Just a Thought

Recently I heard a clip of old news on NPR, (National Palestinian Radio), of Steven Colbert interviewing Vice President Joe Biden about whether he was going to run for President and he said to run for President of the United States, you will have to give 110% of yourself to the task at hand and since his son's death that would not be possible.

Joe Biden is a career politician. It's his whole world. It's his very life. He is Vice President of the United States and I'm sure it would be his greatest dream to be President of this country. But I'm also sure that he would give up every and any position of power, every accolade and every moment of fame and fortune to have his son back again. Family - it's the greatest gift we have. Appreciate every moment of it!
