An important message to the TBDJ Community from Laura Ben-David of Shavei Israel who visited us in October:

Shalom,

On January 4, our beloved Bnei Menashe in Manipur, India, woke up to an earthquake measuring 6.7 on the Richter scale. While thank G-d none of them were injured, there is extensive property damage, and 50-60 families literally had to leave their homes.

We immediately created a relief fund to provide the help they desperately need as they pick up the pieces of their lives. We're not aware of any other Jewish or Israeli organization providing assistance at this time. In fact, some of the families affected were the ones in the midst of preparing for their own imminent Aliyah to Israel.

I don't know what you are able/comfortable to do with regards to your own community, but as many of them have just heard about the Bnei Menashe we thought they would want to know what is happening, and what is being done to help. We would be so grateful if you could share. Even just to help get the word out to stress the importance it would be of huge assistance.

May we have only good news!

Kol Hakavod to TBDJ Member Mark Wainberg for this wonderful donation:

Jerusalem – On Monday, January 18, a 150-year-old Torah scroll was donated to a synagogue serving the city's Ethiopian community in a ceremony at the Jerusalem municipality building. The ceremony was attended by officials including Jerusalem Mayor Nir Barkat, representatives of the Ethiopian community, and Professor Mark Wainberg, who made the donation.

Wainberg is a Canadian expert on HIV research who works at Montreal's Jewish General Hospital and at McGill University. He thought of making the donation after the murder of Shira Banki, the 16-year-old girl who was stabbed to death in July 2015 during Jerusalem's Gay Pride Parade. When Wainberg heard of Banki's murder, he decided to honor her memory by donating a Torah scroll (a calligraphic copy of the Hebrew Bible used in Jewish prayers) to a community in Jerusalem. Banki's parents, Mika and Uri, also attended Monday's ceremony.

The Torah scroll, originally written in Baghdad, Iraq, was restored and repaired, and the Jerusalem municipality assisted in contacting the Ethiopian Jewish community in the city's Katamonim neighborhood and arranging the transfer of the scroll.

"This is both an exciting and sad occasion," said Mayor Barkat during the ceremony. "We remember Shira and the tragedy of her death, but, at the same time, we are creating hope and renewal among members of the Ethiopian community in the city...I would like to thank Professor Wainberg for the thoughtful donation and wish the Banki family and all of us many moments of joy, happiness and hope," added Barkat.
