As many of you are aware, I will be completing my contractual relationship as Rabbi Emeritus of Congregation B’nai Zion on July 31, 2019. It will be the conclusion of some thirty-three years that I have been with our synagogue. It has been a wonderful experience for me to work together with our Senior Rabbi Scott Rosenberg this past year and I feel that B’nai Zion is truly blessed to have him as your spiritual leader for many years to come.

Rabbi Rosenberg very generously offered me the opportunity to write the Rabbi’s message for this edition of the Messenger. With that in mind, I took another look at the Summer issue of The Messenger of 1986 when I was interviewed by the co-editors Wendy Siegel and Susan Eisen as I was welcomed to our congregation. I did this once before when I was being honored for my three decades as Rabbi of the synagogue a few years ago. As I look back at that interview I would like to review with you again my answers to some of their questions.

I was asked my “reason for becoming a Rabbi” and I answered that it was my father Cantor David J. Leon (of blessed memory) who “taught me the beauty of prayer and my love of Judaism” and I concluded by saying that “while so many of my peers were searching for answers for the problems of the world that I had found the most sensible answers in Judaism. It made sense to me that only Judaism could bring peace, justice and meaning to the world.” I can say that this has not changed for me and that my relationship with our students, teenagers, and those who have returned to Judaism from our community convinces me more than ever that this is still very true today.

When I was asked “What are my goals for B’nai Zion?” here are some of the answers I gave in 1986: “My goal for B’nai Zion is to have a synagogue where there are many and varied activities taking place which will stimulate and invite the involvement of all the members. I intend to have an exciting adult education program …..a course in beginners Hebrew, a basic course on what it means to be a Jew, etc. In addition, I would like to offer a Bar and Bat Mitzvah program for adults who have not had the opportunity to observe that milestone… …I intend to be involved with the Hebrew School, the Day School, U.S.Y. and Kadimah children so I get to know them all……but most important I want to see B’nai Zion as a synagogue which is active and inspiring, which is filled with warmth and compassion, which encourages children and adults to participate fully, which wants to learn and is moved to pray, which teaches the principles of visiting the sick, befriending the lonely, and consoling the bereaved. I would like B’nai Zion to be a place where all of us can find God.”

As I look back at these comments, I can say that I have really tried to accomplish these goals and have succeeded not completely, but to a great extent. For example, I did start an Adult B’nai Mitzvah class when I came and the first class had only three students. I continued with that program and have had over these 33 years approximately 150 adults who completed their Bar or Bat Mitzvah with me. That is significant when you realize that there are less than 300 family members of our synagogue today. Although I have not always reached my goals, I do feel that we did so much together which was very important. I hope and believe that I touched the hearts of our children in the Talmud Torah, EPJA and youth groups. I was with so many of you at times of “simchas” such as a brit, baby naming, Bar and Bat Mitzvah, weddings and birthdays. We also cried together at funerals and unveilings.

At the conclusion of the interview in 1986 I said that “I am very excited to come to B’nai Zion, I look forward to a long and fruitful relationship with the congregation. Together may we grow from strength to strength.” May I conclude my comments today by saying thanks to all of those who have supported me over these three decades, who have inspired me and touched my life, who have really cared for me and my family. I will remember those of you who really expressed compassion and genuine concern when my beloved parents passed away, Toby and Cantor David Leon. The loss of my beautiful and devoted daughter Rachel so suddenly on Yom Kippur in 2017, still affects me every day of my life and Sharon and I will ever be grateful to those who sincerely were with us and still are with us as we continue to deal with the magnitude of our loss.

I also thank all of my students both young and old who have taken classes with me, who have given me the opportunity to share my love for Judaism with them, and the many, many families who discovered their ancient Jewish roots and who have returned to Judaism as a result of my relationship with them. I thank my beautiful Sharon for her unconditional love and support during both satisfying and difficult times as the unenviable role of being the “Rabbi’s wife.” I thank my wonderful children Shoshana, and Rebekah who also have had to deal with the challenge of being the “Rabbi’s kids.” I have been blessed with three incredible grandchildren Daniel, Jordyn and Emme, who have grown with you, my congregants, and who bring me an appreciation for the miracle of God’s creation every day of my life.

As I conclude this chapter of my life and I look forward to new challenges and opportunities, I wish each and every member God’s blessings, good health and peace. Rather than conclude with “Shalom” (“good-bye”) I simply say “L’hitraot” (“until we meet again”).

Rabbi Stephen A. Leon
First and foremost, I want to extend my deepest and most heartfelt thank you. I want to thank you for being a member of Congregation B’nai Zion, for playing an active role in our synagogue, and for caring about the future of our congregation and Judaism.

