Monday Night Lecture Series

with Rabbi Freundlich

אם הבנים
שמחה

Join Rabbi Freundlich for a look into a seminal work by Rav Yisacher Shlomo Teichtel, one of Hungary's great Chassidic leaders (1885-1945). Rav Teichtel wrote a masterful, passionate treatise on his absolute conviction that resettling the Land of Israel was the solution to Jewish suffering and the harbinger for our ultimate Redemption.

Titled "Eim Habanim Semeicha" this unique work was written in the midst of the unspeakable horrors of the Holocaust, often without books and always in hiding. It ventures into the unanswerable question of "Why?" and provides a fascinating formula for lifting the Jewish people out of their despair and restoring them in our Ancient Homeland.

MONDAY, APRIL 16 - 8:00PM

Introduction: The Land of Israel is Our Heritage

The historical context of this work, the unanswered call of Aliya, and the destruction of European Jewry.

Persecution and the Birth Pangs of Mashiach

Why must afflictions precede the Redemption? Where does the desire to return to the Land of Israel come from? What will "the sound of my beloved knocking" sound like?

MONDAY, APRIL 23 - 8:00PM

Deliverance and Redemption

Must we be worthy to merit Redemption and the hidden miracle of the "natural" process and its unlikely agents.

MONDAY, APRIL 30 - 8:00PM

Settling the Land of Israel

The mitzvah of living in Israel and the role of resettlement in the unity of the Jewish people and the Redemptive process.
