November, 1938. Kristallnacht.

Centuries of Jewish culture collapsed into smoking ash as German synagogues were set ablaze. Along with the destruction of those majestic structures, the music that had been ringing from the bimah for over a century was silenced.

On Sunday, November 1, 2015, that golden age of German cantorial music comes back to life in a spellbinding event featuring:

- The McGill Chamber Orchestra
Ro'i Azoulay, Conductor
- Cantor Gideon Zelermyer
- Cantor Netanel Baram
- Akiva School Children's Choir
- Rabbi Adam Scheier, Narrator
