"Getting Your Kitchen Ready for Pesach" & "Getting Your Table Ready for The Seder"

Rabbi Freundlich led an in-depth and insightful 2-part series helping us prepare our homes for Pesach in this very different year.

"Getting Your Kitchen Ready for Pesach" included basic cleaning methods; dealing with ovens, microwaves, and refrigerators; what to do with urns, dishes, pots and pans; different ways to kasher dishes and utensils.

"Getting Your Table Ready for the Seder" explored answers to the following questions: How much matzah do I really need to eat? How do I get my food items ready? How can I make this meaningful for my family without all of the regular participants I am usually with?

MAOT CHITIM

One of the most important communal responsibilities we have in the weeks leading up to Pesach is what's known as Maot Chittim ("money for wheat"). This collection of Funds was established by the Sages and incumbent upon each individual member of the community to make sure that everyone has what they need to make Pesach, particularly matzah and wine. You can contribute to our Maot Chittim fund by clicking below, choosing to make a Donation, and selecting "Maot Chittim" in the dropdown box.