A lot of you may not know me, but I have been a lifelong participant in this community. Almost three years ago, I was asked to participate in a photography exhibit hosted by CBZ. Shortly after that, I was asked to give the Messenger a facelift. Since then, with the help of our amazing and dedicated staff, we continue to deliver to you a new, informative, and dare I say it, exciting Messenger each and every month. A few months after that, Cesar Carrasco called me and asked me if I would consider being on the board. I jumped at the opportunity with excitement, wanting to do my part, much like many of you, to make this, our synagogue a better place for many generations to come. I write to you today, with the same excitement, as your president, ready and willing to continue making a difference.

In preparing for the annual meeting, I researched great speeches by great presidents. I looked for the words that would inspire each and every one of you to help us, your board of directors, to lead our congregation to be our place of worship L’dor V’dor, from generation to generation. And in doing so, I decided to take a slightly different approach.

As I am a lesser known president, I decided to see what other lesser known presidents had said, and found these words I want to share with you.

John Adams, the second president of the U.S. said “To be good, and to do good, is all we have to do.” To me that message is clear, concise and relevant. Our goal, as your board and as a community should be quite simply to be good to one another and to always do the right thing.

James Monroe, the fifth president of the U.S. said “It is by a thorough knowledge of the whole subject that [people] are enabled to judge correctly of the past and to give a proper direction to the future.” We must take a long look at our past and understand the roads our predecessors took to get here, so that we may give proper direction to the future of our beloved community.

William Henry Harrison, the ninth president, said “Times change, and we change with them.” That doesn’t mean we abandon our roots or traditions, but it does mean making the proper adjustments for these times-just like the changes our congregation adopted to our constitution at the annual meeting.

I leave you with my favorite quote from my research. John Quincy Adams, the sixth president said, “If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader.” I hope to be just that. I want to inspire all of us to dream of what this congregation should be, learn ways to achieve those dreams, and to become the synagogue in which generations to come will flourish.

Thank you once again for being an integral part of our community, and I look forward to getting to know each and every one of you better, so I may, in time not be one of the lesser known presidents of CBZ.

Sincerely yours,

Edward “Doobie” Dubowitz
It’s a great time to be a member of Congregation B’nai Zion. I know, that’s how I opened my remarks when I addressed the membership at the annual meeting last year, but I didn’t know then that things would be even better this year so I can’t help but repeat myself. In the year since our last annual meeting we’ve done amazing things.

- We hired Rabbi Rosenberg who:
  - through his d’vrei Torah, weekly parsha summaries, sermons and discussion has added contemporary relevancy to Torah and our traditions.
  - leads meaningful Shabbat and holiday services.
  - is guiding us as we modernize our approach to Conservative Judaism while maintaining strong ties to our tradition.
  - brought us innovative programming such as Jews Chews for teens, On One Foot for adults, and a new Junior Congregation program.

- We continued to strengthen our financial position:
  - this year, through the end of April we are operating within budget and, for the 2nd consecutive year, expect to close the fiscal year without drawing funds from our endowment.
  - we initiated a new Endowment Campaign that, with your support, will help insure our future into perpetuity.
  - we reestablished our Cemetery Perpetual Care Fund which is helping us cover the costs of cemetery maintenance reducing the need to tap operating funds.

- We added new programming and continued favorites such as:
  - the new and very successful Chavurah program.
  - Yom Hashir.
  - themed Shabbatot.

- We improved our Talmud Torah by:
  - implementing ShalomLearning, thanks to a very generous donor.
  - providing older students one-on-one lessons with Rabbi to expand their understanding of Judaism and improve their synagogue skills.
  - sending our teachers to a ShalomLearning conference that will enhance their skills and ultimately benefit our students.

- We remain focused on members and community by:
  - reaching out to welcome new families to El Paso and B’nai Zion and making them feel at home as new shul members.
  - activating a Social Action committee.
  - establishing a Security Committee to respond to the (sadly) changing environment for houses of worship.

As I look back over all that we have accomplished this past year, there is much to celebrate. There is one thread though that links all of our successes and truly demonstrates the vitality of our community. Our accomplishments would not have been as successful were it not for the more than 100 volunteers who served on some 21 committees and gave of themselves to the betterment of Congregation B’nai Zion. They committed to short-term projects and long-term committee work. They selflessly give their time, energy and talent. Our volunteers also support the office by folding letters, stuffing and addressing envelopes, and greeting visitors. They help manage kashrut in our kitchens, do the holy work of Chevrah Kadisha, deliver food trays, work on special projects and chair fundraisers.

