STEVE GAR

SHABBAT
PARSHAT SHELACH
JUNE 8-9
2018

Steve Gar was born into a traditional Jewish family in Johannesburg, South Africa. He joined a communal counter-terrorism reaction unit and was part of the protective detail for the Chief Rabbi of South Africa.

At the age of 22 he joined the Hesder Yeshiva program and served in the Golan infantry unit "Battalion 13", receiving an award for 'Soldier of Excellence'.

He completed his training as a combat instructor, specializing in counter-terrorism, and is now responsible for training military units through the Central Command of the Gush Etzion. Steve currently serves on a counter-terrorist unit while completing his rabbinical studies. In addition, he is one of the directors of a special needs program, Yeshivat Darkaynu. Steve lives in Elazar (Gush Etzion) with his wife Natalie and their five children.

TOPICS

- Friday Night for Students: "Get to know Israel's Jack Bauer"
- Counter-Terrorism - Fighting the Enemy From Within. Understanding Israeli counter-terrorism from a personal perspective. Challenging the media's perception of Israeli soldiers.
- From a Defenseless Nation to our Defensive Shield - An Israeli Counter-Terrorism Perspective. How far Israel has come as a nation can be seen through our unique contribution to the world.
