One must remember that no one owes us anything. If we were given life as a gift we need to thank G-d for it. How great is our obligation to thank and praise our creator for all of the many kindnesses, large and small, that he performs for us on a daily basis. Our sages composed various expressions of thanks to G-d such as Modeh Ani- I gratefully thank you, o'living and eternal king for you have returned my soul within me... we need to renew everyday our appreciation and joy for G-d's great kindness in returning our soul to our bodies.

Wishing you a great and inspiring day!
