The Rambam in his great halachic work (Yad Hachazaka) states at the end of the laws of Channukah, “Great is peace, for the entire Torah was given to make peace.” Imagine that the goal of the whole Torah is to bring peace. Machlokes (fights) on the other hand brings only suffering, pain, and devastation. In fact, the word Machlokes is a contraction of two words chelek and maves, which means a portion of death. Thus, our objective in life should be to create a home of cheerfulness and tranquility for ourselves and children.
