About Rabbi Feuerstein:

Rabbi Feuerstein is the President of the Feuerstein Institute, located in Jerusalem, Israel. Founded by his father, Israel Prize recipient, Professor Reuven Feuerstein z"l, the Institute engages in the research, development and dissemination of the Feuerstein Method, a widely acclaimed series of cognitive tools to systematically assess and advance thinking and learning skills. The Feuerstein Method is used in educational settings worldwide with children of all ages, backgrounds and levels of abilities, and has proven to be as effective for gifted students as for mainstream and remedial learners. Students are provided with the necessary tools to refine their cognitive and analytic skills, allowing them to exceed their manifest abilities and become better, more equipped learners for the future.
