We need to redefine the term Orthodox Jew. A non-observant Jew once asked a well-known Rav, “How do you explain religious Jews who lie about their incomes and cheat on their taxes?” “How do you explain the religious Jews who drive on Shabbos and eat on Yom Kippur?” asked this Rabbi. “Those are not religious Jews” said the man. “Neither are those who cheat on their taxes”, replied the Rav.

Wishing you a great and inspiring day!