The reality is, that without volunteers there wouldn’t be a B’nai Zion. At this year’s annual meeting we paused for a moment to honor them and to thank them. Our volunteers stand on the shoulders of a long line of people who built our shul from the ground up and we are most appreciative for all they do. To our volunteers we say, “Hats off to you! And many, many thanks!”

-Debra Pazos
Executive Director
For the past two years, I have had the privilege of serving on the Sisterhood board as the Vice President of Membership. It has been a great honor to work with this board, comprised of women whose love for our community and spirit of volunteerism encompasses all that Sisterhood stands for. As Debbie Cohen and I begin our service on the board in our positions as co-Presidents of Sisterhood, our goal is to continue the work that we started 2 years ago. While we are saying goodbye to long-time Sisterhood board members, we are pleased to welcome new board members, Sisters who are committed to supporting our objectives.

Summer is upon us and the board’s work will commence with a summer planning meeting. Our committee chairs and executive board members will decide on programming, service projects and fundraisers for the coming year. As always, our Sisters’ feedback is always welcome. Please reach out to Debbie or me to share any thoughts or ideas you have on how we can make this year our most successful and fulfilling yet.

This year, B’nai Zion’s Sisterhood will celebrate its 100th anniversary. In the coming months, we will solicit the help of all Sisters as we plan the event that will commemorate this incredible milestone. As we begin our membership drive this year, we hope that all women who are eligible for membership in Sisterhood will pledge their commitment to supporting Sisterhood as we enter our next 100 years of service to the community.

All members of our congregation should have received the newly published membership directory. We hope that you find it to be a valuable tool, providing you with easy access to contact information for your fellow congregants. Debbie Cohen oversaw the directory project and would like to thank those who assisted her. She is available to answer any questions or address any comments or concerns about the directory from the congregation.

Thank you to the 2017-2019 Board. You did a great job!!
2019 Annual Membership Meeting

In addition to electing the new Board of Directors and approving recommended changes to the synagogue By-Laws, B’nai Zion recognized this year’s 100+ volunteers at our Annual Membership Meeting on May 14th. Because our volunteers rock, each volunteer in attendance received a gift of Volunteers Rock Volunteer (chocolate) Rocks and, to show our appreciation for everything they do for B’nai Zion, were treated to a spread of delicious pastries and hors d’oeuvres presented in their honor. Volunteer standouts Leslie Beckoff, Patty Hutman, Kristin Kimmelman, Robin Krasne, Myer Lipson and Jerry Rubin received 2019 B’nai Zion RockStar awards.

Constitution and By-Laws of Congregation B’nai Zion Updated

Proposed changes to the Constitution and By-Laws of Congregation B’nai Zion were approved by the membership at the Annual Membership meeting on May 14th. The updates helped align B’nai Zion more closely with the contemporary “practices of the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism and the Rabbinical Assembly.” The updated B’nai Zion Constitution and By-Laws can be accessed on our website at: www.congregationbnaizion.org in the About Us Section, under Governance Documents.

Joint B’nai Zion and Sisterhood Installation Dinner

B’nai Zion and Sisterhood Officers and Directors were installed at a lovely Installation Dinner following Kabbalat Shabbat services Friday evening, May 17. We extend our heartfelt thanks to our member Janet Wechter, who in her role as Jewish Federation of Greater El Paso President, officiated with her usual perfect balance of professionalism, wisdom and light heartedness. We also thank the Installation Dinner Committee Patty Hutman and Debra Pazos, along with B’nai Zion staff Lupe Arras, Cynthia Arras and Arturo Guzman for making sure the evening was both meaningful and delicious. Congratulations to the new and continuing board members.
Our Talmud Torah marked the completion of the year with a fun filled pizza and ice cream party on Wednesday, May 8, 2019. We are grateful to Esther Kuchinsky and Elizabeth Roe who served as our teachers and who helped us introduce our new Shalom Learning curriculum. With our Shalom Learning program students will be able to log into their accounts and continue working on their Hebrew language skills over the summer. Parents will be receiving this new login information very soon.

The Shalom Learning curriculum was introduced this year and has helped our students with Hebrew learning and deepening their understanding of the major concepts and values that are essential to our faith. Rabbi Rosenberg has been providing individual instruction to our older students and has already noticed a great improvement in their Hebrew reading abilities, thanks to the Shalom Learning Program.

Over the summer, Rabbi Rosenberg, Esther and Elizabeth will be participating in an intensive training program that is designed to help us better use the Shalom Learning program in our Talmud Torah.

Our students had a great year and we are looking forward to continuing to enrich their Jewish knowledge when Talmud Torah resumes in the fall.
