Introducing TBJ Chesed Group's New

FRIENDLY NEIGHBOUR LIST

To provide improved services to our community, TBJ's Chesed Group is proud to launch a new weekly email service: The Friendly Neighbour List. This weekly email will include:

- A Bikur Cholim list informing you of members (and their direct family) in need of a refuah shleima,
- A Shiva list, with information on hours and minyanim
- A visitation list, with people who'd welcome a visit or call

Would you like to receive this weekly email and participate in our collective efforts? If yes, please email chesed@tbdj.org and ask to be added to the list.

Please also help us maintain the list:

If you have a family member who is ill, or hear of a TBJ member who is not well, please send details to either chesed@tbdj.org or to Rabbi Freundlich. We will always verify the family's desire to have this information shared prior to doing so.

Please do the same with any information on how we can help one another in other ways.

We pray for a refuah shleima for all those in need, and hope to inspire our community to help via bikur cholim and providing assistance however possible.

This email service will be available for sponsorship on a monthly basis. A dedication message will accompany each email sent. If you are interested in sponsoring an upcoming month, please contact director@tbdj.org.

Rabbi Ari Abramowitz is the director of TheLandofIsrael.Com Network and founder of the Arugot Farms and Retreat Center on the southeastern tip of Judea.

Born in Houston, Texas, Ari made Aliyah after high school and served as a sharpshooter in the Golani Infantry Brigade. Having founded the premier English speaking podcast network in Israel, Ari is a respected advocate for Israel, both domestically and internationally with appearances on CNN, Fox News, BBC, and many other international outlets.

In 2015, with his partner and IDF commander Rabbi Jeremy Gimpel, Ari embarked on this greatest mission of his life, founding the Arugot Farm and Retreat Center on the southeastern tip of Judea. In just a few short years, the center has transformed from being barren and desolate desert mountains into a Garden of Eden-like oasis with vineyards, sheep, a nearly completed retreat center, thousands of fruit trees, and so much more. The center hosts thousands of tourists every year, and also serves as headquarters for TheLandofIsrael.Com Network.

Ari lives with his wife Shaena on a mountaintop overlooking Masada and the Dead Sea on the Arugot Farms.
