This portion of the Torah is almost always read during the mourning period of the three weeks, which is designated to remember the destruction of both temples in Jerusalem. This Parsha of Pinchas also discusses all the festivals of joy which occur during the year. Says the great Rebbe, Reb Elimelech, it is not a coincidence that as the period of mourning begins, we also read about the Yomim Tovim. It’s to teach us a lesson that we should not get carried away with sadness and depression because of the laws of mourning that we practice during this time. The festival days remind us that the period of grief will pass and we will once again rejoice. We all have periods in our life which are difficult and challenging, to say the least. Some people become broken and depressed by the inevitable negative circumstances that life often brings. The antidote is to remember that there will be joy in the future. Our own personal histories should be sources of strength to us. Each of us has had times when we felt sad and discouraged and could not see the light at the end of the tunnel. Yet we emerged from these circumstances and experienced joy in life. We must remember these episodes, and if difficult days come again, we know that they too shall pass, and within time we will experience joy and happiness once again.

WE ARE LOOKING FOR SHABBOS KIDDUSH SPONSORS
We are now in the “slower summer season” for getting Kiddush sponsors. We are therefore asking our members and friends to sponsor a Kiddush over the summer months in commemoration of special family occasions (anniversaries, birthdays, yahrzeits, etc.) or just as a gesture of support to our shul. We thank all for your support of this wonderful Young Israel tradition.

Yizkor Book
We mailed the forms for our Yizkor Book last week. Please send us the names of your loved ones to be listed in the Yizkor Book as soon as possible. You can pay through our website via PayPal, call the office with a credit card or send a check.
