Monday Night Lecture Series

with Rabbi Freundlich

Join Rabbi Freundlich for a look into a seminal work by Rav Yisacher Shlomo Teichtel, one of Hungary's great Chassidic leaders (1885-1945). Rav Teichtel wrote a masterful, passionate treatise on his absolute conviction that resettling the Land of Israel was the solution to Jewish suffering and the harbinger for our ultimate Redemption.

Titled "Eim Habanim Semeicha" this unique work was written in the midst of the unspeakable horrors of the Holocaust, often without books and always in hiding. It ventures into the unanswerable question of "Why?" and provides a fascinating formula for lifting the Jewish people out of their despair and restoring them in our Ancient Homeland.

with Dr. M. Kedar

Dr. Mordechai Kedar, the Director of the Center for the Study of the Middle East and Islam (under formation), a research associate of the Begin-Sadat Center for Strategic Studies and a lecturer in the Department of Arabic Studies at Bar-Ilan University in Israel, is one of Israel's leading figures in understanding the Arab world. Until recently he was the Middle East analyst of the daily newspaper Makor Rishon as well as other publications. Dr. Kedar is a frequent guest in the Israeli, Arab and international media. In January of 2011, Dr. Kedar gave a very insightful presentation on Capitol Hill on "Why is the Middle East Such a Difficult Area for Americans and Westerners to Understand?"
