Steven Lapidus

Kitaigorod - Profile of a Ukrainian Shtetl

Based on the memoirs of his grandfather, a former resident of Kitaigorod, Podolia, Ukraine, Steven Lapidus has drawn an historical image of life in that town in the early twentieth century. Supported by historical documents, Yizkor books, affidavits, images and trial testimonies he traces Kitaigorod's Jewish history, including the devastating pogrom of 1919, which led to a survivor's testimony at the 1927 Schwartzbart trial in Paris and the town's ultimate destruction in the Holocaust.

The Main: A Taste of Montreal's Jewish, Italian & Chinese Communities

SUNDAY, MAY 28, 7-10 PM

18 Cleve Road, Hampstead H3X 1A6

CULINARY DELIGHTS | FILM | DISCUSSION

The premiere public screening of the English language film "La Main: Street of Immigrants" by Montreal producer Paul Carvalho.

St Laurent Boulevard – The Main – is more than just a street; it is a legend in the Canadian psyche, a street that is magical and mysterious. "It is a street of "flashing neon, the smell of sausages, French fries and gefilte-fish, affirming that one is never alone here". (Andree Maillet)

St Laurent Boulevard evokes memories of another time and generations past... and will always have a special place in the hearts of Montrealers. Join us as we celebrate the immigrant experience of the Jewish, Italian and Chinese communities as they journeyed through the iconic Main.
