יזכור

ה', מָה-אָדָם וַתִּדְעֶהוּ, בְּיוֹם-אָנוּשׁ וַתַּחֲשֹׁבֵהוּ.
 אָדָם לַהֲבִיל דָּמָה, יָמָיו כְּצֶל עוֹבֵר.
 בִּבְקָר יִצִּיץ וְחֶלֶף, לְעָרֵב יִמּוֹלֵל וְיִגְבֵּשׁ.
 תֵּשֵׁב אָנוּשׁ עַד-דְּכָא, וַתֹּאמֶר שׁוּבוּ בְנֵי אָדָם.
 שׁוּבָה ה' עַד-מָתִי, וְהִנַּחֵם עַל עֲבֹדֶיךָ.

There is a time for everything;
 there is a time for all things under the sun:
 a time to be born and a time to die
 a time to laugh and a time to cry;
*a time to dance and a time to mourn
 a time to seek and a time to lose a time to forget and a time to remember.*

This day in sacred convocation
 we remember those who gave us life.
This day we remember those who enriched our life with love and with beauty, with kindness and compassion, with thoughtfulness and understanding.

This day we renew our bonds to those who have gone the way of all the earth,
 to those whose memory moves us this day.
*As we reflect upon them, we seek consolation,
 and the strength and the insight born of faith.*

As a parent shows love to a child,
 Adonai embraces all who are faithful.
*God knows how we are fashioned;
 remembers that we are dust.*

Our days are as grass;
 we flourish as a flower in the field.
 The wind passes over it and it is gone,
 and no one can recognize where it grew.
*But Adonai's compassion for those who are steadfast, God's righteousness to children's children,
 remain, age after age, unchanging.*

Memorial Plaques are lit during the week of the yahrzeit of each loved one and all plaques are lit on the days that Yizkor is recited.

The Synagogue Office can assist you in remembering your loved one in this special way.

**Past President of Congregation Beth El*

Three score and ten our years may number, four score years if granted the vigor.
Laden with trouble and travail,
life quickly passes, it flies away.

*What are mortals, eternal God,
that You should be mindful of them?*

What are mortals, that You should take note of them,
that You have made them little less than angels?

*The sounds of infants attest to Your power;
the magnificence of life reflects Your glory.
The heavens display Your splendor.
What majesty is Yours throughout the world!*

Teach us to use all of our days,
that we may attain a heart of wisdom.

*Bless us of Your love in the morning,
that we may joyously sing all our days.*

שְׁוִיתִי ה' לְנֶגְדֵי תְּמִיד, כִּי מִיָּמִינֵי בַּל אֶמוּט.
לְכוּן שְׂמַח לְבִי וַיְגַל כְּבוֹדֵי, אַף בְּשָׂרֵי יִשְׁכֹּן לְבָטָח.

When I stray from You, Adonai, my life is as death;
but when I cleave to You, even in death I have life.

You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.

The earth inherits that which perishes.
But only the dust returns to dust;
the soul, which is God's, is immortal.

*Adonai has compassion for all creatures.
God has planted eternity within our soul,
granting us a share in unending life.*

God redeems our life from the grave.

May we all be charitable in deed and in thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace,
so that we will be remembered as a blessing,
as we this day lovingly remember those who live on in our hearts.

Our generations are bound to each other as children now remember their parents. Love is strong as death as husbands and wives now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children. Memory conquers death's dominion as we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents and other relatives and friends.

The death of those we now remember left gaping holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives. And we are strengthened by the blessings which they left us, by previous memories which comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

We rise. Each congregant reads silently the appropriate passages among those which follow. Personal meditations may also be added.

May God remember the soul of my father who has gone to his eternal home. In loving testimony to his life I pledge charity to help perpetuate ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is his soul bound up in the bond of life. May I prove myself worthy of the gift of life and the many other gifts with which he blessed me. May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with his memory and with our entire family May he rest eternally in dignity and peace. Amen.

In memory of congregants who died during the past year

We lovingly recall the members of our congregation who have passed away since we gathered in this sanctuary on last Yom Kippur. They have a special place in our hearts. We pray this day that all who have sustained the loss of loved ones in the year gone by be granted comfort and strength.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help all of us to perpetuate the worthy values in the lives of those no longer with us, whose names we respectfully recall.

May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say: Amen.

We Remember Them

At the rising of the sun and at its going down
we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter
we remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring
we remember them.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer
we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn
we remember them.

*As long as we live, they too will live
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.*

When we are weary and in need of strength
we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart
we remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share
we remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make
we remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs
we remember them.

*As long as we live, they too will live
For they are now a part of us,
As we remember them.*

Psalm 23

מְזִמּוֹר לְדוֹד. יי רְעִי לֹא אֶחְסֶר.

Adonai is my shepherd; I shall not want.

בְּנֵאוֹת דְּשָׁא יִרְבִּיצָנִי,

God gives me repose in green meadows.

עַל־מֵי מְנוּחוֹת יִנְהַלֵּנִי, נִפְשִׁי יִשׁוּבֵב and guides me over calm waters.

יִנְחֵנִי בְּמַעְגְלֵי צְדָק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ.

God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path—
for that is God's way.

גַּם כִּי־אֵלֶּךְ בְּגִיא צַלְמוֹת

לֹא־אִירָא רָע כִּי־אֵתֶּה עִמּוֹדִי,

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,

I fear no harm, for You are at my side.

שֶׁבֶטְךָ וּמִשְׁעֶנְתְּךָ הִקְמָה יִנְחַמְנִי.

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

תַּעֲרֹךְ לִפְנֵי שְׁלֹחוֹ נִגְדַּ צַרְרִי,

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes;

דֹּשַׁנְתָּ בְּשֶׁמֶן רֹאשִׁי, כּוֹסֵי רוּגְיָה.

You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows.

אֵךְ טוֹב וְחֶסֶד יִרְדְּפוּנִי כָּל־יְמֵי חַיִּי,

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life.

וְשָׁבְתִי בְּבֵית־יְיָ לְאֶרֶץ זָמִים.

And I shall dwell in the House of Adonai forever.

Everyone Has a Name

Everyone has a name
given by the Source of Life and given by our parents.

Everyone has a name
given by our stature and our smile and given by what we wear.

Everyone has a name
given by the mountains
and given by our walls.

Everyone has a name
given by the stars
and given by our neighbors.

Everyone has a name
given by our sins
and given by our longing.

Everyone has a name
given by our enemies
and given by our love.

Everyone has a name
given by our celebrations
and given by our work.

Everyone has a name
given by the seasons and given by our blindness.

Everyone has a name
given by the sea and given by our death.
