ה"ה "קל רחום וחנון ארך אפים ורב חסד ואמת נשא עון ופשע וחטאה ונקח

Hashem, Hashem, G-d compassionate & gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in kindness and truth – Preserver of kindness for thousands of generations - Forgiver of iniquity, willful sin, and error.

These are the 13 divine attributes of mercy that G-d revealed to Moshe Rabbeinu. The Talmud states, "whenever Israel sins, let them perform before Me this order and I shall forgive them." According to the commentators, this does not mean to just recite the 13 attributes, it means to live by them. The Baal Shem Tov said that this is the meaning of the verse in Psalms 121:5, "G-d is your shadow". Just as one's shadow mimics one's every move, so does G-d reciprocate in kind. If a person is magnanimous and readily forgives personal offenses, then G-d will forgive that person as well. The Talmud states that Jerusalem was destroyed (Bava Metzia 30B), because when the people went to court, they demanded the letter of the law. The question arises, if they followed the clear letter of the law, why should they be punished? The answer is because they refused to yield and be magnanimous. They insisted on getting everything that the law entitled them to receive. Therefore, G-d in turn judged us measure for measure by exercising the letter of the law against us and refusing to yield. We may think that when we forgive an offense, we are being charitable to the offender. The fact is we are being kind and charitable to ourselves.

Wishing all of you an inspiring Shabbos!
Rabbi Moshe Gruenstein

Mishloach Manot: Ginette & Max Dekelbaum sent a basket to the entire shul. Due to a glitch in the program their names didn't show up in the scroll we distributed. We greatly apologize and thank them for their generous donation.

Thank you for helping make this year's Purim Mishloach Manot Drive and Seudah so special!

Dear Congregants and Community Members:

One of the most vital functions of a member of a community within our democracy is to exercise the right to vote in local and national elections. In local elections, voter turnout is less than twenty percent of the population of a particular area, so in smaller towns, literally every vote matter. As our community grows it is helpful to have elected officials who represent us and our needs.

To vote by mail: <https://miamidade.electionsfl.org/vrservices/mbrs>

Shabbat Dinner: During the winter months, Shabbat Dinners are available for purchase at local area restaurants such as Kosh and Backyard BBQ on Harding Avenue and King David Cuisine on Collins Avenue. Please contact the restaurants directly for reservations, cost, and availability.

Eruv Bal Harbour: The Eruv in Bal Harbour includes the inner (western) walking path only. The pier at Haulover Cut is not included. We would like to emphasize that every Erev Shabbos, individuals should call the Eruv Hotline to make sure that the Eruv is operational prior to carrying on Shabbos. The number is 305-866-ERUV (3788). The Eruv message is recorded approximately two hours prior to Candle Lighting. Miami Beach Eruv web page: www.miamibeacheruv.com Kiddush and Seudah Shlishis: Every Shabbos, the Young Israel has a beautiful Kiddush after Mussaf, as well as a Seudah Shlishis between Mincha and Maariv. Please join us!

Please submit all insertions for the Shmooze News to yakira@yicbh.org by noon on Thursday

If you are interested in sponsoring Kiddush or Seudah Shlishis,
