מי האיש החפץ חיים אוהב ימים -- "Who is the man who desires life, who loves days in which to see goodness..." Some commentaries explain this to mean that if a person truly desires life and wants to love his days and enjoy life, then he has to have an attitude of לראות טוב, to always see the good and positive in people and in all the events of life. This is, of course, not so easy, but without Emunah, faith, and trust in G-d it is impossible. A journey of one thousand miles begins with that first step. What are we waiting for?

Wishing you a great and inspiring day!
