

Where in the area is Rabbi Paskind?

Borrowed from "Where's Waldo?"

Rabbi Paskind's Pop Up Rabbi is so successful, she is continuing it! She'll be "popping up" at different local independent coffee shops and diners with one purpose: To spend time with you.

Stop in to share a cup of coffee and some conversation with her. Perhaps even bring a friend. There's no agenda, no set topic. Whoever shows up — congregant or new friend — will be the right company.

Below are the next dates.
