Parshas Korach, June 27, 2020

Rabbi Moshe Gruenstein – rabbi@yicbh.org President Menno Ratzker

SHABBAT SHALOM!
PLEASE STAY SAFE AND TAKE CARE OF YOURSELVES.

Our Sages teach us that the rebellion of Korach against the authority of Moshe and Aharon was a thinly veiled attempt to earn honor and prestige. Korach felt slighted that he had been bypassed for a position of authority and leadership and tried to overthrow Moshe and Aharon. As we see, their attempt failed and cost Korach and hundreds of his followers their lives. The desire for honor can, in fact, degenerate to the point that a person actually demands kavod! And when one demands honor, be it at home, in the shul, or community, that is the most compelling reason he is unworthy of it. When a person demands to have an aliya for no other reason than “I just want one;” or when a person demands to be recognized and complimented, people might agree to his request, but in truth they will look at him like a fool, and in the end, he is only receiving fake honor because behind his back people are talking about how pompous and arrogant he is. and respect has to be given not taken. It is instructive to note that in the entire war of words between Moshe and Korach about the position of Aharon as Kohen Gadol, Aharon did not utter one word in his own defense. It was Moshe and later G-d who defended Aharon's right to the position. In Mishlei (20:3) it states כבוד לאיש שבת מריב [Staying away from quarrel is a man's honor]. The same applies to not allowing oneself to respond in anger to someone's insensitive remark. Such a display of self-control is truly deserving of honor.

Wishing you an inspiring Shabbos!

With much blessing and love,

Rabbi Moshe Gruenstein
