We have no sponsor for Kiddush this week. If you want to sponsor this week's Kiddush, please call the office and we will announce it in next week's Shmooze News.

מדוע תתנשאו על קהל ה.....כי תשתרר עלינו גם השתרר

“Why do you elevate yourselves over the congregation of G-d?
...yet you seek to dominate us and you wish to increase your dominance?” *Bamidbar 16:3,13

The verse above is the complaint that Korach is voicing against Moshe Rabeinu. This is the same “Moshe” who did not want to accept the position of leadership of the Jewish people. This is the “Moshe” that the Torah testifies -- which means G-d testifies -- was the humblest man on the face of the earth. How preposterous that Korach and his followers should accuse Moshe of hubris and making himself superior to all others? This is exactly the point the Torah is teaching us. When a person becomes involved in a personal dispute, he loses all sense of logic and may advocate the most absurd arguments. While observers can see how this individual makes an absolute fool of himself, the person involved is so blinded that he will put forth the most ridiculous accusations. We see from here that machlokes, divisiveness and bickering, is, of course, not the way to build the Jewish people. Our greatest spiritual power is to keep united. Shalom is the key. Everybody in life has his own personal red line that he does not cross. Our collective red line should be that anything that fosters dissension, machlokes, and divisiveness amongst ourselves, families, and congregants is not acceptable. It is a line we cannot afford to cross. For our sake and the sake of the Jewish people, we should see an end to our bitter Galus and the beginning of our redemption, may it come speedily in our days!

Wishing you an inspiring Shabbos!
Rabbi Moshe Gruenstein

With anti-Semitic attacks and incidents on the rise, safety continues to be a top advocacy priority on both the state and federal levels. The Federal House Appropriations Committee recently approved a $30 million increase to homeland security grant funding, and we continue to advocate for that increase through the U.S. Senate. In NY, our coalition partner Teach NYS was able to secure an additional $20 million in security funding for non-public schools and day camps at risk of hate crimes.
