This is your synagogue. Let’s make the future happen together!
Executive Director's Message

It's a great time to be a member of Congregation B'nai Zion. Look at the amazing things we've done in the year since our last annual meeting:

- Perhaps most notable, we improved our financial position:
  - We closed the 2016-2017 fiscal year in the black
  - We have the potential — and I know we will with your support — to close the 2017-2018 fiscal year in the black, as well
  - We deposited $25,000 into our endowment fund and, to date, have not had to make any withdrawals
  - We're confident 2018-2019 will be even stronger

- We improved operations by:
  - Negotiating lower telephone and internet service rates
  - Insuring our creditors don't bill us sales tax and getting refunds from those who did
  - Working with El Paso Water Utilities to adjust our rates
  - Saving thousands of dollars annually from all of the above

- We implemented process improvements and introduced efficiencies such as:
  - Creating communications templates
  - Installing equipment that allows us to deposit check payments at the office
  - Streamlining Messenger production to insure it reaches mailboxes on a timely basis (thanks to Edward "Doobie" Dubowitz and H&H Dinero for working with us on this)

- We put additional emphasis on Member Relations striving to be what you need, when you need it:
  - Responding to your requests quickly with correct and complete information
  - Recognizing significant events such as the New Member Welcome during our Chanukah dinner in December and coordinating the Chai Five Celebration honoring community members
  - Providing added value services such as selling hamentashen at a reasonable price and partnering with the El Paso Jewish Academy to create a fun and unique Purim celebration

While we did not meet our fundraising goals and will not, therefore, be able to change our dues cycle this year, I remain optimistic. I may have been too ambitious by trying to get this done in one year, but we'll continue to work toward adjusting our dues year in the not too distant future.

On a much brighter note, I am thrilled to be working with our newly established Strategic Planning Committee. This committee will create a plan that provides for both the short-term and the long-term.

I am also pleased to be working with our recently elected Board of Directors. I am confident that with this group of dedicated and energetic volunteers at the helm we will see many more positive changes at B’nai Zion.

Wishing you a wonderful summer,

-Debra Pazos

President’s Message

Shalom. Fellow congregants, friends and acquaintances, officers and members of the Board, I have chosen, for personal reasons, not to seek a second term as President of B’nai Zion, and thus, this is my farewell message, as President, to the Congregation. I thank you all for the opportunity you have given me to serve you and to make a difference in our Congregation. Much has happened over the last year and I pray that those events have been and will continue to be an inspiration for the greater good of our community.

I wish to thank our Executive Director and her entire staff and my fellow officers and board members for their counsel, cooperation, and energies in the management of our shul and for making it the spiritual and social center of our community, a bastion of the values of Conservative Judaism, and a mainstay in the steadfast dedication to Israel. The dialogues and debates we had assisted in refining our ideas and creating better outcomes. I am grateful to Rabbi Leon for reminding us that, although running a synagogue is running a business, we ultimately serve a higher purpose.

As I step down from this office and become the Immediate Past President, and Shane Lipson ascends to the Presidency, I ask you to support him and the new Board of Directors that we will presently propose to you. Support us not only with words; although congratulations, pats on the back, and well-wishes will be graciously accepted; but rather, support us with heartfelt action and a commitment to growth.

This is your synagogue; support it by doing. Support this place and these people by getting involved with the board and becoming a leader, by chairing or participating with committees, by stepping up to volunteering, by attending social and cultural events, and by helping out in any way you can. If you can give money, give money. If you cannot give money, give time. If you cannot give time, give us your creative thoughts and ideas that will help us gain new perspectives and broader insights into solutions to the challenges we face.

Support Congregation B’nai Zion by embracing a new Rabbi and by being open and receptive to new ideas and new styles. Support him or her by coming to services on Shabbat and on Holidays and by opening your hearts and minds to the possibility of uplifting joy and spirituality that can be found in our prayers and psalms and study of Torah. Help him or her to reach out to the greater community to include and involve the unaffiliated, the alienated, and the apathetic, and reach in to our congregation to engage all members of all ages in all cycles of their lives. Assist him or her in developing programs for life-long learning.

Congregation B’nai Zion was always very important to my father and when he died it became important to me. Coming to Shul and being active in this community is one of the ways that I honor my father. What does this place mean to you, to your spouse, to your family? I challenge you to turn that desire in each of our souls today to see Congregation B’nai Zion flourish and become a bright beacon for Judaism as we move into the future.

Shalom and thank you very much for all you do for our Shul.

Sincerely yours,

-David Sabal
After having served a year of my term, it is amazing to me how much we achieved! Sisterhood goals support our member's needs through varied programming, religious/cultural events, educational sessions and mitzvot projects. However, most importantly, we share a common desire to promote Sisterhood as our sisters have done for 98 years!

Please join us through a "Sentimental Journey" as we revisit our past and explore the future, June 3rd at 10:00 AM with brunch and Sisterhood. There is no charge to Mitzvah and Torah Sponsors. All Sisterhood members and supporters are welcome to attend for $18. During this Annual Meeting, I will present a review of our accomplishments and goals. As such, this is your opportunity to learn more about B'nai Zion Sisterhood. In addition, it is also the beginning of our Membership Drive. If you are interested as a new member or at the same or higher level of commitment, feel free to contact Sarah Williams (691-5044) or Debbie Cohen (249-6505).

Many of these monthly articles have been based on appeals- requests for support (financial or involvement) depending upon the needs at that time. Sisterhood is extremely grateful to everyone who "answered the call." It does "take a village" and the "village people" have spoken!! Thanks to all of you who have created a service tradition which endures. Collaborate with us and let's make memories together as Sisterhood continues to serve. Over the past 98 years, we have strengthened our Synagogue today!! Have a great summer!!

PS-If you want more simcha in your life, ask me about our summer planning discussions.
