Bnei Akiva Montreal has joined the initiative of Bnei Akiva worldwide to send letters to the families of those who have been affected by the current wave of terror in Israel. We hope they will be strengthened by the support they receive from North American Jewry.

Please submit them through the link in our website bneiakivamtl.com and we'll make sure they are delivered next week in Israel.

November, 1938. Kristallnacht.

Centuries of Jewish culture collapsed into smoking ash as German synagogues were set ablaze. Along with the destruction of those majestic structures, the music that had been ringing from the bimah for over a century was silenced.

On Sunday, November 1, 2015, that golden age of German cantorial music comes back to life in a spellbinding event featuring:

- The McGill Chamber Orchestra
Ro'i Azoulay, Conductor
- Cantor Gideon Zelermyer
- Cantor Netanel Baram
- Akiva School Children's Choir
- Rabbi Adam Scheier, Narrator
