Yizkor

There is a time for everything; there is a time for all things under the sun: a time to be born and a time to die; a time to laugh and a time to cry; a time to dance and a time to mourn; a time to seek and a time to lose; a time to forget and a time to remember.

This day in sacred convocation we remember those who gave us life.

This day we remember those who enriched our life with love and with beauty, with kindness and compassion, with thoughtfulness and understanding.

This day we renew our bonds to those who have gone the way of all the earth, to those whose memory moves us this day.

As we reflect upon them, we seek consolation, and the strength and the insight born of faith.

As a parent shows love to a child, Adonai embraces all who are faithful.

God knows how we are fashioned; remembers that we are dust.

Our days are as grass; we flourish as a flower in the field. The wind passes over it and it is gone, and no one can recognize where it grew.

But Adonai’s compassion for those who are steadfast, God’s righteousness to children’s children, remain, age after age, unchanging.
Three score and ten our years may number,
four score years if granted the vigor.
Laden with trouble and travail,
life quickly passes, it flies away.

What are mortals, eternal God,
that You should be mindful of them?

What are mortals, that You should take note of them,
that You have made them little less than angels?

The sounds of infants attest to Your power;
the magnificence of life reflects Your glory.
The heavens display Your splendor.
What majesty is Yours throughout the world!

Teach us to use all of our days,
that we may attain a heart of wisdom.
Bless us of Your love in the morning,
that we may joyously sing all our days.

When I stray from You, Adonai, my life is as death;
but when I cleave to You, even in death I have life.
You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.
The earth inherits that which perishes.
But only the dust returns to dust;
the soul, which is God’s, is immortal.
Adonai has compassion for all creatures.
God has planted eternity within our soul,
granting us a share in unending life.

God redeems our life from the grave.
May we all be charitable in deed and in thought,
in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.
May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace,
so that we will be remembered as a blessing,
as we this day lovingly remember those who live on in our hearts.

Our generations are bound to each other as children now remember their parents. Love is strong as death as husbands and wives now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children. Memory conquers death’s dominion as we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents and other relatives and friends.

The death of those we now remember left gaping holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives. And we are strengthened by the blessings which they left us, by previous memories which comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

We rise. Each congregant reads silently the appropriate passages among those which follow. Personal meditations may also be added.

In memory of a father

May God remember the soul of my father who has gone to his eternal home. In loving testimony to his life I pledge charity to help perpetuate ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is his soul bound up in the bond of life. May I prove myself worthy of the gift of life and the many other gifts with which he blessed me. May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with his memory and with our entire family May he rest eternally in dignity and peace. Amen.
In memory of a mother

May God remember the soul of my mother who has gone to her eternal home. In loving testimony to her life I pledge charity to help perpetuate ideals important to her. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is her soul bound up in the bond of life. May I prove myself worthy of the gift of life and the many other gifts with which she blessed me. May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with her memory and with our entire family. May she rest eternally in dignity and peace. Amen.

In memory of a husband

May God remember the soul of my husband who has gone to his eternal home. In loving testimony to his life I pledge charity to help perpetuate ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is his soul bound up in the bond of life. Love is strong as death, deep bonds of love are indissoluble. The memory of our companionship and love leads me out of loneliness into all that we shared which still endures. May he rest eternally in dignity and peace. Amen.

May they rest eternally in dignity and peace. Amen.

In memory of congregants who died during the past year

We lovingly recall the members of our congregation who have passed away since we gathered in this sanctuary on last Yom Kippur. They have a special place in our hearts. We pray this day that all who have sustained the loss of loved ones in the year gone by be granted comfort and strength.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help all of us to perpetuate the worthy values in the lives of those no longer with us, whose names we respectfully recall.

May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say: Amen.

Yizkor Meditation in Memory of a Parent Who Was Hurtful

Dear God,
You know my heart. Indeed, You know me better than I know myself, so I turn to You before I rise for Kaddish. My emotions swirl as I say this prayer. The parent I remember was not kind to me. His/her death left me with a legacy of unhealed wounds, of anger and of dismay that a parent could hurt a child as I was hurt.

I do not want to pretend to love, or to grief that I do not feel, but I do want to do what is right as a Jew and as a child.

Help me, O God, to subdue my bitter emotions that do me no good, and to find that place in myself where happier memories may lie hidden, and where grief for all that could have been, all that should have been, may be calmed by forgiveness, or at least soothed by the passage of time.

I pray that You, who raise up slaves to freedom, will liberate me from the oppression of my hurt and anger, and that You will lead me from this desert to Your holy place.

— Robert Saks, Mahzor Lev Shalem
Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering Presence, among the holy and the pure, to the souls of all our brethren, men, women and children of the House of Israel who were slaughtered and burned. May their memory endure, inspiring truth and loyalty in our lives. May their souls thus be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

In memory of all the dead

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace among the holy and the pure, in Your sheltering Presence, to the souls of all our beloved who have gone to their eternal home. May their memory endure as inspiration for deeds of charity and goodness in our lives. May their souls thus be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

We Remember Them
At the rising of the sun and at its going down we remember them.
At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter we remember them.
At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring we remember them.
At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer we remember them.
At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live
for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength we remember them.
When we are lost and sick at heart we remember them.
When we have joy we crave to share we remember them.
When we have decisions that are difficult to make we remember them.
When we have achievements that are based on theirs we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live
For they are now a part of us,
As we remember them.
Psalm 23

אָדֹנָי לְעֹֽיִּוני לֹּא אֶחְסֶָֽר

God gives me repose in green meadows.

עַל־מֵּּירֵּנִי נַפְּשִׁי יְשׁוֹבֵּב and guides me over calm waters.

וֹ ֶֽיַּנְּחֵּנִי בְּמַעְּגְּּלֵי־צֶּּדֶּק לְּמַעַן שְּׁמֵיהֶז

God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path—

פַֹּּתִּי וּמִשְּׁעַנְּתֶּךָ הֵֵּֽם יְּנֶַֽחֲמֶֻֽנִי

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

שָּׁבְּתִי בְּבֵּית־אָדֹנָי לְאֹּרֶּךְ יָמִֶֽים

And I shall dwell in the House of Adonai forever.
