Torah on Tour

Brotherly Love by Rabbi Jarrod Grover

The story of Aaron and Moses is the story of two brothers who reach the heights of fraternal love and respect.

The midrash explains that because Aaron was truly happy for his brother's election by God, he was granted the High Priesthood, and the honour of wearing the breastplate: "His heart will be glad when he sees you" – Let the heart that rejoiced in the greatness of his brother be vested with the Urim and Tumim. (Shemot Rabbah 3:17)

It was precisely the fact that Aaron did not envy his younger brother but instead rejoiced in his greatness that made him worthy to be High Priest. So it came to pass – measure for measure – that just as Aaron made space for his younger brother to lead, so the Torah makes space for Aaron to lead.

"Who is honoured?" asked Ben Zoma (Avot 4:1). "One who honours others." To this day, a Kohen is honoured by being first to be called up to the Torah – the Torah that Aaron's younger brother Moses gave to the Jewish people.
