It is told that when the Lubavitcher Rebbe was arrested, and the secret police were bringing him to prison, one of the policemen held a gun to him. The Rebbe said to him, “That little toy can only frighten a person who has one world and many gods. I have one G-d and two worlds. Put it away you don’t scare me.” In Psalms, King David says, ה לא אירא מה , יעשה לי אדם , G-d is with me, I have no fear, man cannot affect me.” A person who does not fear other people but fears only G-d, can stand up for his principles and what he believes in without surrendering to intimidation, because the only opinion that matters is the opinion of G-d Almighty.
